Back On Force At Chester

Lennens New Patrolman And Acting Police Chief

Clarence (Bud) Lennens, former Chester police chief replaced last week, was back wearing an officer's uniform today after Council — in a split vote — appointed him patrolman and acting chief at a meeting Friday night.

Lennens, 35, of Pennsylvania Ave. was named the city's second patroleman to serve as acting chief until the chief's position can be filled.

HIS appointment, by a 3-2 vote, came after a motion to name Harold Davis, former police chief whom Lennens replaced in July, was rejected in a 3-2 vote.

Over 100 attended the brief special session of Council at which seven applications were considered.

Council met in a short caucus before the special meeting began at 7:39 p.m., and the meeting, which ended five minutes later, was unmarked by any murmurs, jeers or cheers or statements from any of the audience, a contrast to some previous meetings.

The city's police protection for a week has consisted of Patrolman Clifford Bebout, Special Officer Joe Bryan and occasional visits by West Virginia State Police.

ORVILLE Johnson, school bus driver and insurance salesman, was appointed police chief Jan. 2 to succeed Lennens whom the three-member Council majority said was not fulfilling all his duties.

Councilmen Wayne Hutton, Donald Chaney and Carl Graham had pressed for enforcement of liquor and gambling laws since taking office in July. Lennens said he had been unable to obtain search warrants for police action, and was handicapped by other legal technicalities.

Johnson quit Jan. 4, citing the pressure of his other duties, and Council has since been seeking to fill the post.

Applications filed includes those from Davis and William Cornell, 48, of Montana Ave., private refuse hauler for the city, for the chief post, and Lennens; Thomas Potts, 44, of Carolina Ave., an insurance agent; Holly Smith, 22, of Fairview St., pottery worker; Lewis Lyons, 65, of Lycia Ave., and Gilbert Miller, 30, of Lycia Ave., for either post.

AT AN informal meeting Sunday, a group of businessmen had urged the appointment of Davis as chief and Lennens as patrolman.

At last night's meeting, Councilman Donald Hissam moved that Davis be chief and Lennens patrolman, and the move was seconded by Councilman Charles Kology.

However, the motion was rejected with Chaney, Hutton and Graham opposed.

Graham then moved that Lennens be named patrolman and acting chief with the chief's salary of $4,400 for the remainder of the administration's term of office or until July 1964. This was seconded by Chaney, and approved, with Hissam and Kology opposed.

Tshombe Seen Mapping Plan For All-Out Stand

Modest Tax Slash Plan Anticipated

2-Stage Reduction Would Not Be In Effect Before July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional sources expect President Kennedy to propose a relatively modest income tax cut effective July 1, to be followed by a second reduction next year. The two-stage reduction, they said, will add up to about $10 billion.

This would be offset to a still-unknown extent by eliminating or modifying some of the present exemptions and special treatment of income.

The tax message Kennedy has said he will send Congress late this month is expected to anticipate increased deficits for a year or two, but to argue that spending and investment stimulated by a tax cut would soon increase revenues enough to take up the slack.

General outlines of the proposals may be included in Kennedy's State of the Union message Monday and the budget submitted Thursday.

As for the chances that Congress will enact the presidential program, one source put it this way:

"All that is certain is that there is no chance of a tax cut effective any earlier than July 1. There is some chance that a bill could be passed during the year and the effective date set back to July 1."

He said it would be a major accomplishment for both houses to complete hearings, bill writing and floor action on a measure as complicated as a revenue code revision by the time Congress adjourns in the fall.

And even then, leaders like Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee would have to overcome their objections to any retroactive feature if the tax savings were to apply to income received as early as July 1.

Kennedy has abandoned his earlier suggestion that the cut be backdated to Jan. 1, 1963.

A source ordinarily posted on administration plans said he does not know of any final decision on details, but that the July 1 date, the general size of the proposed cut and the principle that rate reductions would have to be partly compensated for by taxing more income appeared fairly well fixed.

Confusion Marks Dash To Rhodesia

Moise Refuses To Discuss Politics At News Meeting

NDOLA, Northern Rhodesia (AP)—President Moise Tshombe of Katanga secretly slipped out of his secessionist capital and showed up in this Northern Rhodesia border town today.

Confusion surrounded the night dash over back roads by the Katangan leader, who has been unpredictably pledging cooperation in Congo unity efforts in one breath and a fight to the death in the next.

He refused at a news conference to discuss politics.

Before leaving the Katanga capital of Elisabethville he sent a message to Katangans declaring "I still believe in the peaceful implementation" of U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's plan for Congo unification.

But diplomats speculated he plans a signal for a last ditch stand against U.N. forces.

Tshombe told newsmen, after conferring with some of his ministers here, that he intended to return to Elisabethville tonight and then go on to Kolwezi on Monday. Kolwezi is the key mining and electric power town 150 miles northwest of Elisabethville where the remnants of Tshombe's white officers and gendarmerie are holed up.

Some U.N. officials in Elisabethville were touchy about Tshombe's dash to Ndola. George Sherry, acting U.N. chief in Katanga, slammed his door in the faces of reporters seeking information.

The U.N. announced the peaceful occupation of Sakania, a rail town on the Northern Rhodesia border, an operation which opens a vital supply route.

Diplomatic sources and U.N. officials in Elisabethville said they doubted that Tshombe would return to the provincial capital. They felt that he would head directly for Kolwezi, where his men have mined vital industrial installations. Tshombe has threatened repeatedly to blow up the installations if the U.N. troops attempt to take the town by force.

U.N. troops advancing toward Kolwezi from Jadotville were last reported about 50 miles from the town.

The British and Belgian consuls in Elisabethville who saw Tshombe, minutes before he slipped out in a police jeep, described him as a frightened and dejected man. He appeared to be on his last leg in his long struggle to keep his wealthy province independent of the Congo.

Tshombe traveled by bush roads to reach Ndola, just across the Rhodesian border.

The two consuls said they tried vainly to persuade Tshombe not to go, but said he was alarmed

Disarmament Talks Slated In New York

Top U.S., Soviet Experts To Confer On Test Ban Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. and Soviet disarmament experts are expected to meet in New York in a few days to see whether it is possible to break through the final barriers blocking agreement on a pact to ban nuclear weapons tests.

State Department officials look for an early formal announcement of the exploratory talks.

They will be held against a background of growing, but cautious, hope that a final agreement on the test ban may prove negotiable. But the fact is, according to the best available information here, neither the Soviet Union nor the United States has recently indicated any change in its position on the crucial issue of inspection.

Semyon K. Tsarapkin, Soviet negotiator in various disarmament talks in Geneva, is in New York and informants say the United States will be represented by William C. Foster, chief of the U.S. Disarmament Agency.

Disarmament, including the test ban problem, came up in formal talks Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov had here this week with President Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Foster. Kuznetsov is reported to have spoken optimistically about the prospects for some agreement though he did not indicate, according to U.S. informants, how this might be achieved.

The heart of the problem after several years of negotiations is the amount and kind of inspection that would be provided to police a test ban agreement.

The United States and Britain insisted last year at Geneva that some inspection posts would have to be set up in the Soviet Union. Alternatively, the Western powers proposed agreement to prohibit all tests that could be detected by existing methods.

The Kuznetsov talks touched on other disarmament issues and on Cuba. The Soviet official was reported to have referred to Berlin at one point in his meeting with Kennedy, but the President was said to have passed on quickly to other subjects.

Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan agreed last month at Nassau that any new initiatives toward a Berlin settlement should come from the settlement should come from the Soviet Union. It was assumed here that Kuznetsov, who has been preoccupied with Cuban negotiations for the past two months had nothing new to offer on Berlin.

Chinese-Indian Truce Talks Slated To Open

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Ali Sabry, chairman of the United Arab Republic Executive Council, arrived here today for talks on the Colombo proposals for a Chinese-Indian border truce.

Sabry told reporters at New Delhi Airport he is hopeful the neutralist proposals drafted at Colombo, Ceylon, will "pave the way for a final settlement through peaceful negotiations."

Auditor's Bid Slated Again By McKeever

E. Allan McKeever, former city auditor and mayor, filed Friday afternoon with the County Election Board as the third Republican candidate for city auditor in the May 7 primaries.

Two more incumbent city officials and a Wellsville councilman filed for new terms.

Veteran City Treasurer Bert A. Dawson filed for his 11th term on the GOP slate while First Ward Councilman Floyd L. Murray asked his second term on the Democratic ticket.

Dwight MacLean filed on the GOP ticket for another term as Second Ward councilman in Wellsville.

McKeever served 14 years as city auditor — from 1940 to 1953, leaving office after he wa elected mayor for the 1954-55 biennium. He also served several terms as Liverpool Township clerk in the 1940's prior to the legislative "divorce" that separated the city and the township governments.

McKeever resides at 218 W. 7th St. with his wife, Gladys. He is a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

Two Republicans filed earlier for the post, Council Clerk Lawrence Zollinger of W. 5th St. and Gale B. Laughlin of Midway Ln., payroll control supervisor at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate, a Democrat, already has announced for a second four-year term.

Murray, who will be seeking his second term, is the fourth representative to ask re-election.

Khrushchev Sets Talks At East Berlin

To Lay His Case Against Red China Before Satellites

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Nikita Khrushchev is heading a high-powered delegation of close associates to East Berlin to lay his case against Red China before satellite Communist leaders. It appears to depend upon the Chinese whether the meeting leads to some sort of reconciliation or an irreparable breech between the two Communist giants.

The excuse for the world meeting is the sixth congress of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party of East Germany. It opens Tuesday to the background noise of a violent propaganda exchange between Moscow and Peiping that is spreading confusion in the world Communist movement.

One basic theme dominates the propaganda war: Is the rapid, expansion of Communist domination worth the risk of an explosion that could lead to nuclear war?

Red China says it is worth it. Khrushchev, ever since his backdown in the Cuban crisis, advocates caution.

For that backdown, the Red Chinese are denouncing him now on two counts:

First, he was an adventurist for getting himself in a bind in Cuba. Second, he was cowardly and damaged the world revolutionary movement by retreating before the United States' "nuclear blackmail."

There is much more to the quarrel than that. It involves differences of opinion about how much aid the U.S.S.R. can afford or is willing to give Red China, and how much enthusiasm Khrushchev has for welcoming the Red Chinese into the nuclear weapons club.

But there is no doubt that Khrushchev's role in Berlin will be devoted largely to the problem of this split in the Communist camp.

Most of the people traveling to Berlin with Khrushchev are specialists in international communism and Chinese affairs.

100 Americans Due From Cuba On Sunday

HAVANA (AP) — An airliner bringing ransom medical supplies to Cuba will return to the United States Sunday with 100 Americans aboard, a Swiss diplomat says.

The plane was due to leave for Havana from Miami, Fla. Friday, he said, but the flight was delayed to give the repatriates time to prepare for the trip.

The Americans had been living in Cuba despite a general repatriation some time ago. The group leaving will include men, women and children, the diplomatic informant said.

There are about 300 Americans registered at the Swiss Embassy, which handles U.S. interests in Cuba. About 170 other Americans are working with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government.

Fire In Indiana Home Fatal To 4 Children

HAMMOND, Ind. (AP)—Four children burned to death early today in a fire that destroyed their one-story frame house on the East Side.

Four other members of the family were hospitalized with burns.

Dead were Imogene, 7, Alberta, 3, Gloria, 4, and Clark, 2—all children of Mrs. Alberta Griffin, 28.

Mrs. Griffin and three more of her children, Anna Johnson, 11, David Johnson, 10, and Carolyn, 3 months, were taken to St. Margaret's Hospital.

Plane Crash In Viet Nam Kills 7 Yanks

Viet Cong Ground Fire, Suspected At First, Ruled Out

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —The bodies of seven U.S. Army helicopter crewmen were recovered today from the wreckage of an H21 troop carrier in which they died on a small island in the Mekong River delta.

Communist ground fire, originally suspected, was virtually ruled out as the cause of the crash Friday night.

The troop carrier was returning home with two other helicopters when it went down. The pilot was reported to have been having trouble with the controls. The craft suddenly flipped on its back, then fell 2,500 feet, tumbling end over end. The wreckage hit on the island 55 miles southeast of Saigon.

Flares dropped from transport planes helped to establish the site of the crash. Rescue teams worked through the night to reach the debris, but there was reported to be almost nothing left to salvage.

All seven occupants, identified as helicopter crewmen from the 57th and 93rd Companies, were killed on impact. The wreckage did not burn.

This was one of four H21s forced down for mechanical reasons within 24 hours. The other three were not seriously damaged.

The latest crash was the 16th U.S. helicopter destroyed in South Viet Nam, and brought the toll of Americans killed in helicopters to 23. The total number of American servicemen killed by all causes since the military buildup began rose to 53.

A search continued, meanwhile,

Copter Picks 7 From Boat Before Blast

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. (AP) —The seven men aboard a blazing fishing vessel were rescued by helicopter early today only minutes before a violent explosion wrecked the 96-foot-long craft.

No one was injured.

Bernardo Pennino, 50, of Everett, Mass., skipper of the St. Anthony, said fire broke out in the engine room a few minutes before 4 a.m.

He and the crew tried to extinguish the blaze but when it appeared out of control he radioed for help.

Pennino ordered his men to the bow and reached the St. Anthony 12 miles west of Provincetown. He no sooner touched ground, he said, than he too, had to escape from the pilot house to the bow

Within 30 minutes a Coast Guard plane appeared overhead, followed by the helicopter, the cutter Acushnet, and amphibious craft.

Ex-County Man Seen Hitch-Hiking By Sheriff, Deputy

A former county resident, one of five who escaped Friday morning from the Trumbull County Jail in Warren, was apprehended early last night while hitch-hiking on Route 7 near East Fairfield.

Jerry Bryant, 25, of North Lima, who has relatives and friends in the area where he was taken into custody, offered no resistance when found by Sheriff Russell Van Fossan and Deputy Howard Gray.

Bryant, whose capture culminated a search that lasted for some five hours in the East Fairfield and East Palestine areas, was turned over to Trumbull deputies last night at the County Jail in Lisbon.

Ole Miss Suspends One In Meredith Involvement

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—One student was suspended Friday night by University of Mississippi authorities who sternly warned against more demonstrations protesting the presence of James H. Meredith on the campus.

Meanwhile, the 29-year-old Negro was spending the weekend at the university, studying for semester examinations.

The warning came minutes before Meredith went to supper in the campus cafeteria where noisy students had jeered him three nights in succession. When Meredith arrived at the cafeteria, campus security police were out in full force.

Idenitfication cards of all students were checked at the entrance to the cafeteria and key university officials circulated in the building and outside.

When Meredith entered, his identification card was studied almost a half minute by a blue-uniformed university policeman.

"That's the first time I've had to show it," Meredith said to a newsman behind him.

Meredith took his tray into the

Ohio Lawmakers To Get Report On Tax Situation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State lawmakers will find a 255 - page study of Ohio's present and potential taxes on their desks when the legislature returns to work Monday.

The result of $10,000 worth of research by six campus economics specialists, the study formally was released Friday. The Ohio AFL-CIO, education Association, Farm Bureau Federation Inc. and State Council of Retail Merchants paid the bill but say they took a "hands off the researchers" attitude otherwise.

Dr. George W. Thatcher of Miami (Ohio) University, who directed the study, told newsmen the completed work "contains no policy recommendations."

But he added that "Ohio has postponed the day of judgment with patchwork modifications of the tax system."

Thatcher said the study dealt only with sources of taxes in Ohio and their impact, possible new sources, and pros and cons of each. No estimation of state service needs was attempted, he added.

Gun, Change Taken In Gas Station Entry

A .32-caliber pistol, an undetermined amount of change and a few old coins were stolen when a burglar ransacked Gerace's Sunoco Service Station at E. 6th St. and Broadway early this morning, police reported.

Two cabinets in the upstairs office were broken into and the Iver-Johnson pistol, the change and seven or eight Indian head nickels issued between 1920 and 1930 were taken, officers said.

The burglar entered the garage through a window on the east side of the building and then apparently used a wrecking bar or large screw driver to break through the partition separating the garage and the station proper, police said.

Officers noted the window on the northeast corner had been broken previously to the burglary and still was not repaired.

Back On Force At Chester

Lennens New Patrolman And Acting Police Chief

Clarence (Bud) Lennens, former Chester police chief replaced last week, was back wearing an officer's uniform today after Council — in a split vote — appointed him patrolman and acting chief at a meeting Friday night.

Lennens, 35, of Pennsylvania Ave. was named the city's second patroleman to serve as acting chief until the chief's position can be filled.

HIS appointment, by a 3-2 vote, came after a motion to name Harold Davis, former police chief whom Lennens replaced in July, was rejected in a 3-2 vote.

Over 100 attended the brief special session of Council at which seven applications were considered.

Council met in a short caucus before the special meeting began at 7:39 p.m., and the meeting, which ended five minutes later, was unmarked by any murmurs, jeers or cheers or statements from any of the audience, a contrast to some previous meetings.

The city's police protection for a week has consisted of Patrolman Clifford Bebout, Special Officer Joe Bryan and occasional visits by West Virginia State Police.

Councilmen Wayne Hutton, Donald Chaney and Carl Graham had pressed for enforcement of liquor and gambling laws since taking office in July. Lennens said he had been unable to obtain search warrants for police action, and was handicapped by other legal technicalities.

Johnson quit Jan. 4, citing the pressure of his other duties, and Council has since been seeking to fill the post.

Applications filed includes those from Davis and William Cornell, 48, of Montana Ave., private refuse hauler for the city, for the chief post, and Lennens; Thomas Potts, 44, of Carolina Ave., an insurance agent; Holly Smith, 22, of Fairview St., pottery worker; Lewis Lyons, 65, of Lycia Ave., and Gilbert Miller, 30, of Lycia Ave., for either post.

AT AN informal meeting Sunday, a group of businessmen had urged the appointment of Davis as chief and Lennens as patrolman.

At last night's meeting, Councilman Donald Hissam moved that Davis be chief and Lennens patrolman, and the move was seconded by Councilman Charles Kology.

However, the motion was rejected with Chaney, Hutton and Graham opposed.

Graham then moved that Lennens be named patrolman and acting chief with the chief's salary of $4,400 for the remainder of the administration's term of office or until July 1964. This was seconded by Chaney, and approved, with Hissam and Kology opposed.

2-Stage Reduction Would Not Be In Effect Before July

Moise Refuses To Discuss Politics At News Meeting

Confusion surrounded the night dash over back roads by the Katangan leader, who has been unpredictably pledging cooperation in Congo unity efforts in one breath and a fight to the death in the next.

Disarmament Talks Slated In New York

Top U.S., Soviet Experts To Confer On Test Ban Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. and Soviet disarmament experts are expected to meet in New York in a few days to see whether it is possible to break through the final barriers blocking agreement on a pact to ban nuclear weapons tests.

State Department officials look for an early formal announcement of the exploratory talks.

They will be held against a background of growing, but cautious, hope that a final agreement on the test ban may prove negotiable. But the fact is, according to the best available information here, neither the Soviet Union nor the United States has recently indicated any change in its position on the crucial issue of inspection.

Semyon K. Tsarapkin, Soviet negotiator in various disarmament talks in Geneva, is in New York and informants say the United States will be represented by William C. Foster, chief of the U.S. Disarmament Agency.

Disarmament, including the test ban problem, came up in formal talks Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov had here this week with President Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Foster. Kuznetsov is reported to have spoken optimistically about the prospects for some agreement though he did not indicate, according to U.S. informants, how this might be achieved.

The heart of the problem after several years of negotiations is the amount and kind of inspection that would be provided to police a test ban agreement.

The United States and Britain insisted last year at Geneva that some inspection posts would have to be set up in the Soviet Union. Alternatively, the Western powers proposed agreement to prohibit all tests that could be detected by existing methods.

The Kuznetsov talks touched on other disarmament issues and on Cuba. The Soviet official was reported to have referred to Berlin at one point in his meeting with Kennedy, but the President was said to have passed on quickly to other subjects.

Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan agreed last month at Nassau that any new initiatives toward a Berlin settlement should come from the settlement should come from the Soviet Union. It was assumed here that Kuznetsov, who has been preoccupied with Cuban negotiations for the past two months had nothing new to offer on Berlin.

Auditor's Bid Slated Again By McKeever

E. Allan McKeever, former city auditor and mayor, filed Friday afternoon with the County Election Board as the third Republican candidate for city auditor in the May 7 primaries.

Two more incumbent city officials and a Wellsville councilman filed for new terms.

Khrushchev Sets Talks At East Berlin

To Lay His Case Against Red China Before Satellites

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Nikita Khrushchev is heading a high-powered delegation of close associates to East Berlin to lay his case against Red China before satellite Communist leaders. It appears to depend upon the Chinese whether the meeting leads to some sort of reconciliation or an irreparable breech between the two Communist giants.

The excuse for the world meeting is the sixth congress of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party of East Germany. It opens Tuesday to the background noise of a violent propaganda exchange between Moscow and Peiping that is spreading confusion in the world Communist movement.

One basic theme dominates the propaganda war: Is the rapid, expansion of Communist domination worth the risk of an explosion that could lead to nuclear war?

Red China says it is worth it. Khrushchev, ever since his backdown in the Cuban crisis, advocates caution.

For that backdown, the Red Chinese are denouncing him now on two counts:

First, he was an adventurist for getting himself in a bind in Cuba. Second, he was cowardly and damaged the world revolutionary movement by retreating before the United States' "nuclear blackmail."

There is much more to the quarrel than that. It involves differences of opinion about how much aid the U.S.S.R. can afford or is willing to give Red China, and how much enthusiasm Khrushchev has for welcoming the Red Chinese into the nuclear weapons club.

But there is no doubt that Khrushchev's role in Berlin will be devoted largely to the problem of this split in the Communist camp.

Most of the people traveling to Berlin with Khrushchev are specialists in international communism and Chinese affairs.

100 Americans Due From Cuba On Sunday

HAVANA (AP) — An airliner bringing ransom medical supplies to Cuba will return to the United States Sunday with 100 Americans aboard, a Swiss diplomat says.

The plane was due to leave for Havana from Miami, Fla. Friday, he said, but the flight was delayed to give the repatriates time to prepare for the trip.

The Americans had been living in Cuba despite a general repatriation some time ago. The group leaving will include men, women and children, the diplomatic informant said.

There are about 300 Americans registered at the Swiss Embassy, which handles U.S. interests in Cuba. About 170 other Americans are working with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government.

Fire In Indiana Home Fatal To 4 Children

HAMMOND, Ind. (AP)—Four children burned to death early today in a fire that destroyed their one-story frame house on the East Side.

Four other members of the family were hospitalized with burns.

Dead were Imogene, 7, Alberta, 3, Gloria, 4, and Clark, 2—all children of Mrs. Alberta Griffin, 28.

Mrs. Griffin and three more of her children, Anna Johnson, 11, David Johnson, 10, and Carolyn, 3 months, were taken to St. Margaret's Hospital.

Viet Cong Ground Fire, Suspected At First, Ruled Out

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —The bodies of seven U.S. Army helicopter crewmen were recovered today from the wreckage of an H21 troop carrier in which they died on a small island in the Mekong River delta.

Communist ground fire, originally suspected, was virtually ruled out as the cause of the crash Friday night.

The troop carrier was returning home with two other helicopters when it went down. The pilot was reported to have been having trouble with the controls. The craft suddenly flipped on its back, then fell 2,500 feet, tumbling end over end. The wreckage hit on the island 55 miles southeast of Saigon.

Flares dropped from transport planes helped to establish the site of the crash. Rescue teams worked through the night to reach the debris, but there was reported to be almost nothing left to salvage.

All seven occupants, identified as helicopter crewmen from the 57th and 93rd Companies, were killed on impact. The wreckage did not burn.

This was one of four H21s forced down for mechanical reasons within 24 hours. The other three were not seriously damaged.

The latest crash was the 16th U.S. helicopter destroyed in South Viet Nam, and brought the toll of Americans killed in helicopters to 23. The total number of American servicemen killed by all causes since the military buildup began rose to 53.

A search continued, meanwhile,

Copter Picks 7 From Boat Before Blast

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. (AP) —The seven men aboard a blazing fishing vessel were rescued by helicopter early today only minutes before a violent explosion wrecked the 96-foot-long craft.

No one was injured.

Bernardo Pennino, 50, of Everett, Mass., skipper of the St. Anthony, said fire broke out in the engine room a few minutes before 4 a.m.

He and the crew tried to extinguish the blaze but when it appeared out of control he radioed for help.

Pennino ordered his men to the bow and reached the St. Anthony 12 miles west of Provincetown. He no sooner touched ground, he said, than he too, had to escape from the pilot house to the bow

Within 30 minutes a Coast Guard plane appeared overhead, followed by the helicopter, the cutter Acushnet, and amphibious craft.

Ex-County Man Seen Hitch-Hiking By Sheriff, Deputy

A former county resident, one of five who escaped Friday morning from the Trumbull County Jail in Warren, was apprehended early last night while hitch-hiking on Route 7 near East Fairfield.

Jerry Bryant, 25, of North Lima, who has relatives and friends in the area where he was taken into custody, offered no resistance when found by Sheriff Russell Van Fossan and Deputy Howard Gray.

Bryant, whose capture culminated a search that lasted for some five hours in the East Fairfield and East Palestine areas, was turned over to Trumbull deputies last night at the County Jail in Lisbon.

Acting on a tip that Bryant had been seen for the second time in

Ole Miss Suspends One In Meredith Involvement

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—One student was suspended Friday night by University of Mississippi authorities who sternly warned against more demonstrations protesting the presence of James H. Meredith on the campus.

Meanwhile, the 29-year-old Negro was spending the weekend at the university, studying for semester examinations.

The warning came minutes before Meredith went to supper in the campus cafeteria where noisy students had jeered him three nights in succession. When Meredith arrived at the cafeteria, campus security police were out in full force.

Idenitfication cards of all students were checked at the entrance to the cafeteria and key university officials circulated in the building and outside.

When Meredith entered, his identification card was studied almost a half minute by a blue-uniformed university policeman.

"That's the first time I've had to show it," Meredith said to a newsman behind him.

Meredith took his tray into the

Ohio Lawmakers To Get Report On Tax Situation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State lawmakers will find a 255 - page study of Ohio's present and potential taxes on their desks when the legislature returns to work Monday.

The result of $10,000 worth of research by six campus economics specialists, the study formally was released Friday. The Ohio AFL-CIO, education Association, Farm Bureau Federation Inc. and State Council of Retail Merchants paid the bill but say they took a "hands off the researchers" attitude otherwise.

Dr. George W. Thatcher of Miami (Ohio) University, who directed the study, told newsmen the completed work "contains no policy recommendations."

But he added that "Ohio has postponed the day of judgment with patchwork modifications of the tax system."

Thatcher said the study dealt only with sources of taxes in Ohio and their impact, possible new sources, and pros and cons of each. No estimation of state service needs was attempted, he added.

Gun, Change Taken In Gas Station Entry

A .32-caliber pistol, an undetermined amount of change and a few old coins were stolen when a burglar ransacked Gerace's Sunoco Service Station at E. 6th St. and Broadway early this morning, police reported.

Two cabinets in the upstairs office were broken into and the Iver-Johnson pistol, the change and seven or eight Indian head nickels issued between 1920 and 1930 were taken, officers said.

The burglar entered the garage through a window on the east side of the building and then apparently used a wrecking bar or large screw driver to break through the partition separating the garage and the station proper, police said.

Officers noted the window on the northeast corner had been broken previously to the burglary and still was not repaired.

Bumpy Road Faces Ohio Lawmakers During 1963

By WILLIAM S. VANCE
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio—After two days of oiling its lawmaking machinery, the 105th Ohio General Assembly is poised for a trip down a legislative road that looks at the outset as bumpy as ever and longer than usual.

How much grinding of gears there will be once the machinery gets moving is open to conjecture.

But some seasoned lawmakers and the people who make it their business to watch them in action take their cue from the state's massive money problems that there will be no quick, easy way out in this session.

And there were signs in the Senate during opening week that a determined and well organized Democratic minority will make things interesting, if not difficult, for their colleagues across the aisle.

Horse Trading Sought

While the House moved swiftly through routine housekeeping chores, the Senate got hung up on a couple of resolutions that touched off a minority move for some political horse trading.

Senate Republicans split over a House-passed resolution to permit clerks of both houses to procure legislative printing. It was intended as an interim solution to a contract dispute now in the courts between Columbus Blank Book Co. and F. J. Heer Printing Co.

Only a dozen GOP senators were reported in favor of the resolution, which meant 10 Democratic votes were needed to pass the measure as emergency legislation.

After a caucus, minority members revealed they offered to swap the needed votes for rehiring of a $600-a-month administrative aide to Minority Leader Frank King of Toledo. But Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem wouldn't buy the trade and adjourned the session.

Temporary Plan Hatched

The clerks then worked out a day-to-day arrangement with the Heer firm, which has been doing the printing for 50 years.

The other roadblock developed just prior to the inaugural recess late Tuesday when the Democrats stalled emergency passage of a patronage resolution they termed too one-sided.

King has demanded a full-time page such as Mecham has. Others, including Ed Witmer, D-Canton, are pushing for staff jobs for some people back home.

The Republicans want a couple of Democratic votes to make the resolution an emergency measure so the staffers they've employed can start drawing pay. Whether they're willing to swap jobs for the votes may be decided Monday night when the resolution probably will come up again.

How Long For 105th?

How long will the 105th be in session?

Outgoing Gov. Michael V. DiSalle wound up his swan song to the joint session Tuesday with, "Best wishes for a productive and short session."

But few legislators are counting on a short one. Most agree that sessions will lengthen in proportion to the growth of the state and its problems.

Some figure July 1 is a likely target date, but they aren't offering any odds on it. Others say they won't be surprised if the session goes into mid-August.

The shortest session in recent years was in 1959 when the assembly cleaned up its work at the end of May.

Two years ago the legislature adjourned in mid-July but reconvened in November to resolve a budget battle.

Here And Gone

The legislative printing controversy surrounding Columbus Blank Book Co. and F. J. Heer Printing Co. was a popular Statehouse topic during opening week.

Among other things, it produced this pun from a House member, who said with a yawn:

"Well, that's the way it goes, men; Heer today, gone tomorrow."

The fair sex will play a bigger role in state government this year.

Seven women, the most in at least a decade, are among the 137 House members.

Four are veterans of at least three terms: Reps. Anne M. Donnelly, D-Cuyahoga; Bernice K. MacKenzie, D-Stark; Ethel G. Swanbeck, R-Erie, and Clara E. Weisenborn, R-Montgomery.

The three newcomers: Reps. Margaret Dennison, R-Trumbull; Mary E. McGowan, D-Summit, and Marigene Valiquette, D-Lucas.

Gomulka Seeks Peacemaker Role In Soviet-China Rift

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Polish Communist chief Wladslaw Gomulka, now meeting privately with Soviet Premier Khrushchev, was described today as seeking to play peacemaker in the Chinese-Soviet dispute.

Usually informed sources pieced this conclusion together from fragments of information reaching here on the Khrushchev-Gomulka talks at a Polish forest retreat.

There was no indication whether Khrushchev or the Chinese would agree to a Polish go-between.

Authentic details were unavailable on the meetings between Khrushchev and Polish Communist leaders which started Friday.

But the consensus was that the Peking-Moscow dispute over violent versus peaceful competition with the West dominated their talks and would dominate the East German Communist party congress next week in Berlin. Both Khrushchev and Gomulka will attend.

A three-member Red Chinese delegation headed by Wu Hsiu-Chuan, former ambassador to Yugoslavia, left Peking today for East Berlin, certain to face criticism from Khrushchev and possibly a showdown between Moscow and Peking.

Some diplomats wonder if Khrushchev is eager for a showdown at this time. Others are convinced he wants to tighten the Soviet hold on at least the Socialist states in Europe. This would require a meeting after Berlin and adds to the speculation of a forthcoming Communist summit conference.

Mayor Testifies Against Plan For Railroad Merger

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Mayor Paul M. Burns of Fort Wayne has testified against the proposed merger of the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads.

At a hearing conducted by the Interstate Commerce Commission Friday, Burns said the merger would jeopardize the city's industrial expansion by reducing freight service and might hamper coal deliveries to the city light plant.

Burns said testimony by W. W. Patchell, Pennsylvania vice president, at an earlier ICC hearing in Washington indicated Fort Wayne would become "a second class city," with four freight trains daily instead of 18.

But Pennsylvania attorneys at the Fort Wayne hearing contended Patchell's own testimony gave assurances that "every point on the merged railroad would receive as good or better service than it now does."

Another witness, A. E. Leitherer, general traffic manager of Allied Mills, Chicago, favored the merger plan, saying there is now an oversupply of transportation. He said the merger would make railroading more efficient and economical and would reduce switching delays at terminals.

Thick Fog Keeps Airports Closed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Thick fog hung over Ohio this morning, keeping virtually all airports closed.

Major airports at Columbus, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton and Akron-Canton, and smaller ones at Mansfield, Findlay, Zanesville and elsewhere grounded almost all flights, according to personnel at Port Columbus.

The shutdowns mostly came Friday or during the evening, and it appeared they would remain in effect well into today. The fog, which has enveloped much of the state off and on — mostly on—since Thursday night, appeared likely to linger.

The same situation existed in Pittsburgh and other Pennsylvania cities.

Ex-Newsman Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jack Beall Jr., 64, retired New York Herald-Tribune newspaperman and former radio news commentator, died Friday in a hospital of a respiratory ailment. Beall was assistant chief of the Washington bureau from 1937-43 and was a news commentator for the American Broadcasting Co. from 1944 until his retirement in the early 1950s.

Fall Causes Injuries To East End Woman

An East End woman injured in a fall Friday was in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital where a boy, also injured in a tumble, was treated yesterday.

Mrs. Evelyn Quinn of Bridge St. suffered an injury to the left leg in a fall at home, and was admitted at 10:20 p. m.

James Atkens, 4, son of Norman Atkens, 258 Center St., was treated for a laceration of the forehead received in a fall against a coffee table.

2 Men Are Charged With Manslaughter

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dennis Osborne and Jerry Scott, both 20, have been charged with first-degree manslaughter in the death of Steven Tabscott, 20.

Suburban Norwood police said autopsy results confirmed Tabscott died of a head injury early Thursday after a drunken brawl. Paul Rainey, 20, of Ellwood City, Pa., was held as a material witness in the case which comes up for preliminary hearing next Thursday in Hamilton County Court.

Noted Figure Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Arthur Judson Brown, 106, the oldest living person listed in "Who's Who in America," the only surviving member of Andrew Carnegie's original Church Peace Union, and secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions for 34 years, died Friday night.

Ex-Congressman Dies

PASSAIC, N.J. (AP)—Dow H. Drukker, 90, who served in Congress from 1914-19 and was publisher and chairman of the board of the Passaic-Clifton Herald-News, died Friday. Drukker, a Republican and one of the oldest publishers in the country, was born in Sneek, the Netherlands.

Fireman Burns Fingers At Blaze

Fireman Russell Dray, acting assistant chief, suffered burns on three fingers Friday night while aiding in extinguishing a fire in a front seat of a Steubenville man's auto.

Dray received burns of the first, middle and ring fingers of the left hand.

The department was called to E. 4th and College Sts. at 9:56 p. m., about the time the basketball game between East Liverpool and Steubenville ended, when Tom Kopras found the front seat of his car on fire.

Firemen said a lighted cigarette had been thrown onto the seat.

The department was called twice by a false alarm to Lincoln Ave. and Ogden St.

They received the original call at 5:50 p. m. Finding the alarm system out, they called City Electrician Fred Kane to repair it.

While making repairs, he pulled the alarm at 6:28 p. m. and firemen went racing back.

4-H News

The Columbiana County Junior Leadership Club will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Perry Grange Hall, two miles south of Salem on Route 558.

Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, said there will be an evaluation of the Christmas dance, senior workshop and the 4-H rally will be discussed. Junior leader books will be available.

Recreation will include ice skating and sled riding for those interested and entertainment in the Grange Hall for the others.

Bumpy Road Faces Ohio Lawmakers During 1963

By WILLIAM S. VANCE

COLUMBUS, Ohio—After two days of oiling its lawmaking machinery, the 105th Ohio General Assembly is poised for a trip down a legislative road that looks at the outset as bumpy as ever and longer than usual.

How much grinding of gears there will be once the machinery gets moving is open to conjecture.

The clerks then worked out a day-to-day arrangement with the Heer firm, which has been doing the printing for 50 years.

The other roadblock developed just prior to the inaugural recess late Tuesday when the Democrats stalled emergency passage of a patronage resolution they termed too one-sided.

King has demanded a full-time page such as Mecham has. Others, including Ed Witmer, D-Canton, are pushing for staff jobs for some people back home.

The Republicans want a couple of Democratic votes to make the resolution an emergency measure so the staffers they've employed can start drawing pay. Whether they're willing to swap jobs for the votes may be decided Monday night when the resolution probably will come up again.

Gomulka Seeks Peacemaker Role In Soviet-China Rift

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Polish Communist chief Wladslaw Gomulka, now meeting privately with Soviet Premier Khrushchev, was described today as seeking to play peacemaker in the Chinese-Soviet dispute.

Usually informed sources pieced this conclusion together from fragments of information reaching here on the Khrushchev-Gomulka talks at a Polish forest retreat.

There was no indication whether Khrushchev or the Chinese would agree to a Polish go-between.

Authentic details were unavailable on the meetings between Khrushchev and Polish Communist leaders which started Friday.

But the consensus was that the Peking-Moscow dispute over violent versus peaceful competition with the West dominated their talks and would dominate the East German Communist party congress next week in Berlin. Both Khrushchev and Gomulka will attend.

A three-member Red Chinese delegation headed by Wu Hsiu-Chuan, former ambassador to Yugoslavia, left Peking today for East Berlin, certain to face criticism from Khrushchev and possibly a showdown between Moscow and Peking.

Some diplomats wonder if Khrushchev is eager for a showdown at this time. Others are convinced he wants to tighten the Soviet hold on at least the Socialist states in Europe. This would require a meeting after Berlin and adds to the speculation of a forthcoming Communist summit conference.

Mayor Testifies Against Plan For Railroad Merger

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Mayor Paul M. Burns of Fort Wayne has testified against the proposed merger of the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads.

At a hearing conducted by the Interstate Commerce Commission Friday, Burns said the merger would jeopardize the city's industrial expansion by reducing freight service and might hamper coal deliveries to the city light plant.

Burns said testimony by W. W. Patchell, Pennsylvania vice president, at an earlier ICC hearing in Washington indicated Fort Wayne would become "a second class city," with four freight trains daily instead of 18.

But Pennsylvania attorneys at the Fort Wayne hearing contended Patchell's own testimony gave assurances that "every point on the merged railroad would receive as good or better service than it now does."

Another witness, A. E. Leitherer, general traffic manager of Allied Mills, Chicago, favored the merger plan, saying there is now an oversupply of transportation. He said the merger would make railroading more efficient and economical and would reduce switching delays at terminals.

Thick Fog Keeps Airports Closed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Thick fog hung over Ohio this morning, keeping virtually all airports closed.

Major airports at Columbus, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton and Akron-Canton, and smaller ones at Mansfield, Findlay, Zanesville and elsewhere grounded almost all flights, according to personnel at Port Columbus.

The shutdowns mostly came Friday or during the evening, and it appeared they would remain in effect well into today. The fog, which has enveloped much of the state off and on — mostly on—since Thursday night, appeared likely to linger.

The same situation existed in Pittsburgh and other Pennsylvania cities.

Ex-Newsman Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jack Beall Jr., 64, retired New York Herald-Tribune newspaperman and former radio news commentator, died Friday in a hospital of a respiratory ailment. Beall was assistant chief of the Washington bureau from 1937-43 and was a news commentator for the American Broadcasting Co. from 1944 until his retirement in the early 1950s.

Fireman Burns Fingers At Blaze

Fireman Russell Dray, acting assistant chief, suffered burns on three fingers Friday night while aiding in extinguishing a fire in a front seat of a Steubenville man's auto.

Dray received burns of the first, middle and ring fingers of the left hand.

The department was called to E. 4th and College Sts. at 9:56 p. m., about the time the basketball game between East Liverpool and Steubenville ended, when Tom Kopras found the front seat of his car on fire.

Firemen said a lighted cigarette had been thrown onto the seat.

The department was called twice by a false alarm to Lincoln Ave. and Ogden St.

They received the original call at 5:50 p. m. Finding the alarm system out, they called City Electrician Fred Kane to repair it.

While making repairs, he pulled the alarm at 6:28 p. m. and firemen went racing back.

4-H News

The Columbiana County Junior Leadership Club will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Perry Grange Hall, two miles south of Salem on Route 558.

Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, said there will be an evaluation of the Christmas dance, senior workshop and the 4-H rally will be discussed. Junior leader books will be available.

Recreation will include ice skating and sled riding for those interested and entertainment in the Grange Hall for the others.

Meter Funds To Buy Lots At Midland

Revenue from Midland parking meters will be turned over to the Municipal Authority to pay for off-street parking facilities, Borough Council decided at its meeting Thursday night.

Council enacted a resolution turning over the receipts "until such time as the authority is reimbursed for the expenditure of funds."

The authority has opened one parking lot and is in the process of acquiring tracts for additional parking sites.

Council also approved a resolution authorizing execution of a lease with Crucible Steel Co. for a quarter of an acre of land to be used solely for public parking.

Council also discussed plans to meet with the Board of Education concerning the installation of a cement pad at the 1st St. playground to be used for a skating rink.

It authorized Solicitor Robert Masters and a member of Council to attend a Public Utility Commission meeting Monday and Tuesday in Pittsburgh when the proposed merger of the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads will be aired.

The request to send representatives was submitted by Milo Schimrak, an international railroad union representative, who discussed the effects of the merger if it is approved.

Council authorized the Pentz Radio Co. of Beaver to check the police radio equipment and submit recommendations. Chad Todd of the Motorola Co. appeared before Council to discuss how the enforcement of new laws will affect the operation of the equipment.

Council also approved use of Council chambers April 23, April 30 and May 7 for Girl Scout training. The request was made by Mrs. Lillian Smith Coleman, Girl Scout neighborhood chairman.

It also sent a letter of appreciation to Midland firemen for the Christmas display erected in Lincoln Park.

Winter and Your Septic Tank

Unlike humans, who heat their homes in winter, or even animals, who have hairy bodies to keep them warm, the poor little bacteria in septic tanks and waste disposal systems have no protection against those harsh winter months ahead.

Since a temperature drop of only a few degrees will kill billions of these hard working microbes, the reduced bacterial population becomes incapable of disposing of the waste which enters such systems, resulting in clogged and unsanitary conditions.

These bacteria, mainly the colontype, are produced in the human body at a temperature of 98.6° F., and lose their ability to produce their own enzymes for solids liquification as the temperature drops literally starving to death. Quoting from SEWERAGE and SEWAGE TREATMENT: (1)

"Temperature of sludge digestion — the most practical optimum temperature of sludge digestion, known as the Mesophilic Range, is between 80° F. and 90° F., preferably about 85°. As the temperature drops, bacterial action diminishes almost in proportion until at about 50° F. It practically ceases."

Naturally, since the temperatures in unheated sewage systems average between 50° F. and 60° F. in winter, it may readily be seen that trouble can be expected.

HOW SEA-CAL ENZYMES HELP

Enzymes are not as susceptible to low temperatures as are bacteria, and it has been proven that their liquifying ability continues as slow as 35° F. Therefore, SEA-CAL takes over the reduction of the solids, producing food in AVAILABLE form for the reduced bacteria population, enabling them to continue their valuable work, and to produce clear effluents for transmission to drainfields and cesspools. Since SEA-CAL also contains strains of virile bacteria by the million per gram, fresh populations are added each time a treatment is made.

For only a few pennies per treatment, for the average home system, SEA-CAL insures year-round protection from costly service problems, and unsanitary conditions.

USE SEA-CAL ENZYMES REGULARLY ALL YEAR, INCREASING DOSES IN WINTER.

by the sudden arrival in Elisabethville of 60 officers of the Congolese national army and a Leopoldville delegation headed by Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula's personal adviser.

Western diplomats said that Tshombe had refused to sign a document agreeing to U.N. freedom of movement in Katanga and recognizing President Joseph Kasavubu as head of a reintegrated Congo. Some sources said he now faces the threat of arrest and transfer to Leopoldville, where charges of treason could be laid against him.

Diplomatic informants reported Friday that Tshombe had offered to yield to the United Nations if allowed to remain as a provincial president of a reunified Congo.

He wanted the U.N. to relay his proposal to the Congo government, they said, but the U.N. took the position that such matters are the concern only of the Congolese people.

The U.N. advance on Kolwezi was delayed by blasted bridges, but giant U.S. transport planes are pouring loads of bridging equipment and other military supplies into Elisabethville.

Officials were worried, however, lest Tshombe order the blowing up of hydroelectric sites at Kolwezi, which provide 75 per cent of the Congo power supply.

Escapee

the East Fairfield vicinity, Sheriff Van Fossan said he and Gray began cruising on Route 7 and spotted Bryant about 6:15 p.m., approximately a mile north of the small community.

Bryant was unarmed and his only "weapons" were a penknife and hairbrush, the sheriff said.

Bryant had made his way back into Columbiana County only a little while prior to his seizure after abandoning a stolen pickup truck near Rochester and fleeing the scene, Sheriff Van Fossan said. He apparently was en route toward his mother's home in Braddock.

Rochester police, alerted about the escape and theft of the truck, notified East Liverpool police, who relayed the information to the sheriff's office at 4:33 p.m., Sheriff Van Fossan said.

The hunt for the fugitive started about 1:30 yesterday afternoon when the sheriff's office was alerted that Bryant had been seen in a red pickup truck on Route 517, which connects Lisbon and East Fairfield.

Sheriff's deputies, State Highway Patrol and police from Columbiana and Lisbon joined in the search and East Liverpool police were alerted by radio.

Besides the three patrol cruisers from the Lisbon post, there were about seven from other posts aiding in the hunt.

An early report indicated that Bryant had been trapped along Route 517 but he managed to make his getaway in the pickup.

Police in East Palestine and Leetonia also joined in the hunt as the check moved into rural roads in the East Palestine area.

For a few hours, the Fairfield area was swarming with police cruisers and patrol cars on the highways and back roads, and with officers checking homes and stores for possible leads.

According to those in the search, Bryant had driven to Raley Rd. just south of Route 517 and west of East Fairfield and parked the stolen 1956 Dodge truck.

He had then walked to the home of Bob Halverstadt along Route 517 and asked Halverstadt, whom he knew, for money, apparently in need of gasoline for the truck.

Halverstadt had only 50 cents in the house, according to officers, and gave Bryant this, and the fugitive left.

Sheriff Van Fossan said Bryant originally is from the Leetonia area.

He has served time previously for burglary and had been released from the County Jail in July after serving time on a bad check charge, Sheriff Van Fossan said.

When released at Lisbon, he was turned over to Mahoning authorities on a similar charge and was taken to Trumbull County early this year.

Bryant is the third of the escapees to be recaptured.

Bryan Clutter, 20, of Warren and Fred Wilson, 28, of Windham were seized about 3½ hours after the escape in Windham, north of Ravenna. They failed to pay a taxi driver for a trip from Girard and the driver notified police who tracked the pair down in a housing project.

Edward Vesey, and Leslie Merrill, both 24 and from Niles, are still at large.

Trumbull authorities said the five dismantled their iron bunk beds and used the angle iron to dig through the floor of the bullpen where they were housed.

Bryant was to have gone to the Ohio Penitentiary Friday to begin a robbery sentence.

Trumbull County commissioners meanwhile ordered the 90-year-old jail closed and 20 prisoners sent to Mahoning and Jefferson County jails.

A station wagon stolen in New Brighton yesterday afternoon and recovered last night near Lisbon, and the armed holdup of a railroad tower operator at Rochester, which netted only $1, had no apparent connection with Bryant or the other escapees, Pennsylvania police said.

Pursued Driver Due For Hearing

NEW CUMBERLAND — A hearing is scheduled this afternoon before Municipal Court Judge John D. Herron for a local motorist arrested twice in a 24-hour period by Police Chief William Webster.

Earl C. Kiger, 50, was cited on charges of reckless driving and improper passing Thursday night at 10 following a wild chase through New Cumberland and north on State Route 2.

Chief Webster said dense fog prevented him from catching up to the fleeing suspect but Kiger's car later struck a bank near Pughtown and he was arrested.

The police chief said Kiger approached his parked cruiser on N. Chester St. Friday night at 9:30 and began arguing about his arrest of Thursday night. A scuffle followed, and Kiger was cited for resisting arrest and being drunk and disorderly, Webster said. The defendant is being held in Hancock County Jail in lieu of $500 bond.

Gene Fisch, New York University sophomore who plays basketball, is a native of Poland. His home is in Syracuse, N. Y.

Council To Act On Wellsville's Gas Rate Rise

Second reading of a new gas rate proposal, calling for a general increase of 8.6 per cent over the present rates of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., awaits Wellsville City Council Tuesday night at 8 in City Hall.

It is expected that Council will also discuss Mayor William W. Daugherty's plan to provide pay raises for city employes "without affecting existing services or depleting existing funds."

The utility's new rate proposal squeezed through the first of three required readings Jan. 2 by a 3-2 vote. It would be for four years and is a trimmed version of an original proposal submitted in June 1961 that called for a general increase of 19.8 per cent.

Mayor Daugherty asked pay raises for city employes in a letter read to Council Jan. 2, and explained his proposal in detail at a caucus meeting Jan. 4. He said Council members agreed unanimously to the theory of the proposal. Details have not been disclosed. Mrs. Mary Rahter is president.

Attorney Named As Bank Director

Sterling Newell Jr., a Cleveland attorney, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

His election at the shareholders' annual meeting Tuesday increases the membership of the board to 13.

Returned for new terms were C. M. Chambers, Frank A. Dawson, John T. Hall, S. T. Hilbert, William B. Louthan, William D. Ogilvie, Sidney C. Porter, Donald D. Shay, Lawrence W. Smith, Gordon E. Starkey, M. W. Thompson, Leonard C. Webber and A. A. Wells.

The board re - elected its officers when it reorganized the same day.

They include Starkey, president; Chambers, cashier and secretary; H. W. Johnston and Donald R. McGillivray, vice presidents; Lester B. Jones and Clarence L. Weaver Jr., assistant cashiers, and L. H. Keay, assistant cashier and manager of the Wellsville branch.

Patrol Investigates Stolen Vehicle Wreck

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon today was further investigating the wrecking of a stolen station wagon along Route 14 a mile north of Salem sometime Friday.

The 1960 vehicle, owned by Percy Millstone of Beaver Falls, struck an embankment, receiving moderate damage. Officers had at first suspected the theft may have been connected with the escape of five men from the Trumbull County Jail.

Card Party To Raise Funds For Child Counseling Group

A "mixed" card party will be sponsored Feb. 23 at the East Liverpool Country Club by the Child Counseling Center, with proceeds to be used for center activities.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Dorothy Horsley, Mrs. J. Donald Thompson, Mrs. Lilyan Alpern, Mrs. Marie Hayes, Mrs. William Harris, Miss Ethelyn Exley and Clayton Aughinbaugh.

Lee Kirkland, principal of Beaver Local High School, has been appointed chairman of the center's annual dinner meeting April 22.

Judge Louis Tobin, the center's president, appointed Aughinbaugh chairman of the nominating committee which will present a new slate of officers at the dinner meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Coleman, Paul Blair and Kirkland were appointed by Tobin to discuss and present recommendations for a future budget at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

Meter Funds To Buy Lots At Midland

Revenue from Midland parking meters will be turned over to the Municipal Authority to pay for off-street parking facilities, Borough Council decided at its meeting Thursday night.

Council enacted a resolution turning over the receipts "until such time as the authority is reimbursed for the expenditure of funds."

The authority has opened one parking lot and is in the process of acquiring tracts for additional parking sites.

Council also approved a resolution authorizing execution of a lease with Crucible Steel Co. for a quarter of an acre of land to be used solely for public parking.

Council also discussed plans to meet with the Board of Education concerning the installation of a cement pad at the 1st St. playground to be used for a skating rink.

It authorized Solicitor Robert Masters and a member of Council to attend a Public Utility Commission meeting Monday and Tuesday in Pittsburgh when the proposed merger of the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads will be aired.

The request to send representatives was submitted by Milo Schimrak, an international railroad union representative, who discussed the effects of the merger if it is approved.

Council authorized the Pentz Radio Co. of Beaver to check the police radio equipment and submit recommendations. Chad Todd of the Motorola Co. appeared before Council to discuss how the enforcement of new laws will affect the operation of the equipment.

Council also approved use of Council chambers April 23, April 30 and May 7 for Girl Scout training. The request was made by Mrs. Lillian Smith Coleman, Girl Scout neighborhood chairman.

It also sent a letter of appreciation to Midland firemen for the Christmas display erected in Lincoln Park.

Winter and Your Septic Tank

Unlike humans, who heat their homes in winter, or even animals, who have hairy bodies to keep them warm, the poor little bacteria in septic tanks and waste disposal systems have no protection against those harsh winter months ahead.

Since a temperature drop of only a few degrees will kill billions of these hard working microbes, the reduced bacterial population becomes incapable of disposing of the waste which enters such systems, resulting in clogged and unsanitary conditions.

These bacteria, mainly the colontype, are produced in the human body at a temperature of 98.6° F., and lose their ability to produce their own enzymes for solids liquification as the temperature drops literally starving to death. Quoting from SEWERAGE and SEWAGE TREATMENT: (1)

"Temperature of sludge digestion — the most practical optimum temperature of sludge digestion, known as the Mesophilic Range, is between 80° F. and 90° F., preferably about 85°. As the temperature drops, bacterial action diminishes almost in proportion until at about 50° F. It practically ceases."

Naturally, since the temperatures in unheated sewage systems average between 50° F. and 60° F. in winter, it may readily be seen that trouble can be expected.

HOW SEA-CAL ENZYMES HELP

Enzymes are not as susceptible to low temperatures as are bacteria, and it has been proven that their liquifying ability continues as slow as 35° F. Therefore, SEA-CAL takes over the reduction of the solids, producing food in AVAILABLE form for the reduced bacteria population, enabling them to continue their valuable work, and to produce clear effluents for transmission to drainfields and cesspools. Since SEA-CAL also contains strains of virile bacteria by the million per gram, fresh populations are added each time a treatment is made.

For only a few pennies per treatment, for the average home system, SEA-CAL insures year-round protection from costly service problems, and unsanitary conditions.

USE SEA-CAL ENZYMES REGULARLY ALL YEAR, INCREASING DOSES IN WINTER.

by the sudden arrival in Elisabethville of 60 officers of the Congolese national army and a Leopoldville delegation headed by Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula's personal adviser.

Western diplomats said that Tshombe had refused to sign a document agreeing to U.N. freedom of movement in Katanga and recognizing President Joseph Kasavubu as head of a reintegrated Congo. Some sources said he now faces the threat of arrest and transfer to Leopoldville, where charges of treason could be laid against him.

Diplomatic informants reported Friday that Tshombe had offered to yield to the United Nations if allowed to remain as a provincial president of a reunified Congo.

He wanted the U.N. to relay his proposal to the Congo government, they said, but the U.N. took the position that such matters are the concern only of the Congolese people.

The U.N. advance on Kolwezi was delayed by blasted bridges, but giant U.S. transport planes are pouring loads of bridging equipment and other military supplies into Elisabethville.

Officials were worried, however, lest Tshombe order the blowing up of hydroelectric sites at Kolwezi, which provide 75 per cent of the Congo power supply.

Escapee

the East Fairfield vicinity, Sheriff Van Fossan said he and Gray began cruising on Route 7 and spotted Bryant about 6:15 p.m., approximately a mile north of the small community.

Bryant was unarmed and his only "weapons" were a penknife and hairbrush, the sheriff said.

Bryant had made his way back into Columbiana County only a little while prior to his seizure after abandoning a stolen pickup truck near Rochester and fleeing the scene, Sheriff Van Fossan said. He apparently was en route toward his mother's home in Braddock.

Rochester police, alerted about the escape and theft of the truck, notified East Liverpool police, who relayed the information to the sheriff's office at 4:33 p.m., Sheriff Van Fossan said.

The hunt for the fugitive started about 1:30 yesterday afternoon when the sheriff's office was alerted that Bryant had been seen in a red pickup truck on Route 517, which connects Lisbon and East Fairfield.

Sheriff's deputies, State Highway Patrol and police from Columbiana and Lisbon joined in the search and East Liverpool police were alerted by radio.

Besides the three patrol cruisers from the Lisbon post, there were about seven from other posts aiding in the hunt.

An early report indicated that Bryant had been trapped along Route 517 but he managed to make his getaway in the pickup.

Police in East Palestine and Leetonia also joined in the hunt as the check moved into rural roads in the East Palestine area.

For a few hours, the Fairfield area was swarming with police cruisers and patrol cars on the highways and back roads, and with officers checking homes and stores for possible leads.

According to those in the search, Bryant had driven to Raley Rd. just south of Route 517 and west of East Fairfield and parked the stolen 1956 Dodge truck.

He had then walked to the home of Bob Halverstadt along Route 517 and asked Halverstadt, whom he knew, for money, apparently in need of gasoline for the truck.

Halverstadt had only 50 cents in the house, according to officers, and gave Bryant this, and the fugitive left.

Sheriff Van Fossan said Bryant originally is from the Leetonia area.

He has served time previously for burglary and had been released from the County Jail in July after serving time on a bad check charge, Sheriff Van Fossan said.

When released at Lisbon, he was turned over to Mahoning authorities on a similar charge and was taken to Trumbull County early this year.

Bryant is the third of the escapees to be recaptured.

Bryan Clutter, 20, of Warren and Fred Wilson, 28, of Windham were seized about 3½ hours after the escape in Windham, north of Ravenna. They failed to pay a taxi driver for a trip from Girard and the driver notified police who tracked the pair down in a housing project.

Edward Vesey, and Leslie Merrill, both 24 and from Niles, are still at large.

Trumbull authorities said the five dismantled their iron bunk beds and used the angle iron to dig through the floor of the bullpen where they were housed.

Bryant was to have gone to the Ohio Penitentiary Friday to begin a robbery sentence.

Trumbull County commissioners meanwhile ordered the 90-year-old jail closed and 20 prisoners sent to Mahoning and Jefferson County jails.

A station wagon stolen in New Brighton yesterday afternoon and recovered last night near Lisbon, and the armed holdup of a railroad tower operator at Rochester, which netted only $1, had no apparent connection with Bryant or the other escapees, Pennsylvania police said.

Pursued Driver Due For Hearing

NEW CUMBERLAND — A hearing is scheduled this afternoon before Municipal Court Judge John D. Herron for a local motorist arrested twice in a 24-hour period by Police Chief William Webster.

Earl C. Kiger, 50, was cited on charges of reckless driving and improper passing Thursday night at 10 following a wild chase through New Cumberland and north on State Route 2.

Chief Webster said dense fog prevented him from catching up to the fleeing suspect but Kiger's car later struck a bank near Pughtown and he was arrested.

The police chief said Kiger approached his parked cruiser on N. Chester St. Friday night at 9:30 and began arguing about his arrest of Thursday night. A scuffle followed, and Kiger was cited for resisting arrest and being drunk and disorderly, Webster said. The defendant is being held in Hancock County Jail in lieu of $500 bond.

Gene Fisch, New York University sophomore who plays basketball, is a native of Poland. His home is in Syracuse, N. Y.

Council To Act On Wellsville's Gas Rate Rise

Second reading of a new gas rate proposal, calling for a general increase of 8.6 per cent over the present rates of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., awaits Wellsville City Council Tuesday night at 8 in City Hall.

It is expected that Council will also discuss Mayor William W. Daugherty's plan to provide pay raises for city employes "without affecting existing services or depleting existing funds."

The utility's new rate proposal squeezed through the first of three required readings Jan. 2 by a 3-2 vote. It would be for four years and is a trimmed version of an original proposal submitted in June 1961 that called for a general increase of 19.8 per cent.

Mayor Daugherty asked pay raises for city employes in a letter read to Council Jan. 2, and explained his proposal in detail at a caucus meeting Jan. 4. He said Council members agreed unanimously to the theory of the proposal. Details have not been disclosed. Mrs. Mary Rahter is president.

Attorney Named As Bank Director

Sterling Newell Jr., a Cleveland attorney, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

His election at the shareholders' annual meeting Tuesday increases the membership of the board to 13.

Returned for new terms were C. M. Chambers, Frank A. Dawson, John T. Hall, S. T. Hilbert, William B. Louthan, William D. Ogilvie, Sidney C. Porter, Donald D. Shay, Lawrence W. Smith, Gordon E. Starkey, M. W. Thompson, Leonard C. Webber and A. A. Wells.

The board re - elected its officers when it reorganized the same day.

They include Starkey, president; Chambers, cashier and secretary; H. W. Johnston and Donald R. McGillivray, vice presidents; Lester B. Jones and Clarence L. Weaver Jr., assistant cashiers, and L. H. Keay, assistant cashier and manager of the Wellsville branch.

Patrol Investigates Stolen Vehicle Wreck

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon today was further investigating the wrecking of a stolen station wagon along Route 14 a mile north of Salem sometime Friday.

The 1960 vehicle, owned by Percy Millstone of Beaver Falls, struck an embankment, receiving moderate damage. Officers had at first suspected the theft may have been connected with the escape of five men from the Trumbull County Jail.

Don't Give Your Right Name

One theme will recur whenever the United States and the Soviet Union talk about the possibilities of power politics in the nuclear age.

They and their allies will be thinking ahead to the time when the Chinese make their bid to join the world nuclear club. This is what every government's statesmen must look forward to. It is the one thing never far from the minds of modern diplomats. What happens when China has the bomb?

Power politics in the nuclear age will be essentially the same as it was in the bow and arrow, gunpowder, nitroglycerine and early missile age. Countries hoping to get away with aggression will be looking for combinations of power to overwhelm countries hoping to resist aggression.

COUNTRIES that have something to hang on to will be trying to put together combinations of power to offset combinations of aggressors. Like domestic politics, power politics on an international scale make strange bedfellows.

If the Chinese Republic had nuclear capacity, the Soviet Union then would hold the balance of power between the Chinese and the United States. The United States would hold the balance between the Republic of China and the Soviet Union. In turn, China would hold the balance between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Add to these combinations the combinations that could be made if Japan and West Germany joined the club and if both Great Britain and France developed nuclear capacity—and if two or three other countries broke into high nuclear society—and anything could happen.

THE UNITED STATES and the Soviet Union then could become allies. China and Japan might see eye to eye. China and the United States could be allies.

Ideologies would make no more difference than they made when Hitler's Germany was tamed by a temporary coalition of irreconcilable allies.

This might be the key to the mystery of Sino-Russian bickering: that it is a performance staged by Communist conspirators to gull the United States into believing it must make an alliance that otherwise would be unthinkable.

If you can't lick 'em, make 'em join you. And don't give your right name.

Show Time

Best wishes go once more with local and district potteries which will be presenting their latest lines in the National Glass and China Show opening Sunday in Chicago.

From the show could come the orders which will mean the difference between an average and exceptional year sales-wise.

Those who know their pottery are confident that ware from district plants is the best available. May the buyers who view the exhibits feel the same way.

With an aggressive approach to the various markets, this could be a good year for the potteries which have meant so much to East Liverpool and neighboring communities over the years.

You're On The Air

There is no great likelihood of serious consideration this year of the broadcasting industry's campaign to put microphones and cameras into hearings of House of Representatives committee hearings. But if the issue comes to a decision again, this should be clear.

The industry's only reason for thinking about committee hearings as suitable material for its programs is its hope of putting on a show.

It is thinking of something as good as the Army-McCarthy hearing and that famous traveling crusade against crime headed by Estes Kefauver.

The truth is, there aren't many committee hearings that good.

But a more penetrating truth is that these two memorable hearings wouldn't have been that good if the participants hadn't been in "show business."

They were aware of the roles they were playing and the dramatic possibilities that had been opened to their wondering eyes. Being aware of these important facts, they gave the audience a run for its money.

This is the weakness of the idea. We don't need play-actors.

UNDER THE so-called "Rayburn rule" handed down in 1952, radio and television have been barred from House proceedings.

The "Rayburn rule" is in two parts. One part gives the speaker of the House general control of its proceedings. The other part gives the Rules Committee the right to set House rules.

The second part could be altered suddenly and drastically if the Democrats' fight to conceal their party schism by packing the Rulse Committee again as they did in 1961 so infuriates Rep. Howard W. Smith of Virginia that he "permits" a change in the rules.

Senate procedure allows committee chairmen to permit broadcasters and photographers at their own discretion, though these functionaries are not to be permitted in the Senate chamber under ordinary circumstances.

ACTUALLY, in the years since the question first was raised, following the traveling "show" put on by the Kefauver investigators, the evidence against "live coverage" of congressional hearings and proceedings in the House and Senate has become lopsided.

Members of both houses would react to microphones and cameras the way actors react to the rise of a stage curtain; they would go into their act with all the skill they could bring to bear.

This would make a good "show." But it would be no improvement in government. The presidential press conference ceased to elicit information and began to elicit ham acting when the broadcasting industry muscled in on it.

Government has nothing to gain from play-acting. The broadcasting industry has everything to gain, though even its rosy hopes must be shaded by doubt that enough "good shows" would be forthcoming to justify the cost of being ready to put them on the air at any time.

Some Relief Due

Word that a general patching is in the works must have been good news for those who travel badly-battered St. Clair Ave.

While complete rebuilding is the only eventual answer and is in the offing, any improvement now will be welcome.

If the weatherman will cooperate, temporary relief can be expected shortly.

Inside-Outside

By Truman Twill

We are going to have to do something about cats and dogs. I mean our cats and dogs.

There are three doors in winter use at the Twillery — four in summertime. Each time a door is opened, a cat comes in unless all the cats already are in.

No one ever saw a cat go out voluntarily, but at any hour of the day or night cats are volunteering to dart in under a dog and go into concealment.

Dogs always are going in or out, which gives the cats all the ingress and egress they need. Sometimes they come in under a dog, like Romulus and Remus. Sometimes they dash in just ahead or just behind a dog. They are so good at this that as many as three commonly show up on the heels of someone's assurance there isn't a cat within miles.

They hide under the bottom shelf of the telephone stand, on top of the water heater, in clothespin baskets, sewing baskets, laundry baskets, inside the washing machine, in overstuffed chairs in dark corners, in open drawers, in clothes closets, broom closets and kitchen cupboards.

It is not unusual at our house to open a cupboard door and be stared at by a cat that has been holed up since nobody can be sure when, or to reach into a drawer and grab a handful of cat fur.

What this adds up to when everybody is going to leave the house is a routine that must be cursed at to be appreciated.

You lay your hands on two cats to throw them out and when the door is opened three cats rush in.

You round up the three cats one at a time to throw them out and each time the door is opened a dog comes in. Now you have all three dogs in and all eight cats out, but like the puzzle about the fox geese and the bushel of corn the tough part is yet to come.

Two dogs must go out because they are outside dogs, but what happens is they decide at this instant to be inside dogs and the inside dog takes a liking for the outside.

All doors are opening and shutting. The air is sulphurous with cursing and ticklish with cat fur and dog fuzz.

The floor is littered with half-eaten dog biscuits used for bribes and wet cat tracks left by feet that have been wading through saucers of milk, also used for bribes.

Finally, the inside dog is in place, the outside dogs are outside and the cats are outside. The engine is started and the little space capsule is quivering on the pad.

Then, a muffled curse.

The one inside cat has ended up outside. Stop the countdown, climb out of the capsule, get the inside cat by the scruff of the neck and stuff it back where it belongs, fending off cats with a foot and boffing dogs with a fist.

We are going to have to do something. When the weather moderates, we are going to keep the dogs and cats inside and only let them out to mingle with the people on special occasions.

The largest library in the U. S. is the Library of Congress, in Washington, established in 1800. According to late count, it contains more than 11,050,000 books and pamphlets and total collections of more than 36,100,000. It extends services to members of Congress and other government departments and also offers excellent facilities for persons engaged in scholarly research.

Jean cloth has been in use for workmen's clothes since the 16th century. The name comes from the city of Jaen, one of the Moorish capitals of Spain, which was the seat of a large textile industry in the 16th century. The first blue overalls in America were made about 1880 and from these came today's "blue jeans".

Setback Fails To Stop Hoffa

By Victor Riesel

Jimmy Hoffa has a whim of iron. And Hoffa's coffers have the gold to back it. It can now be reported that his Teamsters spent more than $480,000 in the last few months on a futile raid of another union's territory because he decided it would be nice to capture the communications field.

Victor Riesel

Though the Teamsters Brotherhood was dismally defeated the other day in their drive to grab 17,200 skilled and defense-vital telephone installers, Hoffa still is trying to invade the national telephone system. By the time his newest whimsical drive is over he'll have spent a million dollars worth of truck drivers' dues on his latest ambition.

Few realize how farflung and "in depth" is his invasion of the national and international telephone and defense system. He moved like a chief of staff.

Since the installers already were members of the impeccable Communication Workers of America (CWA), Hoffa decided to raid it.

FIRST he set up the Teamster Communications Division. This in turn published a newspaper called the "Crusader" — another whimsical thought of Brother Hoffa's. Then he put together a central staff of 19 special organizers. They, in turn were directed by a Ken Silvers, operating out of the Indiana Bank Building, Evansville, Ind.

Then they charted the nation. They aimed first at the 17,200 installers of the Western Electric Co. These men work in 7,400 cities and towns in 44 states—as well as on some of our most sensitively secret defense operations, such as the Primary Alerting Network in Europe and Africa, and something called the Joint Chiefs of Staff Alerting Network.

A nationwide system of special invasion headquarters was set up for the actual assault on the Communications Workers and the entire Bell Telephone System, of which Western Electric is only a section. Biggest of the headquarters was here in New York.

OTHER COMMAND posts were in Washington, D. C., Atlanta, Chicago, and San Francisco. On July 19, 1962, all Teamster vice presidents, general organizers, joint councils and local unions were personally alerted by Hoffa. They were directed to throw the entire Teamster apparatus into the raid. Hundreds of the Teamsters 5,000 officials were heaved into the drive.

It had a Madison Ave. touch all the way. Nothing was overlooked. At one point the Teamster propagandists sent a stick of gum to the installers. On the wrapper was a jab at the Communications Workers Union:

"For that bad taste in your mouth, chew this stick of gum." Many of the loyalists chewed it all right. But they remailed it with a note saying, "We don't want to get stuck with the Teamsters."

Hoffa's experts with telephone set up "communicators." These were a transcontinental system of taped recordings. Installers were asked to dial a number.

Then a recorded voice insulted the Communications Workers and their president, Joseph Beirne, a hard-hitting but scholarly chap often talked of as the future leader of the merged labor movement. These messages were changed every 24 hours.

THERE WERE tens of thousands of hand pamphlets, personal letters, visits, mass meetings. All were aimed at disaffecting the 17,200 installers from the CWA.

Finally the Teamsters went to the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) with more than 5,100 cards, each signed by an installer, each saying, in effect, the signer was interested in joining the Teamsters. So the NLRB set an election. The ballots were counted in its New York office. So intense was the interest that 96 per cent voted.

The final score was 11,388 for CWA and 4,000 for the Teamsters; 696 against any union affiliation and 121 ballots voided or challenged.

Not only was Hoffa beaten almost 3-1 but some 1,100 of his original supporters abandoned him.

To which Joe Beirne says: "This election, for sure, shattered the myth of the invincibility of Teamster money and muscle. If you slug it out with the Teamsters you can win. We demonstrated that you can beat this fellow if you take a firm position."

But Hoffa doesn't appear to be either convinced or broke. He's now going after at least 41,000 other members of CWA — 24,000 employes of the New York Telephone Co. and 17,000 telephone plant workers in northern California.

Hoffa's ambition, like his treasury, apparently runneth over.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I was amused and disgusted by Mr. Harper's letter lambasting The Review.

He reminds me a little of the evil spirits Jesus cast out of the man in the tombs. They said, "Don't send us out to walk in dry places, suffer us to enter that herd of swine." Jesus suffered them and all the swine ran violently down a cliff and were choked in the sea.

It seems to me Mr. Harper is saying to The Review: "Don't expose, us, cover us up, keep quiet so we can multiply and become stronger."

Well, you don't cover a cancer with vaseline and expect to heal. The light of truth will soon put evil to flight. Evil hates the light more than anything else. The Bible says "they hated the light because their deeds were evil".

I was raised in and around Chester and I wouldn't live there again if you paid me. I am not accusing any one, but Chester as a whole has a pretty rotten cancer eating at its vitals and any reader with the sense he was born with knows what I mean. Northern Hancock County is a disgrace to the name of West Virginia.

There are many wonderful people in Chester, some of whom I love dearly, but they all have one thing in common—they are all willing to close their eyes and their mouths and give the cancer a chance to grow. And it is growing by leaps and bounds, while honest, hard-working people fold their hands and say, "Oh, well, it's none of my business."

No doubt the people of Youngstown did the same thing. Now that they're known as Murdertown they raise a hue and cry, "Why and how did it happen?"

I've just told you why: covering, hiding the truth, refusing to stand up and be counted as God-fearing, Christ-honoring men and women.

The decay of a city or town is like a rotten apple in a barrel. It rots away gradually until the whole is destroyed. Like a cancer it's growth is slow, silent, insidious, much like the sin and worldliness in the church. Men cover it, too, with good deeds, kindness to neighbors, handouts to the poor, all of which are commendable. They do this with one hand while with the other they reach and grasp and scheme for position and honor.

Let me remind Mr. Harper that nothing is hidden that shall not be revealed. Everything is open to the eyes of God.

I commend The Review for its fearless and impartial reporting of the news. It takes courage in these days to put the dot over the I.

Light On Integration

By David Lawrence

Bayonets Or Sit-Ins Won't Solve Problem

A ray of light has come at last into the controversy over integration in the public schools. It came as a result of the Thanksgiving Day race riot when the football teams from two high schools — one almost entirely white and the other predominantly colored — met in an all-city championship game, at Washington.

David Lawrence

In keeping with the sincere efforts of many people to find some human solution of the friction over school integration, the local superintendent of schools, Carl F. Hansen, appointed a special commission of prominent men and women, Negro and white, to investigate what happened and to make recommendations.

The report is a lengthy one and deserves national attention. It should be widely publicized, at least among educators who are grappling with the problem of enforced integration in the public schools. Dr. Shane MacCarthy, who was a prime mover in the national program for youth fitness under President Eisenhower, headed the commission. In his letter submitting the report, he says in part:

"Integration is a most complicated undertaking. It is not accomplished simply by opening classroom doors. It is not brought about by a paper decision to recognize the rights of fellow citizens. It is not achieved by an emotional urge that follows the prodding of the heart rather than the leadership of the head. We do a grave disservice to boys and girls of both races when we direct them to integrate and thrust them into indiscriminate mingling without the thorough preparation which is a mandate for success in any undertaking."

Some of the teachers in the city's schools declined to testify at the commission's hearings. Some did so privately. Dr. MacCarthy adds:

"Not a single teacher to whom I have spoken in the past few weeks was surprised that the outbreak (on Thanksgiving Day) took place. Uniformly came the response, 'Why should we be? We live with this brand of conduct every day in the schools.' "

THE STATEMENT by Dr. MacCarthy also declares that teachers are reluctant to report to the police misconduct in everyday life at the schools, and that crime goes unpunished.

The main report of the committee, rendered after five weeks of investigation, speaks of an "atmosphere of lawlessness" in the public schools. The report says in part on this point:

"Testimony before the full committee developed an awareness of administrative lack of control over hoodlum elements in the school system and a deteriorating condition in mass audience events outside of the school buildings.

"Violence, assaults, disrespect of teachers are acts of an undesirable element of students. An atmosphere of 'permissiveness' has discouraged the personnel of many schools and caused a citywide lessening of discipline standards. Fear rages through many school buildings which have become tramping grounds for outside influences, including thugs, hoodlums and persons of the lowest character.

"The school administration has difficulty in coping with this situation. The morale of many teachers has suffered and the percentage of resignations and transfers has increased. Nevertheless, school officials fail to cooperate with police and report violations of the law nor do they maintain a citywide reporting system of incidents of misconduct. With such a climate in the school system, students receive little discipline, little guidance and little incentive to develop strong citizenship qualities in far too many cases and the result has been a steadily worsening misconduct problem in the public schools."

THE REPORT gives details of the injuries and property damage. It tells of the interviews with as many eyewitnesses as could be persuaded to cooperate.

The fact stands out that conditions in the schools produced the tragic episode, amost unparalleled in the history of the country, as mob violence erupted during and after a game between teams from an almost all-white Catholic high school and an almost all-Negro public high school. There were 50,000 people in the stands. Officially listed at the time as injured and requiring medical treatment were 35 white persons and seven Negroes. The new report confirms that several hundred other individuals were attacked and sustained injuries of one kind or another.

The lesson which all this teaches, of course, is that federal troops occupying the campus of the University of Mississippi do not furnish the answer to the integration problem. Nor do the constant stories in the press about the students' jeering of James Meredith touch any more than the superficial aspects of the controversy.

THE CRUSADE for votes by the politicians who wish to capitalize on integration has ignored the fundamental human aspects.

In the public schools in Washington 83 per cent of the students are colored. Integration of the races in the national capital is no different in its obstacles than those faced in the South.

The problems of human relationship will certainly never be solved by bayonets or by sit-in demonstrations or freedom rides or other agitation of that kind. Conformity by coercion will never succeed. An adjustment of race relations will come only when both sides determine what is the practicable and human thing to do, irrespective of the legal phraseology of federal court orders.

Don't Give Your Right Name

One theme will recur whenever the United States and the Soviet Union talk about the possibilities of power politics in the nuclear age.

They and their allies will be thinking ahead to the time when the Chinese make their bid to join the world nuclear club. This is what every government's statesmen must look forward to. It is the one thing never far from the minds of modern diplomats. What happens when China has the bomb?

Power politics in the nuclear age will be essentially the same as it was in the bow and arrow, gunpowder, nitroglycerine and early missile age. Countries hoping to get away with aggression will be looking for combinations of power to overwhelm countries hoping to resist aggression.

COUNTRIES that have something to hang on to will be trying to put together combinations of power to offset combinations of aggressors. Like domestic politics, power politics on an international scale make strange bedfellows.

If the Chinese Republic had nuclear capacity, the Soviet Union then would hold the balance of power between the Chinese and the United States. The United States would hold the balance between the Republic of China and the Soviet Union. In turn, China would hold the balance between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Add to these combinations the combinations that could be made if Japan and West Germany joined the club and if both Great Britain and France developed nuclear capacity—and if two or three other countries broke into high nuclear society—and anything could happen.

THE UNITED STATES and the Soviet Union then could become allies. China and Japan might see eye to eye. China and the United States could be allies.

Ideologies would make no more difference than they made when Hitler's Germany was tamed by a temporary coalition of irreconcilable allies.

This might be the key to the mystery of Sino-Russian bickering: that it is a performance staged by Communist conspirators to gull the United States into believing it must make an alliance that otherwise would be unthinkable.

If you can't lick 'em, make 'em join you. And don't give your right name.

Show Time

Best wishes go once more with local and district potteries which will be presenting their latest lines in the National Glass and China Show opening Sunday in Chicago.

From the show could come the orders which will mean the difference between an average and exceptional year sales-wise.

Those who know their pottery are confident that ware from district plants is the best available. May the buyers who view the exhibits feel the same way.

With an aggressive approach to the various markets, this could be a good year for the potteries which have meant so much to East Liverpool and neighboring communities over the years.

You're On The Air

There is no great likelihood of serious consideration this year of the broadcasting industry's campaign to put microphones and cameras into hearings of House of Representatives committee hearings. But if the issue comes to a decision again, this should be clear.

The industry's only reason for thinking about committee hearings as suitable material for its programs is its hope of putting on a show.

It is thinking of something as good as the Army-McCarthy hearing and that famous traveling crusade against crime headed by Estes Kefauver.

The truth is, there aren't many committee hearings that good.

But a more penetrating truth is that these two memorable hearings wouldn't have been that good if the participants hadn't been in "show business."

They were aware of the roles they were playing and the dramatic possibilities that had been opened to their wondering eyes. Being aware of these important facts, they gave the audience a run for its money.

This is the weakness of the idea. We don't need play-actors.

UNDER THE so-called "Rayburn rule" handed down in 1952, radio and television have been barred from House proceedings.

The "Rayburn rule" is in two parts. One part gives the speaker of the House general control of its proceedings. The other part gives the Rules Committee the right to set House rules.

The second part could be altered suddenly and drastically if the Democrats' fight to conceal their party schism by packing the Rulse Committee again as they did in 1961 so infuriates Rep. Howard W. Smith of Virginia that he "permits" a change in the rules.

Senate procedure allows committee chairmen to permit broadcasters and photographers at their own discretion, though these functionaries are not to be permitted in the Senate chamber under ordinary circumstances.

ACTUALLY, in the years since the question first was raised, following the traveling "show" put on by the Kefauver investigators, the evidence against "live coverage" of congressional hearings and proceedings in the House and Senate has become lopsided.

Members of both houses would react to microphones and cameras the way actors react to the rise of a stage curtain; they would go into their act with all the skill they could bring to bear.

This would make a good "show." But it would be no improvement in government. The presidential press conference ceased to elicit information and began to elicit ham acting when the broadcasting industry muscled in on it.

Government has nothing to gain from play-acting. The broadcasting industry has everything to gain, though even its rosy hopes must be shaded by doubt that enough "good shows" would be forthcoming to justify the cost of being ready to put them on the air at any time.

Some Relief Due

Word that a general patching is in the works must have been good news for those who travel badly-battered St. Clair Ave.

While complete rebuilding is the only eventual answer and is in the offing, any improvement now will be welcome.

If the weatherman will cooperate, temporary relief can be expected shortly.

Inside-Outside

By Truman Twill

We are going to have to do something about cats and dogs. I mean our cats and dogs.

There are three doors in winter use at the Twillery — four in summertime. Each time a door is opened, a cat comes in unless all the cats already are in.

No one ever saw a cat go out voluntarily, but at any hour of the day or night cats are volunteering to dart in under a dog and go into concealment.

Dogs always are going in or out, which gives the cats all the ingress and egress they need. Sometimes they come in under a dog, like Romulus and Remus. Sometimes they dash in just ahead or just behind a dog. They are so good at this that as many as three commonly show up on the heels of someone's assurance there isn't a cat within miles.

They hide under the bottom shelf of the telephone stand, on top of the water heater, in clothespin baskets, sewing baskets, laundry baskets, inside the washing machine, in overstuffed chairs in dark corners, in open drawers, in clothes closets, broom closets and kitchen cupboards.

It is not unusual at our house to open a cupboard door and be stared at by a cat that has been holed up since nobody can be sure when, or to reach into a drawer and grab a handful of cat fur.

What this adds up to when everybody is going to leave the house is a routine that must be cursed at to be appreciated.

You lay your hands on two cats to throw them out and when the door is opened three cats rush in.

You round up the three cats one at a time to throw them out and each time the door is opened a dog comes in. Now you have all three dogs in and all eight cats out, but like the puzzle about the fox geese and the bushel of corn the tough part is yet to come.

Two dogs must go out because they are outside dogs, but what happens is they decide at this instant to be inside dogs and the inside dog takes a liking for the outside.

All doors are opening and shutting. The air is sulphurous with cursing and ticklish with cat fur and dog fuzz.

The floor is littered with half-eaten dog biscuits used for bribes and wet cat tracks left by feet that have been wading through saucers of milk, also used for bribes.

Finally, the inside dog is in place, the outside dogs are outside and the cats are outside. The engine is started and the little space capsule is quivering on the pad.

Then, a muffled curse.

The one inside cat has ended up outside. Stop the countdown, climb out of the capsule, get the inside cat by the scruff of the neck and stuff it back where it belongs, fending off cats with a foot and boffing dogs with a fist.

We are going to have to do something. When the weather moderates, we are going to keep the dogs and cats inside and only let them out to mingle with the people on special occasions.

By Victor Riesel

Jimmy Hoffa has a whim of iron. And Hoffa's coffers have the gold to back it. It can now be reported that his Teamsters spent more than $480,000 in the last few months on a futile raid of another union's territory because he decided it would be nice to capture the communications field.

Victor Riesel

Though the Teamsters Brotherhood was dismally defeated the other day in their drive to grab 17,200 skilled and defense-vital telephone installers, Hoffa still is trying to invade the national telephone system. By the time his newest whimsical drive is over he'll have spent a million dollars worth of truck drivers' dues on his latest ambition.

Few realize how farflung and "in depth" is his invasion of the national and international telephone and defense system. He moved like a chief of staff.

Since the installers already were members of the impeccable Communication Workers of America (CWA), Hoffa decided to raid it.

FIRST he set up the Teamster Communications Division. This in turn published a newspaper called the "Crusader" — another whimsical thought of Brother Hoffa's. Then he put together a central staff of 19 special organizers. They, in turn were directed by a Ken Silvers, operating out of the Indiana Bank Building, Evansville, Ind.

Then they charted the nation. They aimed first at the 17,200 installers of the Western Electric Co. In the public schools in Washington 83 per cent of the students are colored. Integration of the races in the national capital is no different in its obstacles than those faced in the South.

The problems of human relationship will certainly never be solved by bayonets or by sit-in demonstrations or freedom rides or other agitation of that kind. Conformity by coercion will never succeed. An adjustment of race relations will come only when both sides determine what is the practicable and human thing to do, irrespective of the legal phraseology of federal court orders.

Gems Of Thought

SECURITY

Security is the priceless product of freedom.

—B. E. Hutchinson

In this era of world wars, in this atomic age, values have changed ....We must discover security within ourselves.

—Boris Pasternak

There is no true security for the individual except as he finds it in the security of all.

—Edwin Markham

The trouble with worrying so much about your "security" in the future is that you feel so insecure in the present.

Cleveland bus driver John Stanfield turned his vehicle into a "maternity express" when a passenger, Richard McClement, told him his wife, also on board, was having severe labor pains. Despite the rush hour traffic, Stanfield turned his bus around and sped to a hospital, where McClement's wife gave birth to a girl.

Bob Marx, 29, the only American among the nine-member crew that sailed the Nina II—a close copy of the smallest of Christopher Columbus' discovery ships—across the Atlantic, says maybe sailors were better in the 15th century. The original Nina completed the journey in 70 days. The 40-foot Nina II took 117 days.

However, Marx said in New York, the crew of Nina II had bad luck, encountering severe storms and losing its fresh vegetables and fruits and even its fresh water supply. "Probably the greatest edge Columbus had on us," Marx said, was that he really didn't know where he was going so . . . he had no reason to worry he was off course."

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Nancy Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Brewer of Chester R. D. 1, to Richard E. Daugherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Daugherty, 505 Grant St., Newell.

The prospective bride is a graduate of Chester High School and of Ohio Valley Business College.

Her fiance attended Wells High School and has been employed at the Ft. Steuben Heating Co.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Penny Allman Weds Airman In Church Nuptial

MRS. CAPWELL JR.
Bride Of Ceremony Dec. 29.

Miss Penny Allman became the bride of Airman 3C Charles Capwell Jr. the morning of Dec. 29, the wedding anniversary of her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Pearce, at 11:30 o'clock in St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allman, 430 Wall St., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Capwell, 415 Monroe St.

Fr. Carl Nicolay, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of red poinsettias, pine trees and palms. Mrs. James O'Reilly was organist and her husband sang the nuptial music.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie. The fitted bodice was styled with a scoop neckline, outlined in lace applique, and long, pointed sleeves.

The bouffant skirt featured a chapel train. Her bouffant butterfly veil, of imported silk illusion, was held in place by a headpiece of open work tracery, highlighted with orange blossoms and pearls.

She carried a white prayer book topped with an arrangement of white poinsettia and satin streamers tied in lovers' knots. She received a gold lavaliere, centered with a diamond, as a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Margaret Hoon was maid of honor and wore a gold satin antique satin sheath. Miss Gina Treleven, Miss Pamela Chaffee and Miss Alice Osborne were bridesmaids and appeared in emerald green antique satin sheaths. They had matching cabbage rose headpieces with theater veils. Their cascade bouquets featured red poinsettia and English holly. Gifts of the bride were white gloves, pearls and charm bracelets.

Craig O'Neil was best man. Richard Kelly, Michael Geon and Timothy Archer were ushers. They received leather key cases from the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride chose an ensemble of aqua silk with white hat. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of cranberry red crepe with matching hat. White carnation corsages complemented their attire.

Grandmothers of the principals attending were Mrs. Pearce, in a black and white ensemble; Mrs. Lena Creel, in black lace; Mrs. Alice Capwell, in beige, and Mrs. James Pusateri, in Navy blue. All had white carnation corsages.

A reception for 100 was held at the Elks Club ballroom. A three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, centered the buffet table, where a gold and white color theme predominated. Poinsettia and candelabra completed the setting.

Aides were Mrs. James Welch, Mrs. Michael Gerace, Mrs. John Eccleston, Mrs. Homer Wyand and Mrs. Clark McCoy. Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham was at the guest register.

Out-of-town guests were from Akron, Midland, Toronto and Miami, Fla.

For her honeymoon trip to the Poconos, the bride wore a three-piece ivory knit suit with matching accessories.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of East Liverpool High School and was employed as a nurse's aide at City Hospital.

Her husband was graduated in 1961 and is stationed at the Mountain Home Air Base, Idaho, where the newlyweds will reside.

The bridegroom's parents entertained for the rehearsal party.

MR., MRS. FERRALL PINNEY
Couple Holds Open House At Home In Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrall Pinney of Phoenix, Ariz., former residents of Chester, observed their 50th wedding anniversary Friday with open house. Their sons and daughters-in-law were in charge of arrangements. About 50 attended.

They were married Jan. 11, 1913, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Pinney on Virginia Ave., Chester, by the Rev. C. G. Huffer, pastor of the Christian Church.

Mrs. Pinney, the former Vena Ludwig of Ripley, W. Va., was employed for many years in the decorating shop of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co.

Her husband, a retired carpenter, was born in New Cumberland and resided in Hancock County for 58 years. He formerly was employed also at the pottery. He was active in civic affairs, serving as councilman of the Second Ward.

They have been residing in Phoenix since 1948 and are active members of the First Christian Church.

They have four sons, Cecil Pinney of Los Gatos, Calif., Donald Pinney and Ralph Pinney of Phoenix, and Grant Pinney of China Lake, Calif. There are nine grandchildren and one great- grandchild.

Helen F. Reeder, Kenneth Moore Exchange Vows

Miss Helen Faye Reeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Reeder, and Kenneth Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore, were united in marriage Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the Elkton Methodist Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Rev. William L. Brown, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before the candle-lighted altar.

The bride wore a street-length sheath dress of beige lace over taffeta, with long sleeves and jewel neckline piped in satin. Small satin bows and side stripes of beige satin complemented the dress. She wore a half-hat with veil of matching beige, and a shoulder corsage of white rosebuds.

Mrs. John Hochman of Lisbon was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a sheer wool dress of pale orchid, and a corsage of pink carnations, with a half-hat in shades of pink. Richard Moore served as best man for his brother.

The mother of the bride wore sheer wool of Navy blue with black accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom chose a beige dress with harmonizing accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

The bridal party was received afterwards at the home of the bride. The bride's table, lighted by white tapers, was covered with white linen and centered with the traditional tiered wedding cake, topped with bridal figures. Mrs. Perry Baker and Mrs. Dale Channels, aunts of the bride, served.

The bride, a 1960 graduate of Beaver Local High School, is employed as a clerk at the Elkton Post Office. The bridegroom, a 1959 graduate of David Anderson High School in Lisbon, operates Ken's TV Sales & Service in Elkton. The newlyweds spent a brief honeymoon in Cleveland and will reside temporarily with the bride's parents.

Ex-Residents Of Chester Mark 50th Anniversary

MR., MRS. FERRALL PINNEY
Couple Holds Open House At Home In Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrall Pinney of Phoenix, Ariz., former residents of Chester, observed their 50th wedding anniversary Friday with open house. Their sons and daughters-in-law were in charge of arrangements. About 50 attended.

They were married Jan. 11, 1913, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Pinney on Virginia Ave., Chester, by the Rev. C. G. Huffer, pastor of the Christian Church.

Mrs. Pinney, the former Vena Ludwig of Ripley, W. Va., was employed for many years in the decorating shop of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co.

Her husband, a retired carpenter, was born in New Cumberland and resided in Hancock County for 58 years. He formerly was employed also at the pottery. He was active in civic affairs, serving as councilman of the Second Ward.

They have been residing in Phoenix since 1948 and are active members of the First Christian Church.

They have four sons, Cecil Pinney of Los Gatos, Calif., Donald Pinney and Ralph Pinney of Phoenix, and Grant Pinney of China Lake, Calif. There are nine grandchildren and one great- grandchild.

Helen F. Reeder, Kenneth Moore Exchange Vows

Miss Helen Faye Reeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Reeder, and Kenneth Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore, were united in marriage Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the Elkton Methodist Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Rev. William L. Brown, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before the candle-lighted altar.

The bride wore a street-length sheath dress of beige lace over taffeta, with long sleeves and jewel neckline piped in satin. Small satin bows and side stripes of beige satin complemented the dress. She wore a half-hat with veil of matching beige, and a shoulder corsage of white rosebuds.

Mrs. John Hochman of Lisbon was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a sheer wool dress of pale orchid, and a corsage of pink carnations, with a half-hat in shades of pink. Richard Moore served as best man for his brother.

The mother of the bride wore sheer wool of Navy blue with black accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom chose a beige dress with harmonizing accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

The bridal party was received afterwards at the home of the bride. The bride's table, lighted by white tapers, was covered with white linen and centered with the traditional tiered wedding cake, topped with bridal figures. Mrs. Perry Baker and Mrs. Dale Channels, aunts of the bride, served.

The bride, a 1960 graduate of Beaver Local High School, is employed as a clerk at the Elkton Post Office. The bridegroom, a 1959 graduate of David Anderson High School in Lisbon, operates Ken's TV Sales & Service in Elkton. The newlyweds spent a brief honeymoon in Cleveland and will reside temporarily with the bride's parents.

Firm Ordered To Halt Pollution Of Stream

SALEM — The Nease Chemical Co. plant in Perry Township has been ordered by the Ohio Department of Health to cease operations and discharge of industrial and other wastes until treatment facilities have been installed.

The concern was ordered to halt operations by Dr. Ralph Dwork, state health director, in a letter sent to the firm's headquarters at State College, Pa.

Columbiana County Health Department officials and some area sportsmen's clubs have filed complaints with the state office concerning the reported pollution of streams by the plant.

Taxes

Among possible new revenue sources discussed are:

State personal income tax — A percentage of the individual's federal income tax (10 per cent would yield an estimated $230-$250 million annually, the study says), or a flat proportional rate applied to gross income less deductions (as much as $267 million) or a progressive rate such as four percent on $5,000-$10,000 incomes and six per cent on $10,000 and above (as much as $370 million).

Corporation income tax—A flat one per cent rate on net income (estimated $30 million) or a flat five per cent ($140 million).

Property taxes — "The tax on real property, while undesirable on equity grounds, must be retained because, without the tax, the local unit of government as an independent functioning agency would be likely to disappear . . . Until a personal income tax is enacted in Ohio, the present intangible personal property (stocks, bonds, etc.) tax represents one of the best methods of taxing this class of property."

tory there have been two regular patrolmen.

He will continue to receive $4,400, which has been the chief's salary.

However, councilmen indicated a higher salary will be paid to the chief post when it is filled, and pay boosts are planned for the two present officers.

Lennens was sworn in by Mayor Harry Abrams after the meeting, and went on duty at midnight. A former pottery employe, he is married and has four children. He became a patrolman in 1960 with the retirement of Police Chief Floyd (Doc) Lyons, who was succeeded by Davis.

ASKED today about whether or not state policeman are continuing to visit the city, Mayor Abrams said the police would probably have to be notified officially of any move to have them discontinue the visits.

Council last week asked state officials for aid in supplementing the reduced police force.

Council is scheduled to meet in regular session Tuesday night —having changed regular meeting nights from first and third Wednesday — but it is possible the meeting will be postponed because some councilmen may be unavailable.

Meredith

west wing of the dining hall and most of the students picked up their trays, walking silently away. Students had jeered Meredith and shouted curse words to him Wednesday and Thursday nights. There were no incidents Friday.

While Meredith was dining, the Student Judicial Council was in emergency session to consider disciplinary action against one student apprehended in Thursday night's demonstration. The unidentified youth was suspended.

Meredith said he decided to remain on campus for the weekend to study for the examinations which begin next Thursday, but added he might go to Memphis, Tenn., today on business.

Earlier Friday, Chancellor J. D. Williams said the latest series of developments were Meredith's fault.

"We were getting along quietly and normal," said Williams, "then Meredith saw fit to give a press conference in which he implied that students and others were not doing what they should to make his life what he thought it should be."

About the same time a spokesman for the Justice Department in Washington, who asked not to be named, charged that much of Meredith's campus harassment was due to weak university administrators who were unable or unwilling to deal with aggressive white students.

Meredith said last Monday he might leave Ole Miss at the end of the semester "unless very definite and positive changes are made to make my situation more conducive to learning." There had been no large demonstrations for about six weeks until his statement.

Meredith remained silent until Friday about his statement and charges that had touched off the new demonstrations.

He told a newsman accompanying him on the campus, "It isn't what they do, it's what's done about it."

In obvious reference to the harassment aimed at him, Meredith added: "It doesn't matter whether you kick a man every day or hit him some good licks with a sledge-hammer occasionally. It's all the same."

Meanwhile, a 23-member white federal grand jury, which includes two women, delved into the rioting that erupted on campus Sept. 30 when Meredith arrived with U.S. marshal and Army protection.

The jury, in session since Tuesday, concluded most of its other investigations by midweek and turned to a probe of the Ole Miss situation.

Chester Group Sets Prayer Day

World Day of Prayer was set March 1 when the Board of Managers of the Chester Council of United Church Women met Friday evening at the Church of the Nazarene, where the services will be held.

A spokesman for Cincinnati, Newport & Covington Transportation Co. said the northernmost motel served by the line will be on Interstate 75 near Hamilton. The trips to the airport will cost $3 from the northern motels. More stops may be added later.

Firm Ordered To Halt Pollution Of Stream

SALEM — The Nease Chemical Co. plant in Perry Township has been ordered by the Ohio Department of Health to cease operations and discharge of industrial and other wastes until treatment facilities have been installed.

The concern was ordered to halt operations by Dr. Ralph Dwork, state health director, in a letter sent to the firm's headquarters at State College, Pa.

Columbiana County Health Department officials and some area sportsmen's clubs have filed complaints with the state office concerning the reported pollution of streams by the plant.

Taxes

Among possible new revenue sources discussed are:

State personal income tax — A percentage of the individual's federal income tax (10 per cent would yield an estimated $230-$250 million annually, the study says), or a flat proportional rate applied to gross income less deductions (as much as $267 million) or a progressive rate such as four percent on $5,000-$10,000 incomes and six per cent on $10,000 and above (as much as $370 million).

Corporation income tax—A flat one per cent rate on net income (estimated $30 million) or a flat five per cent ($140 million).

Property taxes — "The tax on real property, while undesirable on equity grounds, must be retained because, without the tax, the local unit of government as an independent functioning agency would be likely to disappear . . . Until a personal income tax is enacted in Ohio, the present intangible personal property (stocks, bonds, etc.) tax represents one of the best methods of taxing this class of property."

B&O Worker Killed

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A 44-year-old Baltimore & Ohio Railroad employe was killed early today when he slipped and fell under a moving train, authorities reported.

The victim, Leo W. Dolan of Tallmadge, a brakeman - conductor, was helping switch cars to form a train in the B&O's Arlington Street yard when he fell under the wheels.

tory there have been two regular patrolmen.

He will continue to receive $4,400, which has been the chief's salary.

However, councilmen indicated a higher salary will be paid to the chief post when it is filled, and pay boosts are planned for the two present officers.

Lennens was sworn in by Mayor Harry Abrams after the meeting, and went on duty at midnight. A former pottery employe, he is married and has four children. He became a patrolman in 1960 with the retirement of Police Chief Floyd (Doc) Lyons, who was succeeded by Davis.

ASKED today about whether or not state policeman are continuing to visit the city, Mayor Abrams said the police would probably have to be notified officially of any move to have them discontinue the visits.

Council last week asked state officials for aid in supplementing the reduced police force.

Council is scheduled to meet in regular session Tuesday night —having changed regular meeting nights from first and third Wednesday — but it is possible the meeting will be postponed because some councilmen may be unavailable.

School Credit Union Will Elect Directors

LISBON — Election of two directors, two members for the credit committee and one member for the audit committee will be held at the ninth annual meeting of the Columbiana County School Employes Credit Union Wednesday at 6:40 p.m. at the West Point School.

Business, which will include yearly reports, will begin at 8, according to Lorin Ruff, elementary supervisor of county system and president of the group.

Membership is open to every person employed by any school district in Columbiana County.

The dividend on shares will be announced.

If you are improvising a steamer, make sure that the food is high enough over the water so that the water doesn't touch it. Remember that the food is being cooked by steam; if it is immersed (partly or entirely) in the water it will be cooked by the boiling process.

west wing of the dining hall and most of the students picked up their trays, walking silently away. Students had jeered Meredith and shouted curse words to him Wednesday and Thursday nights. There were no incidents Friday.

While Meredith was dining, the Student Judicial Council was in emergency session to consider disciplinary action against one student apprehended in Thursday night's demonstration. The unidentified youth was suspended.

Meredith said he decided to remain on campus for the weekend to study for the examinations which begin next Thursday, but added he might go to Memphis, Tenn., today on business.

Earlier Friday, Chancellor J. D. Williams said the latest series of developments were Meredith's fault.

"We were getting along quietly and normal," said Williams, "then Meredith saw fit to give a press conference in which he implied that students and others were not doing what they should to make his life what he thought it should be."

About the same time a spokesman for the Justice Department in Washington, who asked not to be named, charged that much of Meredith's campus harassment was due to weak university administrators who were unable or unwilling to deal with aggressive white students.

Meredith said last Monday he might leave Ole Miss at the end of the semester "unless very definite and positive changes are made to make my situation more conducive to learning." There had been no large demonstrations for about six weeks until his statement.

Meredith remained silent until Friday about his statement and charges that had touched off the new demonstrations.

He told a newsman accompanying him on the campus, "It isn't what they do, it's what's done about it."

In obvious reference to the harassment aimed at him, Meredith added: "It doesn't matter whether you kick a man every day or hit him some good licks with a sledge-hammer occasionally. It's all the same."

Meanwhile, a 23-member white federal grand jury, which includes two women, delved into the rioting that erupted on campus Sept. 30 when Meredith arrived with U.S. marshal and Army protection.

The jury, in session since Tuesday, concluded most of its other investigations by midweek and turned to a probe of the Ole Miss situation.

Chester Group Sets Prayer Day

World Day of Prayer was set March 1 when the Board of Managers of the Chester Council of United Church Women met Friday evening at the Church of the Nazarene, where the services will be held.

Mrs. Robert Thomas will be chairman. A special children's service is also being planned for the afternoon with Mrs. R. M. McFarland, council president, in charge.

The meeting was opened with devotions by Mrs. W. L. Claghorn. Mrs. McFarland presided. Since the meeting began at the same time as Chester City Council met, the representatives of the local churches gave special prayers for the Council session.

Salineville

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Strabley of Salem visited Friday with Miss Myrtle Strabley.

Norman Day and daughters of Lisbon R. D. were visitors Thursday.

Harry R. Shaff, Salineville druggist, is a patient at City Hospital.

Program Set On Men's Day

Men's Day will be observed Sunday at 3:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Church in Midland featuring special music.

The program will open with selections by the Men's Chorus of the host church.

Other guest groups will include the Male Chorus of the East Liverpool Second Baptist Church, Tri-State Male Chorus, East Liverpool Boys Chorus and the Friendship Male Chorus of Youngstown.

Five-minute talks will be given by Augustine Green of Beaver Falls and Will T. Leavell and Leslie Clark, both of Midland.

A financial rally will also be held with men of the church presenting reports.

Ralph D. Pope and John Hasey are co-chairmen of the program and Robert Williams and Charles James, social chairmen. A social hour will follow.

Lisbon Church Officers Elected

LISBON — The annual congregational meeting was held at the First Presbyterian Church Thursday evening after a coverdish dinner.

Elders and deacons were elected at the ecclesiastical meeting, with the Rev. Paul T. Gerard, pastor, as moderator.

Re-elected as elders were Russell Peppel, Howard Hochman and Ross Fox while Harvey Everett was elected, all for three years.

Mrs. Wilmer Stooksberry and Dean Ward were elected deacons for three years.

The nominating committee appointed to represent the congregation and to report at the 1964 congregational meeting consists of Mrs. Fred Rose, Mrs. Roy Pilmer, Donald Tanner and A. H. Timmerman. H. Dean Boyd, president of the Board of Trustees, presided at the corporation meeting. Roy E. Patterson was re-elected and Donald Tanner, elected trustees for three year terms.

Reports of the activities, finances, attendance and organizations and groups of the church were given.

Mackall To Head Cemetery Group

David E. Mackall was elected president of the Mill Creek Hill Cemetery Association at a meeting Thursday evening at the Mackall home in Hookstown.

Other officers include John E. Welch, vice president; Ralph D. Stewart, treasurer, and Allen W. Robertson, secretary.

John Craig of East Liverpool was elected to the board, succeeding his brother, the late David S. Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Maki of Hookstown R. D. 1 entertained the Philathea Sunday School Class of the Hookstown United Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening. Twelve were present.

DO YOU NEED DIRECTIONS?

Public libraries today are filled with "how to do it" books. From them we may learn to do almost anything from baking a cake to building a house, from managing a home to conducting a business. But by far the most important are the books which show us how to build our lives.

The greatest among these is the Bible, a book which has withstood the test of centuries. Within it are God's directions for abundant living. But it is not easy to put these directions into practice. We need help.

We turn to the Church. In the Church we find inspiration through the companionship of others who with us strive for a better life. There, in prayer and worship, we know the blessings of God, the Father. We learn to follow the example of the Christ, and feel the power of His Spirit who alone enables us to live the abundant life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Installation was held for the junior group with Miss Karen Scott as chairman.

Mrs. Ruth Leeper, senior chairman of the juniors and Mrs. Ruth Trimble, co-chairman, installed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Donald Swearingen and Mrs. Rardin.

The next senior auxiliary meeting is Feb. 8.

Firm Employing 150 To Move To Hamilton

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — A company employing between 100 and 150 persons will move to the city next month, it has been announced.

The company will be the Amberley Co. of Cincinnati, which operates a major installation for breaking down polyethylene covered paper scrap into its original components of paper fibre and polyethylene.

Former Actress Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Kathleen Clifford Illitch, known to the entertainment world as Kathleen Clifford when she appeared in vaudeville and in silent movies, died in a hospital Friday after a long illness. She appeared in 17 films after her debut in 1918 and later wrote books and plays.

DO YOU NEED DIRECTIONS?

Public libraries today are filled with "how to do it" books. From them we may learn to do almost anything from baking a cake to building a house, from managing a home to conducting a business. But by far the most important are the books which show us how to build our lives.

The greatest among these is the Bible, a book which has withstood the test of centuries. Within it are God's directions for abundant living. But it is not easy to put these directions into practice. We need help.

We turn to the Church. In the Church we find inspiration through the companionship of others who with us strive for a better life. There, in prayer and worship, we know the blessings of God, the Father. We learn to follow the example of the Christ, and feel the power of His Spirit who alone enables us to live the abundant life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Cline's 34-Point Show Futile In Potters' 82-68 Loss

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Superior rebounding and good balance paid big dividends for Steubenville which scored an 82-68 victory over the East Liverpool Potters before a near-packed house of some 1,200 fans Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

Big Red's eighth victory in nine games came despite a great 34-point performance turned in by Dean Cline.

Though Cline came up with his best effort of the season, the small Potters, hurting desperately for height, dropped their seventh game against only one triumph.

COACH Walt Owen's Stubbers also checked off their second Big 8 victory. The Potters are on the bottom of the Conference pile with an 0-4 slate. The loss also increased East Liverpool's losing streak to three straight.

A look at the statistics reveals the game was much closer than the score indicated. Both teams shot about 46 per cent as offense dominated the play.

Steubenville had only one field goal more than the Potters, but the Blue and White cagers had to foul in an effort to get the ball off the backboards and it resulted in Big Red connecting on 22 of 30 charity tosses. The Potters fell way off in this department hitting only 10 of 25.

East Liverpool trailed by 18 points, 47-25, at halftime. The Blue and White never came any closer than the final margin of 14 points.

Other than Cline, only junior Bob Forzano and Roger Linville helped out in the scoring department.

Forzano, gaining his second starting job of the season, poured 11 points through the hoop, while Linville accounted for 10 before leaving the game on fouls with 2:52 remaining.

—:—

EAST LIVERPOOL'S inside men, Dave Oliver and Randy Stover, accounted for only nine points between them and Stover, at 6-foot-3, didn't react fast enough to be of much help on the backboards.

Frank McComas contributed but one field goal to the attack.

Cline, who had scored nine points in the first half, broke loose in the third quarter and went on to tally 25 during the second half.

HIS THIRD period total was 15. He missed only one out of eight shots. The senior star is getting closer and closer to the school scoring mark of 40 set by Ken Cunningham two seasons ago.

The third quarter was East Liverpool's best eight minutes of the evening as Cline controlled the flow of play.

THE HIGH-JUMPING Big Red five was paced by Bob Baker, a 6-foot-2 junior, who wound up with 24 points. Three other starters shared in the balanced offense. Stan Brown, 6-foot-5 junior, hit for 17, Co-captain Dave Brown for 14 and Bob McCosky for 10.

Baker, who converted eight out of nine from the foul line, did most of his damage in the first quarter when he scored 15 points.

Friday's contest marked the first time East Liverpool and Steubenville had met in a regular season game since the 1953-54 campaign.

Wellsville Breezes To 6th Victory At Chester, 64-34

Baldwin Nets 19 For Tall Tigers

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer

Wellsville High easily tucked away its sixth victory of the season Friday night at Chester, overpowering the Panthers, 64-34, before a turnout of 750 fans.

Coach Jack McDevitt utilized a two-platoon system of the Orange (real tall) and the Black (just tall) and each scored at a rapid clip against their outclassed opponents.

The Orange squad, led by Steve Baldwin, 6-5 center raced to an 18-8 first quarter lead before the Black squad, anchored by Milt Martin, 6-3, and Terry Flesch, 6-2, came to build the lead to 31-16 at halftime.

McDevitt was lenient throughout, also rotating both units in the second half and they kept the scoreboard flashing, meanwhile holding the pint-sized Panthers to seven field goals, probably a new low.

ELEVEN players saw action for Wellsville, and 10 broke into the scoring column. The Tigers force the Panthers into committing costly passing errors.

THE SECOND unit of Wellsville included Martin and Flesch, Alvin Thompson, 5-10, Mark Leyda, 5-8, and Don Welch, 5-10. Flesch, the strong young junior, looked good in hitting six points with the varsity. Tom Betz, another reserve player, also saw varsity action.

The victory, most decisive of the season for Wellsville, gives the team a 6-1 record to take against Weirton Madonna Tuesday night at Weirton. The Blue Dons lay claim to a win over tough New Cumberland and have always been a tough opponent for the Tigers.

CHESTER'S record dropped to 3-4 for the year. The Panthers are scheduled for a rematch with the Bengals Feb. 8 at Wellsville.

In the reserve game, Wellsville's Reserves romped over Chester, 66-47, as Flesch delivered 19 points in two quarters of action. Coach Chick McMillan's winners stand 6-1 for the year. Tom Ash turned in a good game for Chester's Reserves, scoring 23 points.

Wellsville Cage Game Reset For Feb. 23

Wellsville High's game with Pittsburgh Central Catholic, originally scheduled Jan. 26, has been postponed to Feb. 23, at Wellsville, Don Lowe, faculty manager, announced. The change was required because Central had inadvertently arranged for two games that night. The Tigers will thus have an open date Jan. 26.

hit 29 of 78 shots from the floor for 37 per cent.

Baldwin set the pace with a hot hand in the opening quarter, scoring 12 points, and finished as high man for the night with 19.

Coach Dom Amedeo's Panthers resisted the towering Bengals with hustle but lacked the shooting power, height and experience to remain in contention for all but a few moments of the first quarter.

AMEDEO, guiding the Panthers while their veteran chief — Coach Max Tuttle — recovers from an illness saw the squad hit seven field goals in 37 attempts and make 20 of 30 free throws.

Jim Tridico, 5-10 center, led Chester's attack with nine points, while Bob Myers and Kelse Johnson collected seven each.

Starting for Wellsville were regulars Baldwin, Ed Nelson, 6-3; Forrest Harris, 6-3; Jim Powell, 5-10, and Andy Dash, 5-10. They built up a fast lead by using a full-court pressing defense to

Lisbon Wins 7th, Stage Set For Loop Showdown

Lisbon's Blue Devils bid to continue unbeaten in Tri-County League play tonight after polishing off Poland Friday night, 55-45.

Scoring their fourth straight loop victory, Coach Gary Pike's Devils led all the way in trimming Poland at Poland.

They entertain Columbiana tonight in a battle of Tri-County League unbeatens.

Three starters hit in double figures against Poland as Lisbon bettered its record overall at 7-1.

Craig Pannier, veteran forward, led the attack with 15 points, while big Larry McPherson, 6-3 center, hit 14 and guard Ron Crosser, 12.

Gary Walter and Bob Lindberg hit 10 points each for Poland.

Poland's reserves won the preliminary game, 36-31, over Lisbon.

Beaver Local Slapped With 7th At Toronto

Toronto spelled out Beaver Local's seventh loss of the season by coming up with an easy 60-38 victory Friday night at Toronto.

Coach Tom McCall's Beavers, winners of one game, trailed the entire time last night, falling behind 17-6 at the first quarter pole, 35-16 at halftime and 51-26 at the conclusion of the third frame.

There were no outstanding scorers for the Red Knights who showed 10 players breaking into the point column. Lee Graubner ner was the only Red Knight in the double figures with 11.

Beaver Local, badly lacking a scoring punch since the Red and White only found the range for 12 fielders, was paced by sophomore Dennis Horger's eight points. Ron Deering added seven.

Toronto also gained the nod in the reserve game, 51-31.

Truck Driver's Jailed In Cage Bribe Attempt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Los Angeles truck driver has been jailed on suspicion of offering a University of Washington basketball player $1,000 to throw a game with the University of Southern California.

But David Donahue, arrested Friday night outside the Sports Arena, says he was "just playing around" when he made the offer to Washington guard Larry Sharp.

But, under the law, making such an offer would be a crime whatever the intent. And Donahue, about 25, was booked on suspicion of offering a bribe to an athlete—a felony.

Sharp did not start for Washington Friday night but played about 20 minutes and scored one point. Southern California won the game 64-61.

Sharp went to his coach, John Grayson, and Grayson contacted Southern California Athletic Director Jess Hill. They went outside with an officer and found Donahue was still there. He was arrested.

Lakers Get Past Wilt, Warriors 6th Time In Row

That Pacific Coast rivalry in the National Basketball Association is turning into a runaway for Los Angeles' streaking Lakers.

Putting on a second half surge Friday night, the Lakers knocked off the San Francisco Warriors 134-129. The victory was the eighth straight for Los Angeles and gave the Lakers a perfect 6-for-6 against San Francisco this season—the Warriors' first on the West Coast.

Elsewhere in the NBA, subs John Havlicek and Frank Ramsey played key roles as the Boston Celtics whipped the Syracuse Nats 134-117, and the Detroit Pistons outlasted the Chicago Zephyrs 116-112.

Wilt Chamberlain broke his own Cow Palace record with 67 points and the Warriors led by as many as 18 points—but the Lakers proved too hot to hold off.

The result boosted the Lakers' Western Division lead to six games over St. Louis and dropped San Francisco to fourth, one-half game behind Detroit.

Clippers Turn In Frigid 1st Half Before Winning

COLUMBIANA — Coach Rich Berryman's Clippers came up with a frigid first half and received a big scare from Minerva before coming out on top with a 46-40 victory here Friday night to remain unbeaten in Tri-County action.

In the first half, Columbiana only hit on six of 35 tries from the field and it took sophomore Phil Burbick to pull the Clippers through on a night when the usual big guns were silenced.

The 6-foot-2 Burbick tallied 18 points to lead the attack while mainstays Dale Murphy and Jim Ward could only combine for four and seven points respectively. Fred Gosney added 10 to the attack.

Baxter's 14 paced Minerva.

Newell Five Given Scare Before Salineville Bows

Newell wrapped up the first half of its regular season schedule Friday night by outlasting Salineville, 68-60, in a free-scoring battle at the Salineville gymnasium.

Coach John Robison's Vikings arrived at the midway point with a flashy 9-1 record, but only after beating back a determined fourth-quarter rally by the winless Indians.

Leading by 20 points at the end of three periods, the Vikings were forced to settle for a less decisive conquest after Salineville finished fast by outscoring them, 21 points to nine.

Jenkins led the rally of Coach Al Girone's Indians, hitting 10 points in the fourth quarter.

Balanced scoring once again kept Newell on the winning trail, with four of five starters collecting double figures.

Johnson poured in 22 points for Newell to take scoring honors for the night, while Franczek hit 16, Sam Simmons, 12, and Ferrell 11.

Leading Salineville's attack was Stewart, who finished with 16 points, while Jenkins had 14, Pitts 13 and Carter 10. The Indians absorbed their seventh straight defeat and take on Springfield tonight at home.

In the preliminary, the Salineville reserves romped to a 48-28 victory over Newell. Mervin Jones had 14 points and Ron Lewis 12 for the winners, while Daugherty had eight for Newell.

E. Palestine Tripped At Charity Line

LOUISVILLE — Foul shots decided the verdict as East Palestine High bowed to Louisville, 54-45, here Friday night.

The Bulldogs outscored their Tri-County League foe from the floor, 18-to-17, but mustered only nine points at the free throw line to 20 by Louisville.

Louisville was on top at each quarter break and used 22 points by Gadieux to help sway the decision.

High - scoring Dave Watt of East Palestine had one of his less spectacular games, delivering only seven points and fouling out in the last quarter. He had been averaging 17.2 a game until last night.

Bob Dickey took over and led East Palestine with 15 points. Mike Smotrilla had 10.

The Bulldogs return to action tonight, against invading Poland.

Peters Twp. Deals Rams League Loss

South Side's Rams continued winless in Section 15 play Friday night, losing to Peters Township, a loop power, 64-43, on the South Side boards.

The defeat was the third straight in Section 15 play and seventh of the season for the once-victorious Rams.

Conrad Simon and Rich Tinta led Peters Township to its third straight league victory by scoring 12 points each.

Peters Township moved ahead in the second quarter and built up a 48-36 lead by the end of three periods.

Dawson Frasier scored almost half of South Side's field goals, hitting eight for 16 points.

In the preliminary, the Peters Township reserves edged South Side, 38-36, in an overtime battle. Bill Powell had 12 points and Miles Littell 10 for the losers.

Cumberland Rebounds To Whip St. Anthony

Rebounding from a defeat to powerful Weirton Madonna, New Cumberland's Blue Raiders picked up a 55-42 victory over Follansbee St. Anthony Friday night at New Cumberland.

New Cumberland completed the first half of its regular season schedule with an 8-2 record, a loser only to the Blue Dons and Chester.

Dennis Carnes, 6-2 sophomore surprise, led a second half rally that found New Cumberland turning a one-point lead into a wide margin of victory.

Carnes popped in 24 points for the Blue Raiders, with 10 coming in the third quarter when the squad moved from a 19-18 lead to leave Follansbee behind, 43-26.

Also hitting double figures for the winners was Ken Freshwater, who tallied 11 points.

Cline's 34-Point Show Futile In Potters' 82-68 Loss

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Superior rebounding and good balance paid big dividends for Steubenville which scored an 82-68 victory over the East Liverpool Potters before a near-packed house of some 1,200 fans Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

Big Red's eighth victory in nine games came despite a great 34-point performance turned in by Dean Cline.

Though Cline came up with his best effort of the season, the small Potters, hurting desperately for height, dropped their seventh game against only one triumph.

COACH Walt Owen's Stubbers also checked off their second Big 8 victory. The Potters are on the bottom of the Conference pile with an 0-4 slate. The loss also increased East Liverpool's losing streak to three straight.

A look at the statistics reveals the game was much closer than the score indicated. Both teams shot about 46 per cent as offense dominated the play.

Steubenville had only one field goal more than the Potters, but the Blue and White cagers had to foul in an effort to get the ball off the backboards and it resulted in Big Red connecting on 22 of 30 charity tosses. The Potters fell way off in this department hitting only 10 of 25.

East Liverpool trailed by 18 points, 47-25, at halftime. The Blue and White never came any closer than the final margin of 14 points.

Other than Cline, only junior Bob Forzano and Roger Linville helped out in the scoring department.

Forzano, gaining his second starting job of the season, poured 11 points through the hoop, while Linville accounted for 10 before leaving the game on fouls with 2:52 remaining.

—:—

EAST LIVERPOOL'S inside men, Dave Oliver and Randy Stover, accounted for only nine points between them and Stover, at 6-foot-3, didn't react fast enough to be of much help on the backboards.

Frank McComas contributed but one field goal to the attack.

Cline, who had scored nine points in the first half, broke loose in the third quarter and went on to tally 25 during the second half.

—:—

HIS THIRD period total was 15. He missed only one out of eight shots. The senior star is getting closer and closer to the school scoring mark of 40 set by Ken Cunningham two seasons ago.

The third quarter was East Liverpool's best eight minutes of the evening as Cline controlled the flow of play.

THE HIGH-JUMPING Big Red five was paced by Bob Baker, a 6-foot-2 junior, who wound up with 24 points. Three other starters shared in the balanced offense. Stan Brown, 6-foot-5 junior, hit for 17, Co-captain Dave Brown for 14 and Bob McCosky for 10.

Baker, who converted eight out of nine from the foul line, did most of his damage in the first quarter when he scored 15 points.

Friday's contest marked the first time East Liverpool and Steubenville had met in a regular season game since the 1953-54 campaign.

Wellsville Breezes To 6th Victory At Chester, 64-34

Baldwin Nets 19 For Tall Tigers

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer

Wellsville High easily tucked away its sixth victory of the season Friday night at Chester, overpowering the Panthers, 64-34, before a turnout of 750 fans.

Coach Jack McDevitt utilized a two-platoon system of the Orange (real tall) and the Black (just tall) and each scored at a rapid clip against their outclassed opponents.

The Orange squad, led by Steve Baldwin, 6-5 center raced to an 18-8 first quarter lead before the Black squad, anchored by Milt Martin, 6-3, and Terry Flesch, 6-2, came to build the lead to 31-16 at halftime.

McDevitt was lenient throughout, also rotating both units in the second half and they kept the scoreboard flashing, meanwhile holding the pint-sized Panthers to seven field goals, probably a new low.

ELEVEN players saw action for Wellsville, and 10 broke into the scoring column. The Tigers force the Panthers into committing costly passing errors.

THE SECOND unit of Wellsville included Martin and Flesch, Alvin Thompson, 5-10, Mark Leyda, 5-8, and Don Welch, 5-10. Flesch, the strong young junior, looked good in hitting six points with the varsity. Tom Betz, another reserve player, also saw varsity action.

The victory, most decisive of the season for Wellsville, gives the team a 6-1 record to take against Weirton Madonna Tuesday night at Weirton. The Blue Dons lay claim to a win over tough New Cumberland and have always been a tough opponent for the Tigers.

CHESTER'S record dropped to 3-4 for the year. The Panthers are scheduled for a rematch with the Bengals Feb. 8 at Wellsville.

In the reserve game, Wellsville's Reserves romped over Chester, 66-47, as Flesch delivered 19 points in two quarters of action. Coach Chick McMillan's winners stand 6-1 for the year. Tom Ash turned in a good game for Chester's Reserves, scoring 23 points.

hit 29 of 78 shots from the floor for 37 per cent.

Baldwin set the pace with a hot hand in the opening quarter, scoring 12 points, and finished as high man for the night with 19.

Coach Dom Amedeo's Panthers resisted the towering Bengals with hustle but lacked the shooting power, height and experience to remain in contention for all but a few moments of the first quarter.

AMEDEO, guiding the Panthers while their veteran chief — Coach Max Tuttle — recovers from an illness saw the squad hit seven field goals in 37 attempts and make 20 of 30 free throws.

Jim Tridico, 5-10 center, led Chester's attack with nine points, while Bob Myers and Kelse Johnson collected seven each.

Starting for Wellsville were regulars Baldwin, Ed Nelson, 6-3; Forrest Harris, 6-3; Jim Powell, 5-10, and Andy Dash, 5-10. They built up a fast lead by using a full-court pressing defense to

Wellsville Cage Game Reset For Feb. 23

Wellsville High's game with Pittsburgh Central Catholic, originally scheduled Jan. 26, has been postponed to Feb. 23, at Wellsville, Don Lowe, faculty manager, announced. The change was required because Central had inadvertently arranged for two games that night. The Tigers will thus have an open date Jan. 26.

Beaver Local Slapped With 7th At Toronto

Toronto spelled out Beaver Local's seventh loss of the season by coming up with an easy 60-38 victory Friday night at Toronto.

Coach Tom McCall's Beavers, winners of one game, trailed the entire time last night, falling behind 17-6 at the first quarter pole, 35-16 at halftime and 51-26 at the conclusion of the third frame.

There were no outstanding scorers for the Red Knights who showed 10 players breaking into the point column. Lee Graubner ner was the only Red Knight in the double figures with 11.

Beaver Local, badly lacking a scoring punch since the Red and White only found the range for 12 fielders, was paced by sophomore Dennis Horger's eight points. Ron Deering added seven.

Toronto also gained the nod in the reserve game, 51-31.

Truck Driver's Jailed In Cage Bribe Attempt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Los Angeles truck driver has been jailed on suspicion of offering a University of Washington basketball player $1,000 to throw a game with the University of Southern California.

But David Donahue, arrested Friday night outside the Sports Arena, says he was "just playing around" when he made the offer to Washington guard Larry Sharp.

But, under the law, making such an offer would be a crime whatever the intent. And Donahue, about 25, was booked on suspicion of offering a bribe to an athlete—a felony.

Sharp did not start for Washington Friday night but played about 20 minutes and scored one point. Southern California won the game 64-61.

Sharp went to his coach, John Grayson, and Grayson contacted Southern California Athletic Director Jess Hill. They went outside with an officer and found Donahue was still there. He was arrested.

When the football season ended at Syracuse, sophomores Jim Nance and Gerry Everling turned to wrestling.

Lisbon Wins 7th, Stage Set For Loop Showdown

Lisbon's Blue Devils bid to continue unbeaten in Tri-County League play tonight after polishing off Poland Friday night, 55-45.

Scoring their fourth straight loop victory, Coach Gary Pike's Devils led all the way in trimming Poland at Poland.

They entertain Columbiana tonight in a battle of Tri-County League unbeatens.

Three starters hit in double figures against Poland as Lisbon bettered its record overall at 7-1.

Craig Pannier, veteran forward, led the attack with 15 points, while big Larry McPherson, 6-3 center, hit 14 and guard Ron Crosser, 12.

Gary Walter and Bob Lindberg hit 10 points each for Poland.

Poland's reserves won the preliminary game, 36-31, over Lisbon.

Lakers Get Past Wilt, Warriors 6th Time In Row

That Pacific Coast rivalry in the National Basketball Association is turning into a runaway for Los Angeles' streaking Lakers.

Putting on a second half surge Friday night, the Lakers knocked off the San Francisco Warriors 134-129. The victory was the eighth straight for Los Angeles and gave the Lakers a perfect 6-for-6 against San Francisco this season—the Warriors' first on the West Coast.

Elsewhere in the NBA, subs John Havlicek and Frank Ramsey played key roles as the Boston Celtics whipped the Syracuse Nats 134-117, and the Detroit Pistons outlasted the Chicago Zephyrs 116-112.

Wilt Chamberlain broke his own Cow Palace record with 67 points and the Warriors led by as many as 18 points—but the Lakers proved too hot to hold off.

The result boosted the Lakers' Western Division lead to six games over St. Louis and dropped San Francisco to fourth, one-half game behind Detroit.

Clippers Turn In Frigid 1st Half Before Winning

COLUMBIANA — Coach Rich Berryman's Clippers came up with a frigid first half and received a big scare from Minerva before coming out on top with a 46-40 victory here Friday night to remain unbeaten in Tri-County action.

In the first half, Columbiana only hit on six of 35 tries from the field and it took sophomore Phil Burbick to pull the Clippers through on a night when the usual big guns were silenced.

The 6-foot-2 Burbick tallied 18 points to lead the attack while mainstays Dale Murphy and Jim Ward could only combine for four and seven points respectively. Fred Gosney added 10 to the attack.

Baxter's 14 paced Minerva.

Newell Five Given Scare Before Salineville Bows

Newell wrapped up the first half of its regular season schedule Friday night by outlasting Salineville, 68-60, in a free-scoring battle at the Salineville gymnasium.

Coach John Robison's Vikings arrived at the midway point with a flashy 9-1 record, but only after beating back a determined fourth-quarter rally by the winless Indians.

Leading by 20 points at the end of three periods, the Vikings were forced to settle for a less decisive conquest after Salineville finished fast by outscoring them, 21 points to nine.

Jenkins led the rally of Coach Al Girone's Indians, hitting 10 points in the fourth quarter.

Balanced scoring once again kept Newell on the winning trail, with four of five starters collecting double figures.

Johnson poured in 22 points for Newell to take scoring honors for the night, while Franczek hit 16, Sam Simmons, 12, and Ferrell 11.

Leading Salineville's attack was Stewart, who finished with 16 points, while Jenkins had 14, Pitts 13 and Carter 10. The Indians absorbed their seventh straight defeat and take on Springfield tonight at home.

In the preliminary, the Salineville reserves romped to a 48-28 victory over Newell. Mervin Jones had 14 points and Ron Lewis 12 for the winners, while Daugherty had eight for Newell.

E. Palestine Tripped At Charity Line

LOUISVILLE — Foul shots decided the verdict as East Palestine High bowed to Louisville, 54-45, here Friday night.

The Bulldogs outscored their Tri-County League foe from the floor, 18-to-17, but mustered only nine points at the free throw line to 20 by Louisville.

Louisville was on top at each quarter break and used 22 points by Gadieux to help sway the decision.

High - scoring Dave Watt of East Palestine had one of his less spectacular games, delivering only seven points and fouling out in the last quarter. He had been averaging 17.2 a game until last night.

Bob Dickey took over and led East Palestine with 15 points. Mike Smotrilla had 10.

Showdown Slated With N. Brighton

By ANDY NUZZO

Fine defensive performances are becoming a habit for the Midland Leopards. On Friday night, Hank Kuzma's five stuck to their old habit and added a fast - breaking offense to run roughshod over the Freedom Bulldogs, 69-34, before a full house on the losers' hardwood.

New Brighton 53, Monaca 47
Beaver 57, Riverside 43
Rochester 65, Hopewell 52

The win was the third consecutive for Midland is Section 8 play this season and extended their section winning skein to 20 games. Freedom suffered its second setback against one victory in section play.

The stage is now set for the first showdown battle in the section when Midland entertains the New Brighton Lions on Tuesday evening. The Lions copped their third straight section win by defeating the Monaca Indians, 53-47, at Monaca Friday night.

The ball - hawking tatics of the Leopards enabled them to intercept many Freedom passes. Midland put the game on ice in the third period. Midway through the period, leading 39-23, Hank Kuzma sent his squad into a half-court press that completely baffled Freedom. The Leopards outscored Freedom, 15-3, to take an unsurmountable 54-26 margin into the final quarter of play.

Four Midland starters scored in double figures. Leading the way for the Leopards was Ray Hoppa, who cut the cords for 18 points on nine field goals.

With the Freedom defense concentrating on the Leopard center, Bill Sallis, the 5-10 Hoppa was in the open most of the night and he responded by hitting sinking his fine jump shot from all points on the court.

Sallis, Sim Hill and Norman Vanlier finished the game with 11 points apiece. Sallis, who was ejected from the game early in the fourth quarter because of difference of opinion with Freedom center George Katekovich under the Midland basket, came through with three fielders and five of eight from the free throw line. He was the big man on the boards for Midland, pulling down 14 rebounds.

Hill chipped in with three fielders and five charity tosses. He gathered in eight rebounds. Vanlier, playing another fine all-around floor game, dropped in five field goals and one of two free throws.

Rod Alston scored only five points for the Leopards, but did fine work on the boards, hauling in 12 stray shots.

Don Marchionda led Gene Cercone's Bulldogs with eight markers on two fielders and four of seven free throws. All of his points came in the second half.

Katekovich added seven points to the Bulldog total, swishing two field goals and three of seven foul tosses. He led all rebounders in the game with 16.

Midland hit 35 per cent of their shots, sinking 27 of 77 attempts. For the second straight game the Leopard defense held its opponent to less than 20 per cent from the field. The Bulldogs made only 12 of 67 attempts for 17 per cent.

Two sparkling offensive plays were turned in by Vanlier and Hoppa in the third quarter. Vanlier drove down the right side of the foul lane and sank a beautiful driving lay - up for Midland's 43rd point.

Hoppa accounted for the 52nd Leopard marker when he stuffed in a rebound shot. A Freedom player was coming down with a stray Leopard shot when Hoppa went up, took the ball from the grasp of the Bulldog player and flipped it through the nets.

In the reserve tilt, Ed Olkowski's Leopard jayvees routed the Freedom reserves, 51-33. Ray Oliver led the Leopards with 18 points. Chuck Bashaar was high for Freedom with eight.

Two-Way Tie Continues In Little Potters Loop

McNutt's Insurance and Potters Bank continued in a two-way dogfight for first place in the Little Potters 7th Grade League as each posted their third straight victory Friday.

Potters Bank came from behind to top Eason's Insurance, 33-27, with Rex Campbell hitting for 15 big points. Jones and Fullmer tossed in 12 each for the losers.

McNutt's pounded First National, 25-12, for victory No. 3. McKinnon's seven points paved the way while Hendricks and Gatrell had three apiece for the Bankers.

Dawson's posted its second win in three starts, downing Curran's, 23-7. Bruce Christian tallied eight points to take honors while Fredricks added three for Curran's.

Crestview Claims 7th In Overtime

LORDSTOWN — An overtime thriller went to Crestview, 58-57, here Friday night before an excited audience.

The victory over Lordstown town goes down in the books as Crestview's seventh win in eight starts and sixth in a row.

Tom Scott of Lordstown scored a fielder at the buzzer to tie the game, 53-53, and cause the extra period.

Crestview didn't score from the field in the overtime, but dropped in five fouls. The winning edge came with 15 seconds remaining in the overtime when Dave Baker calmly converted two free throws for a 58-53 edge.

As the buzzer sounded, ending the overtime, Lordstown scored again but fell one point shy.

Big Jim Kress and Allan Coburn had to blend their scoring talents to pull the victory out for Coach Bruce Webber.

Kress, the district's top scorer, popped in 19 while Coburn had one of his better nights with 17.

Don Koches and Thomas paced Lordstown with 16 and 14 respectively.

South Siders Beaten, 44-18 In Wrestling

South Side's wrestling team suffered its second setback in three matches in taking a 44-18 defeat on the chin Friday night at Burgettstown.

Three South Side wrestlers remained undefeated though when Joe Tellish, the Rams 154-pounder, recorded a pin in 1:15; Joe Barrett (165) wrestled to a draw and Wilbert King (180) won on a default.

South Side's only other victory came when Ron Halstead pinned his opponent in 2:41 of the 95-pound match.

Burgettstown took eight of the 12 divisions.

South Side visits East Liverpool Thursday afternoon at 4:15.

Titans Ousted By Grambling In Cage Standings

Grambling of Louisiana has taken over the top spot in the Associated Press small college basketball poll, replacing Westminster, Pa.

The Louisiana team, in third place last week although it got the most first place votes, collected three firsts and a total of 54 points in the latest balloting by eight sports writers and broadcasters on the AP's regional board.

Westminster picked up 52½ points while Wittenberg of Ohio fell one notch to third with 48½ points. One selector could not decide between Westminster and Wittenberg and split his first place vote.

Ex-Solicitor Cleared In Cage Scandal Case

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Former solicitor Lester Chalmers has been cleared of any wrong doing in the granting of immunity to former players who turned state's evidence in the recent basketball game-fixing trial.

Chalmers' successor, W. G. Ransdell, said Friday he would not seek indictments against Chalmers or the players, Anton Muehlbauer, Stan Niewierowski and Don Gallagher, all formerly of North Carolina State College here.

Ransdell said it was within Chalmers' discretion to grant immunity to the players for testifying against men charged with offering bribes to fix college games.

Boxer In Comeback After 8-Story Fall

NEW YORK (AP)—Nearly a year after he fell eight floors on a construction job and was "a fraction from death," former lightweight contender Frankie Ryff is waging a tremendous comeback.

"He's coming along," said his wife Marie today, "but he's a long way from being well. Still it's a miracle that he's even living."

Ryff, who will be 30 in April, was working on a building being constructed in Rockefeller Center and training for a second comeback at the time of the accident last Jan. 19.

"He was in a coma for three months," said Mrs. Ryff. "Doctors told me he was a fraction away from death."

Fight Results

LOS ANGELES —Johnny Smith of Los Angeles, 157¼, knocked out Gene Bryant of Tucson, Ariz., 161, in third round of scheduled 10-rounder.

MILAN, Italy — European flyweight champion Salvatore Burruni of Italy decisioned Carlos Zayas of Holyoke, Mass., in 10-rounder. Burruni weighed 111, Zayas 111½.

Arizona State Breaks Fast In New Loop

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The speedy Arizona State Sun Devils have broken fast from the barrier in the new Western Athletic Conference and the way they're going this season it will be mighty hard to stop them.

The Sun Devils, with a place in the sun as the No. 3 team in the latest Associated Press college basketball poll, defeated Brigham Young 89-84 Friday night in their WAC opener. It was Arizona State's 13th victory against a single defeat. The loss was to Wichita, 92-90 in overtime, Dec. 17.

In other leading games, Cotton Nash scored 17 points in the second half and led Kentucky to a 63-56 Southeastern Conference victory over Louisiana State; Oregon State rolled over Stanford 65-58; Southern California edged Washington 64-61 in a Big Six game and Penn defeated Brown 87-77 in the Ivy League.

Elsewhere, Tennessee capitalized on Tulane's mistakes for a 77-70 victory in the Southeastern Conference; VMI, after trailing by 21 points at halftime, staged a strong comeback to defeat Richmond 79-77 in the Southern Conference; Yale edged Princeton 62-61 and Columbia beat Harvard 51-44 in the Ivy League; New Mexico downed Wyoming 53-49 and Utah defeated Arizona 52-50 in the WAC; Idaho squeezed past Oregon 62-61 in overtime; Tony Abbott scored 26 points and led La Salle to a 78-61 victory over Manhattan and Penn State fought off Colgate's second half rally to win 78-70.

Daniels, Alongi Clash Tonight In Televised Fight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Daniels and Tony Alongi, two good, tall heavyweight prospects who have been beaten only once each —on cuts—meet tonight in a television 10-rounder at Sunnyside Garden.

Daniels, 25, a 6-foot-4 barber, is more advanced of the two. The belting Brooklynite is ranked seventh among the contenders by the World Boxing Association on his 17-1 record, including eight knockouts.

Billy's only defeat was to undefeated Cassius Clay in a television fight last May 10. Daniels was stopped in the seventh on cuts but not until he had twice rocked cocky Cassius with rights to the head. Clay had boasted that "Daniels will fall in seven." Daniels wasn't even floored.

Alongi, 23 and 6-foot-3, has a 29-1 record, including 17 knockouts.

The handsome, Paterson, N.J., boxer-puncher's only loss was on a butt that opened a big cut on his forehead. That happened in the 10th against Rodolfo Diaz of Argentina at Miami Beach last Feb. 7. Alongi was ahead on points going into the last round.

The bout, starting at 10 p.m., EST, will be telecast (ABC) from the small club across the East River from Manhattan. Madison Square Garden, which subsidizes Sunnyside, is occupied by an ice show.

Guerrier Nets 29 As Leetonia Wins

LEETONIA — Senior Frank Guerrier put on a 29-point performance for the home crowd Friday night as Leetonia waltzed to a 74-57 verdict over winless Sebring.

Guerrier, with seven field goals, dropped in 15 of 20 free throws to spark Coach Len Batcha's five to its fourth win in seven games. Leetonia also stands 3-1 in Tri-County action.

After a 26-20 halftime lead, Leetonia broke the game wide open with a 30-point third quarter that left Sebring behind, 56-35.

Akenhead and Schneider paced Sebring with 11 each.

The reserve game went to Sebring, 45-41.

Paul Brown Claims His Contract Was Breached

CLEVELAND (AP) — Paul E. Brown says his long-term contract with the Cleveland Browns was breached when he was removed as coach and general manager and that the matter now is in the hands of his lawyers.

Brown, removed by Arthur Modell, owner and president of the professional football club, remains as a vice president of the Browns. But he said Friday his contract was for "my services as coach and general manager" and has six years to run.

Told of Brown's statement, Modell remarked that if "these statements concerning alleged breach of contract . . . are accurate, Paul is in violation of our agreement made at an all-day meeting with our attorneys on Wednesday."

Brown said he had no idea what action his attorneys might take.

"So far as I'm concerned, I'm still under contract. Under the terms of that contract I can't seek another job, and no National League team would be allowed to dicker with me. No other club could even approach me."

Modell said Brown had been offered a contract settlement involving a cash payment and other payments over a period of years. Brown said, however, no satisfactory offer had been made and "his offer centered around repayment of money that already was mine under a pension and deferred pay program."

The Browns reportedly paid Brown $60,000 to $80,000 a year.

West Slight Favorite In NFL Bowl Sunday

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A pair of explosive offenses and head-banging defenses go at each other here Sunday in the 13th annual all-star Pro Bowl of the National Football League with the Western Conference slightly favored because. . . well, this guy Lombardi just doesn't lose much anymore.

Vince Lombardi of the two-time champion Green Bay Packers is the head coach of a West squad that seeks its ninth victory and fourth in a row in the series that has become a season-ending fixture at the 100,000-seat Coliseum.

To make sure the winning habit rubs off, the Packer boss has eight of his employes spread among the 33-man Western squad, led by player of the year Jim Taylor, his fullback; quarterback Bart Starr, and three offensive linemen who make his attack go, Jim Ringo, Forest Gregg and Jerry Kramer.

They're only stars among many stars and the Eastern Conference, led by coach of the year Allie Sherman of the New York Giants, has a bundle too, including passer Y. A. Tittle of the Giants, a solid band of receivers, and fullback Jim Brown of Cleveland.

But the experts have concluded that a man like Lombardi, who has coached 22 games this season and won 21, must be on a streak. They've decided there's about a field goal's difference between West and East.

The Los Angeles area will be blacked out of the nationwide telecast by the National Broadcasting Company. Kickoff is 4 p.m., EST.

Oklahoma State Picks New Football Coach

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Phil Cutchin, 42-year-old right hand man of Alabama football Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, was named Friday night to take over the football reins at Oklahoma State University.

Cutchin, who has assisted Bryant for the past 11 seasons, was given a four-year contract at $16,500 a year.

Cutchin's selection ended a six-week search by OSU officials to fill a coaching vacancy created Dec. 4 when Cliff Speegle was fired.

Local Lady Bowler Turns In 256 Game

Jane Jarvis, a member of the First Church of Christ team in the East Liverpool Church Women's League, bowled a 256 game and a 529 series Thursday night.

Jerris Wilson, secretary of the East Liverpool Women's Bowling Association, said this is one of the highest scores turned in by a woman bowler in recent years.

The Los Angeles Angels include Lee and George Thomas and Eddie and Bob Sadowski. They are not related.

2 Ohioans In Top 10 Of Bowling Classic

CHICAGO (AP)—Two Ohioans hold spots in the top 10 as the $400,000 Peterson Bowling Classic nears completion of its first month of competition.

Tom Lindemann of Port Clinton is fifth with 1,564 and Paul Wells of Fremont seventh with 1,548 pins. Charles Kuhn, Breese, Ill., is tops with 1,626 for his eight games in the tourney which runs into July.

Midland Romps By Freedom In 3rd Loop Win, 69-34

By ANDY NUZZO

Fine defensive performances are becoming a habit for the Midland Leopards. On Friday night, Hank Kuzma's five stuck to their old habit and added a fast - breaking offense to run roughshod over the Freedom Bulldogs, 69-34, before a full house on the losers' hardwood.

Section 8

	W	L

Hopewell	0	3

Friday Results

Midland 69, Freedom 34
New Brighton 53, Monaca 47
Beaver 57, Riverside 43
Rochester 65, Hopewell 52

The win was the third consecutive for Midland is Section 8 play this season and extended their section winning skein to 20 games. Freedom suffered its second setback against one victory in section play.

The stage is now set for the first showdown battle in the section when Midland entertains the New Brighton Lions on Tuesday evening. The Lions copped their third straight section win by defeating the Monaca Indians, 53-47, at Monaca Friday night.

The ball - hawking tatics of the Leopards enabled them to intercept many Freedom passes. Midland put the game on ice in the third period. Midway through the period, leading 39-23, Hank Kuzma sent his squad into a half-court press that completely baffled Freedom. The Leopards outscored Freedom, 15-3, to take an unsurmountable 54-26 margin into the final quarter of play.

Four Midland starters scored in double figures. Leading the way for the Leopards was Ray Hoppa, who cut the cords for 18 points on nine field goals.

With the Freedom defense concentrating on the Leopard center, Bill Sallis, the 5-10 Hoppa was in the open most of the night and he responded by hitting sinking his fine jump shot from all points on the court.

Sallis, Sim Hill and Norman Vanlier finished the game with 11 points apiece. Sallis, who was ejected from the game early in the fourth quarter because of difference of opinion with Freedom center George Katekovich under the Midland basket, came through with three fielders and five of eight from the free throw line. He was the big man on the boards for Midland, pulling down 14 rebounds.

Hill chipped in with three fielders and five charity tosses. He gathered in eight rebounds. Vanlier, playing another fine all-around floor game, dropped in five field goals and one of two free throws.

Rod Alston scored only five points for the Leopards, but did fine work on the boards, hauling in 12 stray shots.

Don Marchionda led Gene Cercone's Bulldogs with eight markers on two fielders and four of seven free throws. All of his points came in the second half.

Katekovich added seven points to the Bulldog total, swishing two field goals and three of seven foul tosses. He led all rebounders in the game with 16.

Midland hit 35 per cent of their shots, sinking 27 of 77 attempts. For the second straight game the Leopard defense held its opponent to less than 20 per cent from the field. The Bulldogs made only 12 of 67 attempts for 17 per cent.

Two sparkling offensive plays were turned in by Vanlier and Hoppa in the third quarter. Vanlier drove down the right side of the foul lane and sank a beautiful driving lay - up for Midland's 43rd point.

Hoppa accounted for the 52nd Leopard marker when he stuffed in a rebound shot. A Freedom player was coming down with a stray Leopard shot when Hoppa went up, took the ball from the grasp of the Bulldog player and flipped it through the nets.

In the reserve tilt, Ed Olkowski's Leopard jayvees routed the Freedom reserves, 51-33. Ray Oliver led the Leopards with 18 points. Chuck Bashaar was high for Freedom with eight.

Two-Way Tie Continues In Little Potters Loop

McNutt's Insurance and Potters Bank continued in a two-way dogfight for first place in the Little Potters 7th Grade League as each posted their third straight victory Friday.

Potters Bank came from behind to top Eason's Insurance, 33-27, with Rex Campbell hitting for 15 big points. Jones and Fullmer tossed in 12 each for the losers.

McNutt's pounded First National, 25-12, for victory No. 3. McKinnon's seven points paved the way while Hendricks and Gatrell had three apiece for the Bankers.

Dawson's posted its second win in three starts, downing Curran's, 23-7. Bruce Christian tallied eight points to take honors while Fredricks added three for Curran's.

Crestview Claims 7th In Overtime

LORDSTOWN — An overtime thriller went to Crestview, 58-57, here Friday night before an excited audience.

The victory over Lordstown town goes down in the books as Crestview's seventh win in eight starts and sixth in a row.

Tom Scott of Lordstown scored a fielder at the buzzer to tie the game, 53-53, and cause the extra period.

Crestview didn't score from the field in the overtime, but dropped in five fouls. The winning edge came with 15 seconds remaining in the overtime when Dave Baker calmly converted two free throws for a 58-53 edge.

As the buzzer sounded, ending the overtime, Lordstown scored again but fell one point shy.

Big Jim Kress and Allan Coburn had to blend their scoring talents to pull the victory out for Coach Bruce Webber.

Kress, the district's top scorer, popped in 19 while Coburn had one of his better nights with 17.

Don Koches and Thomas paced Lordstown with 16 and 14 respectively.

South Siders Beaten, 44-18 In Wrestling

South Side's wrestling team suffered its second setback in three matches in taking a 44-18 defeat on the chin Friday night at Burgettstown.

Three South Side wrestlers remained undefeated though when Joe Tellish, the Rams 154-pounder, recorded a pin in 1:15; Joe Barrett (165) wrestled to a draw and Wilbert King (180) won on a default.

South Side's only other victory came when Ron Halstead pinned his opponent in 2:41 of the 95-pound match.

Burgettstown took eight of the 12 divisions.

South Side visits East Liverpool Thursday afternoon at 4:15.

Titans Ousted By Grambling In Cage Standings

Grambling of Louisiana has taken over the top spot in the Associated Press small college basketball poll, replacing Westminster, Pa.

The Louisiana team, in third place last week although it got the most first place votes, collected three firsts and a total of 54 points in the latest balloting by eight sports writers and broadcasters on the AP's regional board.

Westminster picked up 52½ points while Wittenberg of Ohio fell one notch to third with 48½ points. One selector could not decide between Westminster and Wittenberg and split his first place vote.

Ex-Solicitor Cleared In Cage Scandal Case

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Former solicitor Lester Chalmers has been cleared of any wrong doing in the granting of immunity to former players who turned state's evidence in the recent basketball game-fixing trial.

Chalmers' successor, W. G. Ransdell, said Friday he would not seek indictments against Chalmers or the players, Anton Muehlbauer, Stan Niewierowski and Don Gallagher, all formerly of North Carolina State College here.

Ransdell said it was within Chalmers' discretion to grant immunity to the players for testifying against men charged with offering bribes to fix college games.

Boxer In Comeback After 8-Story Fall

NEW YORK (AP)—Nearly a year after he fell eight floors on a construction job and was "a fraction from death," former lightweight contender Frankie Ryff is waging a tremendous comeback.

"He's coming along," said his wife Marie today, "but he's a long way from being well. Still it's a miracle that he's even living."

Ryff, who will be 30 in April, was working on a building being constructed in Rockefeller Center and training for a second comeback at the time of the accident last Jan. 19.

"He was in a coma for three months," said Mrs. Ryff. "Doctors told me he was a fraction away from death."

Fight Results

LOS ANGELES —Johnny Smith of Los Angeles, 157¼, knocked out Gene Bryant of Tucson, Ariz., 161, in third round of scheduled 10-rounder.

MILAN, Italy — European flyweight champion Salvatore Burruni of Italy decisioned Carlos Zayas of Holyoke, Mass., in 10-rounder. Burruni weighed 111, Zayas 111½.

Arizona State Breaks Fast In New Loop

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The speedy Arizona State Sun Devils have broken fast from the barrier in the new Western Athletic Conference and the way they're going this season it will be mighty hard to stop them.

The Sun Devils, with a place in the sun as the No. 3 team in the latest Associated Press college basketball poll, defeated Brigham Young 89-84 Friday night in their WAC opener. It was Arizona State's 13th victory against a single defeat. The loss was to Wichita, 92-90 in overtime, Dec. 17.

In other leading games, Cotton Nash scored 17 points in the second half and led Kentucky to a 63-56 Southeastern Conference victory over Louisiana State; Oregon State rolled over Stanford 65-58; Southern California edged Washington 64-61 in a Big Six game and Penn defeated Brown 87-77 in the Ivy League.

Elsewhere, Tennessee capitalized on Tulane's mistakes for a 77-70 victory in the Southeastern Conference; VMI, after trailing by 21 points at halftime, staged a strong comeback to defeat Richmond 79-77 in the Southern Conference; Yale edged Princeton 62-61 and Columbia beat Harvard 51-44 in the Ivy League; New Mexico downed Wyoming 53-49 and Utah defeated Arizona 52-50 in the WAC; Idaho squeezed past Oregon 62-61 in overtime; Tony Abbott scored 26 points and led La Salle to a 78-61 victory over Manhattan and Penn State fought off Colgate's second half rally to win 78-70.

Daniels, Alongi Clash Tonight In Televised Fight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Daniels and Tony Alongi, two good, tall heavyweight prospects who have been beaten only once each —on cuts—meet tonight in a television 10-rounder at Sunnyside Garden.

Daniels, 25, a 6-foot-4 barber, is more advanced of the two. The belting Brooklynite is ranked seventh among the contenders by the World Boxing Association on his 17-1 record, including eight knockouts.

Billy's only defeat was to undefeated Cassius Clay in a television fight last May 10. Daniels was stopped in the seventh on cuts but not until he had twice rocked cocky Cassius with rights to the head. Clay had boasted that "Daniels will fall in seven." Daniels wasn't even floored.

Alongi, 23 and 6-foot-3, has a 29-1 record, including 17 knockouts.

The handsome, Paterson, N.J., boxer-puncher's only loss was on a butt that opened a big cut on his forehead. That happened in the 10th against Rodolfo Diaz of Argentina at Miami Beach last Feb. 7. Alongi was ahead on points going into the last round.

The bout, starting at 10 p.m., EST, will be telecast (ABC) from the small club across the East River from Manhattan. Madison Square Garden, which subsidizes Sunnyside, is occupied by an ice show.

Guerrier Nets 29 As Leetonia Wins

LEETONIA — Senior Frank Guerrier put on a 29-point performance for the home crowd Friday night as Leetonia waltzed to a 74-57 verdict over winless Sebring.

Guerrier, with seven field goals, dropped in 15 of 20 free throws to spark Coach Len Batcha's five to its fourth win in seven games. Leetonia also stands 3-1 in Tri-County action.

After a 26-20 halftime lead, Leetonia broke the game wide open with a 30-point third quarter that left Sebring behind, 56-35.

Akenhead and Schneider paced Sebring with 11 each.

The reserve game went to Sebring, 45-41.

Paul Brown Claims His Contract Was Breached

CLEVELAND (AP) — Paul E. Brown says his long-term contract with the Cleveland Browns was breached when he was removed as coach and general manager and that the matter now is in the hands of his lawyers.

Brown, removed by Arthur Modell, owner and president of the professional football club, remains as a vice president of the Browns. But he said Friday his contract was for "my services as coach and general manager" and has six years to run.

Told of Brown's statement, Modell remarked that if "these statements concerning alleged breach of contract . . . are accurate, Paul is in violation of our agreement made at an all-day meeting with our attorneys on Wednesday."

Brown said he had no idea what action his attorneys might take.

"So far as I'm concerned, I'm still under contract. Under the terms of that contract I can't seek another job, and no National League team would be allowed to dicker with me. No other club could even approach me."

Modell said Brown had been offered a contract settlement involving a cash payment and other payments over a period of years. Brown said, however, no satisfactory offer had been made and "his offer centered around repayment of money that already was mine under a pension and deferred pay program."

The Browns reportedly paid Brown $60,000 to $80,000 a year.

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A pair of explosive offenses and head-banging defenses go at each other here Sunday in the 13th annual all-star Pro Bowl of the National Football League with the Western Conference slightly favored because . . . well, this guy Lombardi just doesn't lose much anymore.

Vince Lombardi of the two-time champion Green Bay Packers is the head coach of a West squad that seeks its ninth victory and fourth in a row in the series that has become a season-ending fixture at the 100,000-seat Coliseum.

To make sure the winning habit rubs off, the Packer boss has eight of his employes spread among the 33-man Western squad, led by player of the year Jim Taylor, his fullback; quarterback Bart Starr, and three offensive linemen who make his attack go, Jim Ringo, Forest Gregg and Jerry Kramer.

They're only stars among many stars and the Eastern Conference, led by coach of the year Allie Sherman of the New York Giants, has a bundle too, including passer Y. A. Tittle of the Giants, a solid band of receivers, and fullback Jim Brown of Cleveland.

But the experts have concluded that a man like Lombardi, who has coached 22 games this season and won 21, must be on a streak. They've decided there's about a field goal's difference between West and East.

The Los Angeles area will be blacked out of the nationwide telecast by the National Broadcasting Company. Kickoff is 4 p.m., EST.

Oklahoma State Picks New Football Coach

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Phil Cutchin, 42-year-old right hand man of Alabama football Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, was named Friday night to take over the football reins at Oklahoma State University.

Cutchin, who has assisted Bryant for the past 11 seasons, was given a four-year contract at $16,500 a year.

Cutchin's selection ended a six-week search by OSU officials to fill a coaching vacancy created Dec. 4 when Cliff Speegle was fired.

2 Ohioans In Top 10 Of Bowling Classic

CHICAGO (AP)—Two Ohioans hold spots in the top 10 as the $400,000 Peterson Bowling Classic nears completion of its first month of competition.

Tom Lindemann of Port Clinton is fifth with 1,564 and Paul Wells of Fremont seventh with 1,548 pins. Charles Kuhn, Breese, Ill., is tops with 1,626 for his eight games in the tourney which runs into July.

Local Lady Bowler Turns In 256 Game

Jane Jarvis, a member of the First Church of Christ team in the East Liverpool Church Women's League, bowled a 256 game and a 529 series Thursday night.

Jerris Wilson, secretary of the East Liverpool Women's Bowling Association, said this is one of the highest scores turned in by a woman bowler in recent years.

The Los Angeles Angels include Lee and George Thomas and Eddie and Bob Sadowski. They are not related.

County Legion Advised $948 Donated For Veterans Gifts

The Columbiana County American Legion Council was advised Friday night that $948.22 was contributed to the Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave Fund by the county units and auxiliaries.

The council met at Post 574 at North Georgetown with Albert Hayes of Post 290 of Columbiana, county commander, presiding.

Dale Brenner of Hanoverton Post 684, county chairman, reported on proceeds for the fund, used to purchase gifts for hospitalized veterans and families at Christmas.

John Bender of East Sparta Post 244, district chairman, reported the district exceeded the quota with several posts still to report. He emphasized that contributions will be accepted up to April 1, as the money collected this year will be used for next Christmas.

Hayes reported county membership of 2,367 with only 339 members needed to reach the quota.

He also reported plans complete for the annual county legion birthday dinner to be held at Valley Golf Club March 9, with Stuart Lugenbuhl, department commander, as guest speaker.

James Cregar of East Liverpool Post 374, second vice - commander, reported that the county legion family picnic would be held at Valley Park Sunday, Aug. 14. He also said the district legion bowling tournament would be held at Salem this weekend, at the Saxon Lanes.

East Liverpool Post 374 joined the county quota group, having met its quota of 630 members by Jan. 1. It is the largest post in the county and the second largest in the 10th District.

The council authorized a $10 donation to the March of Dimes.

Jerry Knight of Massillion Post 221, 10th District second vice commander, reminded that posts interested in sponsoring the trap shoot must notify him not later than Sunday as action will be taken at the Legion conference tomorrow at Salem.

Dwight Bush of North Georgetown Post and District first vice commander, gave a brief summary on plans for the conference at Salem. There will be schools on junior activities, retivities and membership in the forenoon with the business session in the afternoon.

Don Gruenbaune of Marysville, department first vice commander, will be guest speaker.

Next county council meeting is Feb. 8 at the Hanoverton Post.

2 Salem Men Given Driving Suspensions

LISBON — Two Salem Area men received suspensions of their driver's licenses for one year under the state's 12 - point demerit system Friday.

Common Pleas Court Judge Raymond S. Buzzard suspended the permits after a report from the State Department of Motor Vehicles showed each had a total of 12 points within a two-year period.

William H. Hurst, 53, had two convictions for driving while intoxicated, one July 24, 1961, and other Nov. 11, 1962.

John Pascola, 63, had two convictions for driving while his license was under revocation, one Oct. 12, 1961, the other Nov. 19, 1962.

Land Purchased For Truck Depot

Purchase of a tract of land on the River Rd. for establishment of a truck depot was announced today by David Wilkinson of Wooster St.

The tract, site of the former Barlow Block Works, was purchased from George Farrell, who formerly operated the Midway Oil Co. on the adjoining ground.

The transaction was handled by the W. E. Kaiser Agency.

Kaiser said Wilkinson, who now leases seven rigs to haul steel, expects to increase his business.

Neither Driver Hurt In County Car Crash

No one was injured in a collision of cars operated by a Beaver Falls woman and an East Palestine area man on Route 14 early today, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A car operated by Virginia Campbell, 27, of Beaver Falls has been pulled out of a ditch by another vehicle which was stopped in the west - bound lane, officers said.

Richard Dyke, 42, of East Palestine R. D., headed west, passed the first vehicle, then cut back into the west lane and his car struck the woman's auto. Dyke, officers said, did not see the second auto.

The crash occurred at 1:35 a.m. about six miles east of Columbiana.

In the food field, freeze-drying means first freezing the food, then dehydrating it under a vacuum. If properly sealed, these foods can be stored at room temperatures and will regain their original flavor and texture when prepared.

Hancock 4-H Clubs To Hear Student Talk On Switzerland

Miss Ruth Keister of Pendleton County, West Virginia's 1962 International Farm Youth Exchange student to Switzerland, will speak on her experiences at a meeting of Hancock County 4-H Clubs Monday night at 7:30 in New Cumberland High School.

Mrs. Ruth McPherson, county extension agent, said the public may attend the first countywide 4-H activity of 1963. A total of 200 heard an IFYE student speak on Germany last year.

A graduate of West Virginia University, Miss Keister was an outstanding 4-H Club member for 11 years. She was a state winner in the bread team demonstration and sewing team demonstration. As a National 4-H Clothing winner, she received a $300 scholarship and a trip to Chicago.

The speaker will tell of her stay in Switzerland where she lived on six different farms to learn of Swiss life, customs and traditions.

Dimes contributed by Hancock County boys and girls helped to sponsor her to Switzerland to study.

In a yearend report, Mrs. McPherson said three new clubs were organized in the county in 1962 — Maple Manor of Kings Creek, the Centennials of Pleasant Valley and the Hancock County 4-H Saddle Club. There are 20 clubs at present.

There were many activities for club members during the year, ranging from a 4-H Roundup attended by 400, to summer camp at Tomlinson Run State Park.

There was one new Farm Women's club organized — Greenbriar Homemakers of Weirton — bringing the total to 10. Four quarterly Farm Women's Council meetings were held.

About 9 per cent of people are lefthanded.

County Legion Advised $948 Donated For Veterans Gifts

The Columbiana County American Legion Council was advised Friday night that $948.22 was contributed to the Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave Fund by the county units and auxiliaries.

The council met at Post 574 at North Georgetown with Albert Hayes of Post 290 of Columbiana, county commander, presiding.

Dale Brenner of Hanoverton Post 684, county chairman, reported on proceeds for the fund, used to purchase gifts for hospitalized veterans and families at Christmas.

John Bender of East Sparta Post 244, district chairman, reported the district exceeded the quota with several posts still to report. He emphasized that contributions will be accepted up to April 1, as the money collected this year will be used for next Christmas.

Hayes reported county membership of 2,367 with only 339 members needed to reach the quota.

He also reported plans complete for the annual county legion birthday dinner to be held at Valley Golf Club March 9, with Stuart Lugenbuhl, department commander, as guest speaker.

James Cregar of East Liverpool Post 374, second vice - commander, reported that the county legion family picnic would be held at Valley Park Sunday, Aug. 14. He also said the district legion bowling tournament would be held at Salem this weekend, at the Saxon Lanes.

East Liverpool Post 374 joined the county quota group, having met its quota of 630 members by Jan. 1. It is the largest post in the county and the second largest in the 10th District.

The council authorized a $10 donation to the March of Dimes.

Jerry Knight of Massillon Post 221, 10th District second vice commander, reminded that posts interested in sponsoring the trap shoot must notify him not later than Sunday as action will be taken at the Legion conference tomorrow at Salem.

Dwight Bush of North Georgetown Post and District first vice commander, gave a brief summary on plans for the conference at Salem. There will be schools on junior activities, retivities and membership in the forenoon with the business session in the afternoon.

Don Gruenbaune of Marysville, department first vice commander, will be guest speaker.

Next county council meeting is Feb. 8 at the Hanoverton Post.

2 Salem Men Given Driving Suspensions

LISBON — Two Salem Area men received suspensions of their driver's licenses for one year under the state's 12 - point demerit system Friday.

Common Pleas Court Judge Raymond S. Buzzard suspended the permits after a report from the State Department of Motor Vehicles showed each had a total of 12 points within a two-year period.

William H. Hurst, 53, had two convictions for driving while intoxicated, one July 24, 1961, and other Nov. 11, 1962.

John Pascola, 63, had two convictions for driving while his license was under revocation, one Oct. 12, 1961, the other Nov. 19, 1962.

Land Purchased For Truck Depot

Purchase of a tract of land on the River Rd. for establishment of a truck depot was announced today by David Wilkinson of Wooster St.

The tract, site of the former Barlow Block Works, was purchased from George Farrell, who formerly operated the Midway Oil Co. on the adjoining ground.

The transaction was handled by the W. E. Kaiser Agency.

Kaiser said Wilkinson, who now leases seven rigs to haul steel, expects to increase his business.

Neither Driver Hurt In County Car Crash

No one was injured in a collision of cars operated by a Beaver Falls woman and an East Palestine area man on Route 14 early today, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A car operated by Virginia Campbell, 27, of Beaver Falls has been pulled out of a ditch by another vehicle which was stopped in the west - bound lane, officers said.

Richard Dyke, 42, of East Palestine R. D., headed west, passed the first vehicle, then cut back into the west lane and his car struck the woman's auto. Dyke, officers said, did not see the second auto.

The crash occurred at 1:35 a.m. about six miles east of Columbiana.

In the food field, freeze-drying means first freezing the food, then dehydrating it under a vacuum. If properly sealed, these foods can be stored at room temperatures and will regain their original flavor and texture when prepared.

Hancock 4-H Clubs To Hear Student Talk On Switzerland

Miss Ruth Keister of Pendleton County, West Virginia's 1962 International Farm Youth Exchange student to Switzerland, will speak on her experiences at a meeting of Hancock County 4-H Clubs Monday night at 7:30 in New Cumberland High School.

Mrs. Ruth McPherson, county extension agent, said the public may attend the first countywide 4-H activity of 1963. A total of 200 heard an IFYE student speak on Germany last year.

A graduate of West Virginia University, Miss Keister was an outstanding 4-H Club member for 11 years. She was a state winner in the bread team demonstration and sewing team demonstration. As a National 4-H Clothing winner, she received a $300 scholarship and a trip to Chicago.

The speaker will tell of her stay in Switzerland where she lived on six different farms to learn of Swiss life, customs and traditions.

Dimes contributed by Hancock County boys and girls helped to sponsor her to Switzerland to study.

In a yearend report, Mrs. McPherson said three new clubs were organized in the county in 1962 — Maple Manor of Kings Creek, the Centennials of Pleasant Valley and the Hancock County 4-H Saddle Club. There are 20 clubs at present.

There were many activities for club members during the year, ranging from a 4-H Roundup attended by 400, to summer camp at Tomlinson Run State Park.

There was one new Farm Women's club organized — Greenbriar Homemakers of Weirton — bringing the total to 10. Four quarterly Farm Women's Council meetings were held.

About 9 per cent of people are lefthanded.

Wildcat Strikes Reduce Electric Power In Britain

LONDON (AP)—Britons shivering through their worst winter in memory faced a dim weekend as wildcat strikes reduced electric power throughout the country.

Unofficial strikers in the country's power generating stations are slowing down on the job. By following every rule in the book, they have slowed operations and reduced the amount of power produced. To share it evenly, the authorities reduced the voltage of supplies.

This brought dimmer electric lights, less heat from electric radiators and odd effects on many of the nation's television screens. Some viewers reported they were getting miniature pictures only two or three inches square. Others found their pictures all width and very little height. Many reported getting no pictures at all.

Voltage cuts in London and the surrounding areas kept electric railroad signals on red color and affected switches. It also made cooking on electric ranges a slow job.

To Get Dividend

CINCINNATI (AP)—Shareholders of the Kroger Co. will get their regular quarterly dividend of 27.5 cents per share on March 1, payable to shareholders of record Jan. 25.

Legion Will Hold Ceremonies At Meeting Monday

Obligation of new members and the Ritual of Everlasting for deceased members of the American Legion Post 374 will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at the East End home.

John Herman Jr. of Salem, commander of Salem Post 56, will give the obligation to the new members and conduct the ritual ceremony.

Herman also served as past commander of the Columbiana County American Legion Council and the 10th District and is past Ohio State Legion assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Lunch will be served by the auxiliary of which Mrs. Norma Jean Poynter is president.

City Bus Becomes 'Maternity Express'

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suburban North Olmsted city bus became a "maternity express" when a passenger suddenly reported severe labor pains.

It happened during rush hour Friday morning.

Bus driver John Stanfield, 29, was informed that Mrs. Richard McClenent was having labor pains. He turned quickly and headed for Fairview Park Hospital, about 1½ miles away in the opposite direction.

Less than an hour after arriving at the hospital, Mrs. McClenent, whose husband was with her on the bus, gave birth to a baby girl.

Mother and baby were reported doing well. Hospital authorities said the baby was six weeks premature.

Highlandtown Grange Program Draws 68

Mr. and Mrs. William Carter screened movies of a visit to Kentucky and Tennessee, the annual homecoming celebration of Highlandtown volunteer firemen the past summer, and of a 4-H picnic when the Highlandtown Grange met Thursday night in the Grange Hall.

Sixty - eight attended, and Robert McPherson, master, conducted brief business. Lunch was served with the home economics committee aiding.

Next meeting is Jan. 24 when the Willow Grove Grange will present the fourth degree and Highlandtown the third degree.

Dr. Sabin Due Plaque

BETHEL, Ohio (AP) — The Southwest Ohio district of the American Legion plans to give a plaque to Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of oral polio vaccine, during its 4th District conference Sunday.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Who Steals Needs Affection

Now and then a mother writes of a child who takes money from her purse or from the box, drawer or envelope of a brother or sister. A Pennsylvania mother writes of her son, ten, oldest of three boys: "He will just make up a lie when asked where he got some particular thing. I have caught him taking money from my purse two times, but he owned up to it when I questioned him. "If his younger brother, eight, has money around, something usually happens to it. The older boy won't own up to it, but he must take it

"THOUGH HE DOES average work in school, his younger brother is top in his class and we feel that is one cause for his great jealousy of the younger brother. He has never stopped wetting the bed.

"I give him and his younger brother 25c allowance a week. Also when he needs money for something I give it to him. He spends his money on movies."

My reply in part: It seems that your basic problem is to help that boy feel more secure, more loved and worthwhile, especially in the family. This won't be easy as his brother does so much better than he in school and, obviously, gets more approvals and fewer rebukes and punishments, causing him to feel more jealous and, therefore, to do more bad things.

Be generous with worthy praise of this boy. Don't applaud the behavior and achievements of the younger boy in the elder's presence.

DAD MIGHT DO most for this boy, having fun with him, going places, sometimes with him only and helping him win friends of his own age, also at helping him to find more successes in his school work.

When you suspect he has taken something or done some wrong, but do not have the facts, don't question and cross-question him. Quit putting him on the witness stand and punishing him on his own testimony.

Be more vigilant; keep him from your purse. Give each boy a metal box with a key for his money for some while. Protect, when possible, the older lad from temptations he can't withstand. See that his own possessions are respected and protected.

Strive for a family atmosphere in which everybody trusts, believes in and loves everybody else. Enlist the help of your relatives and friends to these ends.

STUDY THE ENCLOSED bulletins and work out a budgeted allowance with him to cover his regular expenses plus the 25c a week pocket money. Do likewise with the other brother, making his pocket money a bit less since he is younger.

Let the older boy have some privileges not given the younger. Recognize their age difference and don't look for quick results. Be willing to work long and patiently with this boy. He may have a heart of gold.

My bulletins, "Allowances", "Psychology Applied to Bedwetting" and "Honesty and Truthfulness in Children", may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Panel Censures Union Heads In New York's Paper Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — A fact-finding panel of judges has strongly censured the leaders of the printers union whose strike has shut down the city's nine major newspapers for 36 days.

The panel's report, released Friday night, termed the walkout "the deliberate design formed by the printers' representatives as the opening gambit in negotiations."

For the first time, city and state mediators will join federal mediators in negotiations, set by Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz for this afternoon.

Although all three committee members signed the report, one filed a supplemental report saying that he failed to find fault with either position and avoided making a "moral judgment on which one had the equities on its side."

Neither representatives of Local 6, International Typographers Union, AFL-CIO, nor the Publishers Association of New York City had immediate comment on the report.

"Indeed," the report said, "it must be said that there has been no real bargaining. A strike was called as a preliminary to bargaining—bargaining was intended to be postponed for a long period until the strike had taken its toll."

Taking note of the 15 negotiating sessions between printers and publishers since the strike started Dec. 8, the report said, "All those meetings can be summed up with the statement that neither party moved."

The report is not binding on either side. The publishers association approved of the panel, appointed last Sunday by Wirtz, Mayor Robert F. Wagner, and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

But Bertram A. Powers, head of ITU Local 6, boycotted it pending a union membership meeting scheduled for Sunday. Despite the absence of Powers, the panel obtained the union's side of the dispute.

Traffic Commission To Air Safety Appeal

Plans for a citywide traffic safety campaign in 1963 will be launched at a meeting of the Municipal Traffic Commission Monday night at 8 at City Hall.

W. C. Heasley, chairman, said the group invited to help plan the drive includes Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Safety - Service Director Robert Owen and H. J. English, assistant manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club.

The commission agreed at its December meeting to arrange a campaign in the new year designed to help reduce the accident rate for both motorists and pedestrians.

1 Killed, 2 Injured In One-Car Accident

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — One Ross County youth was killed and two others were injured, one critically, in a single-car crash on a rural road 11 miles south of here Friday. Killed was Harry Good, 17, of Rt. 5, Chillicothe.

Charles Good, 19, the victim's brother, was reported in grave condition at Chillicothe Hospital. Charles was driving the car which left the road and crashed into a tree, the Highway Patrol said.

Named Prosecutor

CINCINNATI (AP) — Raymond E. Shannon, a Municipal Court judge, has been named Hamilton County prosecutor, replacing C. Watson Hover who was elected to the 1st District Court of Appeals last November.

Mayor Given Report On CD

Herbert Combs, city Civil Defense director, has filed his annual report with Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, emphasizing the expansion of his organization that resulted from the Cuban crisis.

Combs stressed that 18 fallout shelters have been established, principally in downtown business and financial institutions, and the CD unit now is in the process of marking them and stocking them with emergency supplies.

Combs also pointed out that a "Duck," and amphibious truck, was turned over to the city because of its riverfront location. The operating personnel now are being trained by Thomas Sparks, a veteran of the South Pacific. Assistant fire department chiefs have been assigned as officers in charge of the equipment, he said.

In July, the local organization became affiliated with the county and state CD organizations, he pointed out. As part of the unit's expansion, Combs cited the appointment in August of four assistant directors — Ed Nelson, Martin Gluchow, Charles Heasley and Don Smith.

A "disaster exercise" conducted by the County Medical Society showed that City Hospital is well prepared for emergencies, Combs remarked.

Combs thanked the mayor and the public for co-operation in enlarging the scope of the local CD organization.

Cushing Willing To Intercede For 23 Americans

BOSTON (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing, 67-year-old Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston, says he is willing to go to Cuba to intercede for 23 Americans still held there if he is invited by Fidel Castro.

He told newsmen Friday he presumes Castro will learn of his interest in the American prisoners, and he added that he would not hesitate to contact Castro on the matter.

The prelate also said he is willing to do all he can in the case of Richard Fecteau, 31, of Lynn, Mass., who is under a 20-year sentence in Red China. Fecteau was captured during the Korean War and imprisoned in Peking.

Thursday, Cardinal Cushing identified himself as the "mystery person" who had raised a million dollars to help liberate the Cuban invasion prisoners.

Profit-Sharing OK'd To Eliminate Strikes

FONTANA, Calif. (AP)—Union officials say workers at Kaiser Steel's Fontana plant have voted overwhelmingly in favor of a profit-sharing program aimed at eliminating strikes.

The plan, described by one union executive as a bold new concept, is to become effective March 1.

It provides that workers displaced by automation will not be fired, but will go into a special labor reserve pool. As the firm expands, they will be retrained and placed in other jobs.

Under the program, employes will share in savings resulting from increased productivity and reductions in material costs. They will receive 32.5 per cent of the total savings, payable monthly.

The union said an unofficial tally showed the program was carrying by a 3-to-1 margin.

Railroad Group Calls For Strike Effective Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen today called a strike against the Southern Railway Co., effective at 6:30 a.m. EST Sunday.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the AFL-CIO union, said firemen and enginemen will walk off their jobs because the railroad has violated contract provisions on mileage and vacations since July 1959.

A spokesman for the company, with headquarters here, declined comment. The 8,100-mile Southern Railway system spans the South, operating in 14 states and the District of Columbia.

James W. Jennings, a vice president of the union, estimated 1,200 employes will be affected by the strike call.

A union statement accused the company of unilaterally changing the contract and thereby violating the National Railway Labor Act. The union alleged these contract violations by the railroad:

—Operating freight and passenger trains without union firemen.

—Requiring men to work "unreasonably long miles or hours."

—Canceling vacations in non-emergency situations.

Last September the union sought an injunction against Southern U.S. District Court here, seeking a halt to the alleged practices.

Judge L. P. Walsh denied the request Thursday, the union said, but noted in his decision "It appears from the pleadings and affidavits that Southern (railway) is changing the conditions of work with respect to firemen on its locomotives, and in so doing is evading the Railway Labor Act."

Man Shot To Death, Wife Being Quizzed

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Leon Page, 22, of Middletown, was shot to death early today in the apartment of his estranged wife, Loretta, police reported.

Mrs. Page is being held for questioning. Officers said Page, dead on arrival at a hospital, had been shot in the chest with a .22 caliber pistol.

Progress Reported

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Architects' plans for the first building on the Dayton campus of Ohio State-Miami University were included Friday in a progress report on the unusual educational venture. The four-story structure, scheduled for completion in late 1963, will include administrative offices, classrooms, and laboratories.

Wildcat Strikes Reduce Electric Power In Britain

LONDON (AP)—Britons shivering through their worst winter in memory faced a dim weekend as wildcat strikes reduced electric power throughout the country.

Unofficial strikers in the country's power generating stations are slowing down on the job. By following every rule in the book, they have slowed operations and reduced the amount of power produced. To share it evenly, the authorities reduced the voltage of supplies.

This brought dimmer electric lights, less heat from electric radiators and odd effects on many of the nation's television screens. Some viewers reported they were getting miniature pictures only two or three inches square. Others found their pictures all width and very little height. Many reported getting no pictures at all.

Voltage cuts in London and the surrounding areas kept electric railroad signals on red color and affected switches. It also made cooking on electric ranges a slow job.

To Get Dividend

CINCINNATI (AP)—Shareholders of the Kroger Co. will get their regular quarterly dividend of 27.5 cents per share on March 1, payable to shareholders of record Jan. 25.

Legion Will Hold Ceremonies At Meeting Monday

Obligation of new members and the Ritual of Everlasting for deceased members of the American Legion Post 374 will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at the East End home.

John Herman Jr. of Salem, commander of Salem Post 56, will give the obligation to the new members and conduct the ritual ceremony.

Herman also served as past commander of the Columbiana County American Legion Council and the 10th District and is past Ohio State Legion assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Lunch will be served by the auxiliary of which Mrs. Norma Jean Poynter is president.

City Bus Becomes 'Maternity Express'

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suburban North Olmsted city bus became a "maternity express" when a passenger suddenly reported severe labor pains.

It happened during rush hour Friday morning.

Bus driver John Stanfield, 29, was informed that Mrs. Richard McClenent was having labor pains. He turned quickly and headed for Fairview Park Hospital, about 1½ miles away in the opposite direction.

Less than an hour after arriving at the hospital, Mrs. McClenent, whose husband was with her on the bus, gave birth to a baby girl.

Mother and baby were reported doing well. Hospital authorities said the baby was six weeks premature.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Who Steals Needs Affection

Now and then a mother writes of a child who takes money from her purse or from the box, drawer or envelope of a brother or sister. A Pennsylvania mother writes of her son, ten, oldest of three boys: "He will just make up a lie when asked where he got some particular thing. I have caught him taking money from my purse two times, but he owned up to it when I questioned him. "If his younger brother, eight, has money around, something usually happens to it. The older boy won't own up to it, but he must take it

"THOUGH HE DOES average work in school, his younger brother is top in his class and we feel that is one cause for his great jealousy of the younger brother. He has never stopped wetting the bed.

"I give him and his younger brother 25c allowance a week. Also when he needs money for something I give it to him. He spends his money on movies."

My reply in part: It seems that your basic problem is to help that boy feel more secure, more loved and worthwhile, especially in the family. This won't be easy as his brother does so much better than he in school and, obviously, gets more approvals and fewer rebukes and punishments, causing him to feel more jealous and, therefore, to do more bad things.

Be generous with worthy praise of this boy. Don't applaud the behavior and achievements of the younger boy in the elder's presence.

DAD MIGHT DO most for this boy, having fun with him, going places, sometimes with him only and helping him win friends of his own age, also at helping him to find more successes in his school work.

When you suspect he has taken something or done some wrong, but do not have the facts, don't question and cross-question him. Quit putting him on the witness stand and punishing him on his own testimony.

Be more vigilant; keep him from your purse. Give each boy a metal box with a key for his money for some while. Protect, when possible, the older lad from temptations he can't withstand. See that his own possessions are respected and protected.

Strive for a family atmosphere in which everybody trusts, believes in and loves everybody else. Enlist the help of your relatives and friends to these ends.

STUDY THE ENCLOSED bulletins and work out a budgeted allowance with him to cover his regular expenses plus the 25c a week pocket money. Do likewise with the other brother, making his pocket money a bit less since he is younger.

Let the older boy have some privileges not given the younger. Recognize their age difference and don't look for quick results. Be willing to work long and patiently with this boy. He may have a heart of gold.

Panel Censures Union Heads In New York's Paper Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — A fact-finding panel of judges has strongly censured the leaders of the printers union whose strike has shut down the city's nine major newspapers for 36 days.

The panel's report, released Friday night, termed the walkout "the deliberate design formed by the printers' representatives as the opening gambit in negotiations."

For the first time, city and state mediators will join federal mediators in negotiations, set by Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz for this afternoon.

Although all three committee members signed the report, one filed a supplemental report saying that he failed to find fault with either position and avoided making a "moral judgment on which one had the equities on its side."

Neither representatives of Local 6, International Typographers Union, AFL-CIO, nor the Publishers Association of New York City had immediate comment on the report.

"Indeed," the report said, "it must be said that there has been no real bargaining. A strike was called as a preliminary to bargaining—bargaining was intended to be postponed for a long period until the strike had taken its toll."

Taking note of the 15 negotiating sessions between printers and publishers since the strike started Dec. 8, the report said, "All those meetings can be summed up with the statement that neither party moved."

The report is not binding on either side. The publishers association approved of the panel, appointed last Sunday by Wirtz, Mayor Robert F. Wagner, and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

But Bertram A. Powers, head of ITU Local 6, boycotted it pending a union membership meeting scheduled for Sunday. Despite the absence of Powers, the panel obtained the union's side of the dispute.

Traffic Commission To Air Safety Appeal

Plans for a citywide traffic safety campaign in 1963 will be launched at a meeting of the Municipal Traffic Commission Monday night at 8 at City Hall.

W. C. Heasley, chairman, said the group invited to help plan the drive includes Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Safety - Service Director Robert Owen and H. J. English, assistant manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club.

The commission agreed at its December meeting to arrange a campaign in the new year designed to help reduce the accident rate for both motorists and pedestrians.

1 Killed, 2 Injured In One-Car Accident

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — One Ross County youth was killed and two others were injured, one critically, in a single-car crash on a rural road 11 miles south of here Friday. Killed was Harry Good, 17, of Rt. 5, Chillicothe.

Charles Good, 19, the victim's brother, was reported in grave condition at Chillicothe Hospital. Charles was driving the car which left the road and crashed into a tree, the Highway Patrol said.

Named Prosecutor

CINCINNATI (AP) — Raymond E. Shannon, a Municipal Court judge, has been named Hamilton County prosecutor, replacing C. Watson Hover who was elected to the 1st District Court of Appeals last November.

Mayor Given Report On CD

Herbert Combs, city Civil Defense director, has filed his annual report with Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, emphasizing the expansion of his organization that resulted from the Cuban crisis.

Combs stressed that 18 fallout shelters have been established, principally in downtown business and financial institutions, and the CD unit now is in the process of marking them and stocking them with emergency supplies.

Combs also pointed out that a "Duck," and amphibious truck, was turned over to the city because of its riverfront location. The operating personnel now are being trained by Thomas Sparks, a veteran of the South Pacific. Assistant fire department chiefs have been assigned as officers in charge of the equipment, he said.

In July, the local organization became affiliated with the county and state CD organizations, he pointed out. As part of the unit's expansion, Combs cited the appointment in August of four assistant directors — Ed Nelson, Martin Gluchow, Charles Heasley and Don Smith.

A "disaster exercise" conducted by the County Medical Society showed that City Hospital is well prepared for emergencies, Combs remarked.

Combs thanked the mayor and the public for co-operation in enlarging the scope of the local CD organization.

Cushing Willing To Intercede For 23 Americans

BOSTON (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing, 67-year-old Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston, says he is willing to go to Cuba to intercede for 23 Americans still held there if he is invited by Fidel Castro.

He told newsmen Friday he presumes Castro will learn of his interest in the American prisoners, and he added that he would not hesitate to contact Castro on the matter.

The prelate also said he is willing to do all he can in the case of Richard Fecteau, 31, of Lynn, Mass., who is under a 20-year sentence in Red China. Fecteau was captured during the Korean War and imprisoned in Peking.

Thursday, Cardinal Cushing identified himself as the "mystery person" who had raised a million dollars to help liberate the Cuban invasion prisoners.

Profit-Sharing OK'd To Eliminate Strikes

FONTANA, Calif. (AP)—Union officials say workers at Kaiser Steel's Fontana plant have voted overwhelmingly in favor of a profit-sharing program aimed at eliminating strikes.

The plan, described by one union executive as a bold new concept, is to become effective March 1.

It provides that workers displaced by automation will not be fired, but will go into a special labor reserve pool. As the firm expands, they will be retrained and placed in other jobs.

Under the program, employes will share in savings resulting from increased productivity and reductions in material costs. They will receive 32.5 per cent of the total savings, payable monthly.

The union said an unofficial tally showed the program was carrying by a 3-to-1 margin.

Railroad Group Calls For Strike Effective Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen today called a strike against the Southern Railway Co., effective at 6:30 a.m. EST Sunday.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the AFL-CIO union, said firemen and enginemen will walk off their jobs because the railroad has violated contract provisions on mileage and vacations since July 1959.

A spokesman for the company, with headquarters here, declined comment. The 8,100-mile Southern Railway system spans the South, operating in 14 states and the District of Columbia.

James W. Jennings, a vice president of the union, estimated 1,200 employes will be affected by the strike call.

A union statement accused the company of unilaterally changing the contract and thereby violating the National Railway Labor Act. The union alleged these contract violations by the railroad:

—Operating freight and passenger trains without union firemen.

—Requiring men to work "unreasonably long miles or hours."

—Canceling vacations in non-emergency situations.

Last September the union sought an injunction against Southern U.S. District Court here, seeking a halt to the alleged practices.

Judge L. P. Walsh denied the request Thursday, the union said, but noted in his decision "It appears from the pleadings and affidavits that Southern (railway) is changing the conditions of work with respect to firemen on its locomotives, and in so doing is evading the Railway Labor Act."

Man Shot To Death, Wife Being Quizzed

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Leon Page, 22, of Middletown, was shot to death early today in the apartment of his estranged wife, Loretta, police reported.

Mrs. Page is being held for questioning. Officers said Page, dead on arrival at a hospital, had been shot in the chest with a .22 caliber pistol.

Progress Reported

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Architects' plans for the first building on the Dayton campus of Ohio State-Miami University were included Friday in a progress report on the unusual educational venture. The four-story structure, scheduled for completion in late 1963, will include administrative offices, classrooms, and laboratories.

Inventory Set For Township

Liverpool Township trustees Friday night set plans for the annual inventory of township equipment and property.

The trustees will meet Tuesday night at the township garage to check equipment, and also may visit one of the township fire stations. The other fire station will be checked later.

Simon Hall, clerk, was instructed to obtain broader insurance coverage for the township garage, and was also authorized to order supplies and needed equipment for the office.

The trustees also approved ordering additional snow fence. Members plan to attend the annual meeting of Ohio Trustees & Clerks Association Jan. 24-26 at Columbus.

Because of the state meeting, the regular meeting slated Jan. 25 will be held Jan. 22.

Pennsylvania Extends Auto License Plates

HARRISBURG, (AP) — The State Revenue Department said Friday present vehicle license plates will be used for another year.

The plates were issued in 1958, for a projected five - year period. Under the schedule, new plates would have been issued this year.

"The condition of the plates has exceeded our fondest expectation," Revenue Secretary Charles M. Doughtery said in a statement announcing the extension, "and it is now clearly evident that in the interests of economy the tags will survive several more years of use.

Dougherty estimated that the state is saving $1 million a year by using the small, pressure-sensitive stickers to signify annual renewal of the license plate fee.

Ohio Municipal Unit Elects '63 President

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Municipal League a statewide association of cities and villages, announced today the election of S.E. Klewer, Maumee municipal clerk, as its 1963 president.

Serving with Klewer will be Herbert W. Starick, Dayton city manager, as first vice president, and W. Ralston Westlake, Columbus mayor, as second vice president.

Man, Wife Killed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Franklin County man and his wife were killed when their car collided with a coal truck on U.S. 33 two miles west of Dublin, northwest of here, Friday. The crash occurred about 1½ miles from the home of the victims, LeRoy Marion Fulk, 62, and his wife, Julia, 63.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

TO: The Owners of All Lots and Lands Bounding and Abutting on Market Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Washington Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Fourth Street from Market Street to Cherry Alley, Fifth Street from Peach Alley to Cherry Alley and Sixth Street from a point 150 feet west of Peach Alley to Washington Street in the City of East Liverpool, Ohio

Each of you are hereby notified that on the 29th day of October, 1962 the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio, duly adopted Resolution No. 28, 1962 declaring it necessary to improve:

Market Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Washington Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Fourth Street from Market Street to Cherry Alley, Fifth Street from Peach Alley to Cherry Alley and Sixth Street from a point 150 feet west of Peach Alley to Washington Street by providing said streets between the designated termini with 43,600 lumen, 4 tube fluorescent, overhead street lights for a period of ten years from the installation of said lights.

Said resolution approves the plans, specifications, and estimates for said improvement theretofore prepared and now on file in the office of the Clerk of the Council, and provides that the portion of the cost of the improvement which is the difference in the annual cost of providing the above described lighting and the annual cost if said streets were provided with 6,000 lumen, incandescent, overhead street lighting shall be assessed by the foot front of the property bounding and abutting on the improvement, but at a rate not exceeding $1.66 per foot front per year, upon all lots and lands bounding and abutting on the proposed improvement, and that said annual cost to be assessed shall be levied and paid each year for ten years. The estimated assessments for such improvement based on the Engineer's estimate of costs are now on file in the office of the Clerk of Council and available for inspection by any interested person. Objections to the assessment, amount, or apportionment thereof, must be filed in writing in the office of the Clerk within two weeks after the expiration of this notice, to-wit: 4 weeks from the date of first publication of this notice, as shown below.

By order of the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

Inventory Set For Township

Liverpool Township trustees Friday night set plans for the annual inventory of township equipment and property.

The trustees will meet Tuesday night at the township garage to check equipment, and also may visit one of the township fire stations. The other fire station will be checked later.

Simon Hall, clerk, was instructed to obtain broader insurance coverage for the township garage, and was also authorized to order supplies and needed equipment for the office.

The trustees also approved ordering additional snow fence. Members plan to attend the annual meeting of Ohio Trustees & Clerks Association Jan. 24-26 at Columbus.

Because of the state meeting, the regular meeting slated Jan. 25 will be held Jan. 22.

Pennsylvania Extends Auto License Plates

HARRISBURG, (AP) — The State Revenue Department said Friday present vehicle license plates will be used for another year.

The plates were issued in 1958, for a projected five - year period. Under the schedule, new plates would have been issued this year.

"The condition of the plates has exceeded our fondest expectation," Revenue Secretary Charles M. Doughtery said in a statement announcing the extension, "and it is now clearly evident that in the interests of economy the tags will survive several more years of use.

Dougherty estimated that the state is saving $1 million a year by using the small, pressure-sensitive stickers to signify annual renewal of the license plate fee.

Ohio Municipal Unit Elects '63 President

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Municipal League a statewide association of cities and villages, announced today the election of S.E. Klewer, Maumee municipal clerk, as its 1963 president.

Serving with Klewer will be Herbert W. Starick, Dayton city manager, as first vice president, and W. Ralston Westlake, Columbus mayor, as second vice president.

Man, Wife Killed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Franklin County man and his wife were killed when their car collided with a coal truck on U.S. 33 two miles west of Dublin, northwest of here, Friday. The crash occurred about 1½ miles from the home of the victims, LeRoy Marion Fulk, 62, and his wife, Julia, 63.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

TO: The Owners of All Lots and Lands Bounding and Abutting on Market Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Washington Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Fourth Street from Market Street to Cherry Alley, Fifth Street from Peach Alley to Cherry Alley and Sixth Street from a point 150 feet west of Peach Alley to Washington Street in the City of East Liverpool, Ohio

Each of you are hereby notified that on the 29th day of October, 1962 the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio, duly adopted Resolution No. 28, 1962 declaring it necessary to improve:

Market Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Washington Street from Fourth Street to Sixth Street, Fourth Street from Market Street to Cherry Alley, Fifth Street from Peach Alley to Cherry Alley and Sixth Street from a point 150 feet west of Peach Alley to Washington Street by providing said streets between the designated termini with 43,600 lumen, 4 tube fluorescent, overhead street lights for a period of ten years from the installation of said lights.

Said resolution approves the plans, specifications, and estimates for said improvement theretofore prepared and now on file in the office of the Clerk of the Council, and provides that the portion of the cost of the improvement which is the difference in the annual cost of providing the above described lighting and the annual cost if said streets were provided with 6,000 lumen, incandescent, overhead street lighting shall be assessed by the foot front of the property bounding and abutting on the improvement, but at a rate not exceeding $1.66 per foot front per year, upon all lots and lands bounding and abutting on the proposed improvement, and that said annual cost to be assessed shall be levied and paid each year for ten years. The estimated assessments for such improvement based on the Engineer's estimate of costs are now on file in the office of the Clerk of Council and available for inspection by any interested person. Objections to the assessment, amount, or apportionment thereof, must be filed in writing in the office of the Clerk within two weeks after the expiration of this notice, to-wit: 4 weeks from the date of first publication of this notice, as shown below.

By order of the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

LAWRENCE J. ZOLLINGER

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of John C. Charlton who passed away Jan. 12, 1959. Memories will never die and we miss you more and more each day. Mom and Dad.

3 CARDS OF THANKS

WE wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who assisted during the sickness and death of our brother, Less Sandy, and our thanks to the V.F.W. and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Signed — Brothers and Sister.

The Family of Edwin V. Hargreaves wish to thank the many kind friends for the lovely flowers and kindnesses shown us at the death of our brother and uncle. Special thanks to the Rev. I. E. Jennings, members of Calvary Methodist Church, Firemen, Grant and St. John St. neighbors and Valley Motor Court neighbors and all those who helped in so many ways. — Sisters and Brother.

Five salable articles are stored away in the average home and never used. Make a survey of your own attic, garage, basement and closets. Dust off your store-aways and change them into crisp new dollars. There never was a better time to sell through a Review Want Ad.

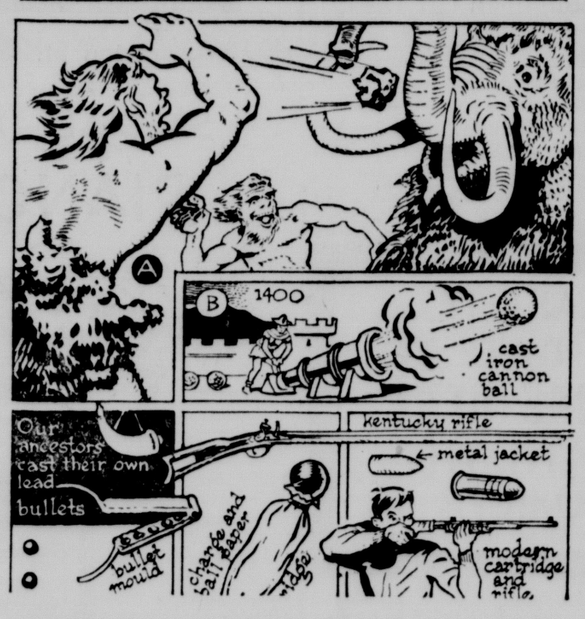
Junior Editors Quiz on GUNS



QUESTION: How did bullets come to be used?

ANSWER: Which came first, the gun or the bullet? The bullet. A stone age man (A), hurling a big stone at an animal is using a kind of bullet without the gun. Of course, it was gun powder, introduced to the western world in 1242, which led to the development of the modern gun shooting real bullets. Clumsy cannons made in the 1300's, used stones and various scrap materials as bullets. Cast iron balls appeared in the early 1400's. Later, lead was employed because it was heavy and easy to melt. Using a paper cartridge (shown in picture) the gunman bit off end of cartridge, poured powder down muzzle, rammed in the ball. The first guns were smooth inside the barrel. Then came grooves inside the barrel to spin the bullet, which made the gun a "rifle." These were much more accurate; in fact, it is said that the deadly accuracy of the Kentucky rifle may have won the Revolutionary War for the Americans. Another improvement was the pointed shape of the bullet and the metal jacket. With metal cartridge case and bullet inside, ammunition then developed to the form in which we use it today.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Please suggest a treatment for excessively perspiring hands.

A. One often beneficial remedy is the use of an astringent lotion consisting of one part boric acid to 20 parts water. Dust the hands afterwards with talcum powder.

Q. How can I remedy small cracks in crockery?

A. If a piece of crockery has a tiny crack in it, try boiling it in sweet milk. This usually restores its usefulness.

Q. Can you suggest an efficient way to dry a sweater after washing it?

A. Make a hammock of a piece of mosquito netting or other thin material, hang this hammock out in the sun, and lay your sweater on it. Be sure that the hammock is drawn out flat, so that the sweater is not doubled up. If the sweater is treated in this way, it will not be so likely to get out of shape.

Q. How can I make cake flour?

A. By adding two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch to each cup of ordinary flour.

Q. How can I keep my vacuum cleaner in good condition?

A. Keep the motor oiled according to the manufacturer's directions, clean the brush regularly, and often, empty the bag after each using, turn off the motor immediately when you are not actually working, and the life of your vacuum cleaner will be lengthened.

Q. How can I improvise some stamp-pad ink?

A. Grind up about an inch of lead from an indelible pencil and mix this with a teaspoonful of glycerin and a teaspoonful of water. Let this settle for about 10 hours, and it's ready for use.

Cleveland Guild Reveals Plans To Publish Paper

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Newspaper Guild, aided by 10 craft unions from both struck newspapers, has announced plans to publish a daily newspaper.

The announcement came as negotiations were to resume today at City Hall between the Guild and representatives of the morning Plain Dealer and the afternoon Cleveland Press and News. Teamsters Local 473 was to meet with management at the same place this afternoon.

Robert Drake, co-chairman of the Guild strike committee, said Friday night the paper would be published for the duration of the strike and will have an initial press run of 40,000. It will be sold on newsstands at 10 cents a copy.

Deliveries will be made by members of Teamsters Local 407, not the striking local. Top Teamster leaders in the city have given assurances that there will be no interference from striking Teamsters, who have been expelled from the joint council composed of unions at both newspapers, Drake said.

He said the Guild and the 10 craft unions will share equally in proceeds from the sale of the paper.

The paper will be published five days a week, skipping one day during the week because of previous printing schedules at the Cleveland printing plant which is handling the job, Drake said.

Drake said incorporation papers would be filed early next week and the paper would appear "as soon as possible — maybe before the end of the week."

The newspaper strike now is in its 44th day.

2 Youths Deprived Of Driving Permits

LISBON — Traffic Court hearings at the Courthouse have resulted in the suspension of the driving permits of two motorists.

James H. Pitts, 16, of Kensington received a 30-day suspension for driving left of center and Theodore Schari Jarvis, 17, of 312 W. 5th St., East Liverpool, 15 days for failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

Penelope Ann Silver, 17, of Salem R.D. 1 was fined $5 for going the wrong way on a one-way street and Lawrence Duane Crist, 17, of Scottsdale, Ariz., forfeited $20 bond for passing at an intersection. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

But Has To 'Beat' Girl

Youth Regains Train Derby Title

Jerry Canne, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Canne, 143 Thompson Ave., regained his title of "Tri-State Casey Jones" Friday night in the annual Toy Train Derby at the YMCA.

But, of all things, the 13-year-old, who also won the championship in 1960, had to defeat a young "Casey-ette," Linda Robinson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robinson of Sub-Station Rd., for the title last night.

Miss Robinson, only the second girl to enter the contest, did fine in her initial appearance, earning her way into the finals by ousting Gary Tuttle of Chester, the 1961 king.

The other contestants were Kenny Seibert, Bill Tittle, Ricky Thornton, Bill Frail, Paul Neppl, Jerry Garvey, Jim Cline, Sam Shaffer, Danny Skidmore, Dwayne Garvey, Jim Long, Don Plant, Tom Morris, Kenneth Seeley and Patrick Purton.

Chamber Aide Addresses Lions On Betterment Of City

"Think positively! Think about the good things in the community," E. R. Chandler, secretary-treasurer-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, told the Lions Club Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel while discussing community needs.

"We're called service clubs (Chandler is a Rotarian) but the amount of service is questionable."

He explained that he is aware of causes aided by individual club projects "but if we get the service clubs and people interested in the serious problems confronting the city then we will have a worthwhile project that we can be proud of."

"By working together so that a cross-section of the people are involved, immeasurable progress can be made," he said.

Projects cannot be promoted from the top, he warned, explaining programs must start in the grass roots. "If the five or six service clubs, including the Chamber and Junior Chamber and the women's organizations, join together, we're still a minority and we'll be talking to ourselves."

He distributed a citizens' planning guide prepared by the Ohio Power Co. and discussed it briefly.

Chandler was introduced by Jerry Rose, program chairman. James Johnston, president, presided.

Donald Duke, treasurer, announced the annual Charter Night will be held Saturday, Feb. 23, at Deramo's in Midland.

Meanwhile, plans have been launched for the club's annual minstrel show with the committee holding a meeting Friday night at the home of John Smith, first vice president.

Sought In Car Death

Police List 2 Accidents

Two minor city accidents were reported to police Friday afternoon.

A collision at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. at 1:34 p. m. involved a 1962 eastbound sedan driven by Valmond V. Rice, 57, of 243 Wells Ave., Wellsville, and a truck operated by Mathew J. Savron Jr., 27, of Lowellville, police said.

Rice said he was halted when struck in the rear by the other vehicle while Savon contended the car drifted back into the truck owned by T. R. Smith & Son of Struthers.

A sign at an apartment building at 314 Market St., owned by Robert Johnson, was damaged about 5:39 p. m. when struck by a backing tractor - trailer rig owned by the Roy Stone Transportation Co. of Collinsville, Va.

Johnson said he learned of the mishap when a tenant said "something shook the building." He said he found the rig had backed into the sign. Carl E. Harmon, 30, of Martinsville, Va., the truck driver, told police he was unaware of the accident. The only damage was to the canvas tarpaulin of the truck.

Space Project Halts

CINCINNATI (AP) — Work on setting up a new missile and space section at General Electric's plant in suburban Evendale has stopped David F. Shaw, general manager of the GE jet engine department, said the postponement of expansion plans was due to recent contract terminations.

Schools To Be Held To Assist Taxpayers

Schools to aid taxpayers in filing federal income tax returns will be held three nights next week, Melvin J. Burton, Cleveland district director, said today.

The schools will be held Tuesday at the Mural Building in Youngstown, Wednesday at Steubenville High School, and Thursday at Canton Timken High School. All will begin at 7 p.m.

The local office on the second floor of the former Erlanger building at 134 E. 5th St. will be open each Friday from 8:15 a.m. to 5 p.m. to assist taxpayers in preparing their returns.

Where assistance can be provided over the telephone, taxpayers have been asked to call FU. 5-4270 rather than visit the office.

Eight players gained more than 100 yards rushing for Syracuse last season. Six of them will be back next fall.

Cleveland Guild Reveals Plans To Publish Paper

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Newspaper Guild, aided by 10 craft unions from both struck newspapers, has announced plans to publish a daily newspaper.

The announcement came as negotiations were to resume today at City Hall between the Guild and representatives of the morning Plain Dealer and the afternoon Cleveland Press and News. Teamsters Local 473 was to meet with management at the same place this afternoon.

Robert Drake, co-chairman of the Guild strike committee, said Friday night the paper would be published for the duration of the strike and will have an initial press run of 40,000. It will be sold on newsstands at 10 cents a copy.

Deliveries will be made by members of Teamsters Local 407, not the striking local. Top Teamster leaders in the city have given assurances that there will be no interference from striking Teamsters, who have been expelled from the joint council composed of unions at both newspapers, Drake said.

He said the Guild and the 10 craft unions will share equally in proceeds from the sale of the paper.

The paper will be published five days a week, skipping one day during the week because of previous printing schedules at the Cleveland printing plant which is handling the job, Drake said.

Drake said incorporation papers would be filed early next week and the paper would appear "as soon as possible — maybe before the end of the week."

The newspaper strike now is in its 44th day.

2 Youths Deprived Of Driving Permits

LISBON — Traffic Court hearings at the Courthouse have resulted in the suspension of the driving permits of two motorists.

James H. Pitts, 16, of Kensington received a 30-day suspension for driving left of center and Theodore Schari Jarvis, 17, of 312 W. 5th St., East Liverpool, 15 days for failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

Penelope Ann Silver, 17, of Salem R.D. 1 was fined $5 for going the wrong way on a one-way street and Lawrence Duane Crist, 17, of Scottsdale, Ariz., forfeited $20 bond for passing at an intersection. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

But Has To 'Beat' Girl

Youth Regains Train Derby Title

Jerry Canne, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Canne, 143 Thompson Ave., regained his title of "Tri-State Casey Jones" Friday night in the annual Toy Train Derby at the YMCA.

But, of all things, the 13-year-old, who also won the championship in 1960, had to defeat a young "Casey-ette," Linda Robinson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robinson of Sub-Station Rd., for the title last night.

Miss Robinson, only the second girl to enter the contest, did fine in her initial appearance, earning her way into the finals by ousting Gary Tuttle of Chester, the 1961 king.

Ironically, it was Tuttle who ousted Canne in the semi-finals last year as the Thompson Ave. resident tried for two championships in a row.

Canne gained the final round by beating Gary Morris.

The other contestants were Kenny Seibert, Bill Tittle, Ricky Thornton, Bill Frail, Paul Neppl, Jerry Garvey, Jim Cline, Sam Shaffer, Danny Skidmore, Dwayne Garvey, Jim Long, Don Plant, Tom Morris, Kenneth Seeley and Patrick Purton.

Otis Holland, Frank Wolfe and William Purton served as officials for the races.

Police List 2 Accidents

Two minor city accidents were reported to police Friday afternoon.

A collision at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. at 1:34 p. m. involved a 1962 eastbound sedan driven by Valmond V. Rice, 57, of 243 Wells Ave., Wellsville, and a truck operated by Mathew J. Savron Jr., 27, of Lowellville, police said.

Rice said he was halted when struck in the rear by the other vehicle while Savon contended the car drifted back into the truck owned by T. R. Smith & Son of Struthers.

A sign at an apartment building at 314 Market St., owned by Robert Johnson, was damaged about 5:39 p. m. when struck by a backing tractor - trailer rig owned by the Roy Stone Transportation Co. of Collinsville, Va.

Johnson said he learned of the mishap when a tenant said "something shook the building." He said he found the rig had backed into the sign. Carl E. Harmon, 30, of Martinsville, Va., the truck driver, told police he was unaware of the accident. The only damage was to the canvas tarpaulin of the truck.

Space Project Halts

CINCINNATI (AP) — Work on setting up a new missile and space section at General Electric's plant in suburban Evendale has stopped David F. Shaw, general manager of the GE jet engine department, said the postponement of expansion plans was due to recent contract terminations.

Schools To Be Held To Assist Taxpayers

Schools to aid taxpayers in filing federal income tax returns will be held three nights next week, Melvin J. Burton, Cleveland district director, said today.

The schools will be held Tuesday at the Mural Building in Youngstown, Wednesday at Steubenville High School, and Thursday at Canton Timken High School. All will begin at 7 p.m.

The local office on the second floor of the former Erlanger building at 134 E. 5th St. will be open each Friday from 8:15 a.m. to 5 p.m. to assist taxpayers in preparing their returns.

Where assistance can be provided over the telephone, taxpayers have been asked to call FU. 5-4270 rather than visit the office.

Eight players gained more than 100 yards rushing for Syracuse last season. Six of them will be back next fall.

Chamber Aide Addresses Lions On Betterment Of City

"Think positively! Think about the good things in the community," E. R. Chandler, secretary-treasurer-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, told the Lions Club Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel while discussing community needs.

The Chamber executive indicated residents must talk up the good points rather than being derogatory. "Many of us have a poor outlook on what's good about the community. One of our finest assets is a wonderful class of people."

He urged the various service clubs to unite on a community-wide project.

"We're called service clubs (Chandler is a Rotarian) but the amount of service is questionable."

He explained that he is aware of causes aided by individual club projects "but if we get the service clubs and people interested in the serious problems confronting the city then we will have a worthwhile project that we can be proud of."

"By working together so that a cross-section of the people are involved, immeasurable progress can be made," he said.

Projects cannot be promoted from the top, he warned, explaining programs must start in the grass roots. "If the five or six service clubs, including the Chamber and Junior Chamber and the women's organizations, join together, we're still a minority and we'll be talking to ourselves."

He distributed a citizens' planning guide prepared by the Ohio Power Co. and discussed it briefly.

Chandler was introduced by Jerry Rose, program chairman. James Johnston, president, presided.

Donald Duke, treasurer, announced the annual Charter Night will be held Saturday, Feb. 23, at Deramo's in Midland.

Christ Pallis reported the club has a choice of Feb. 9, 15 or 22 for a wrestling show.

Sought In Car Death

Meet Miss Somebody from Vermont

Family Weekly's latest "unknown" cover girl is a musically inclined beauty from South Burlington

Photos and Text by OZZIE SWEET

Judy (in foreground) and sister Linda, 11, are a harmonious twosome on their flutes but, like most sisters, they have some squabbles. Linda often pesters Judy's dates when they call.

The talented Chadwicks (all have a musical bent) spend a comfortable evening at home amid tasteful Early American furnishings. From left: Nancy, 8, Dad, Linda (with dog Prince), Bobbie, 6, Judy, Mom, and Joanne, 2. Below: Mom, Dad, and Judy blend their voices in the church choir.

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD Judy Chadwick, the new Miss Somebody I found in South Burlington, Vt., is something of a paradox.

At first glance she appears to be an abundantly freckled, apple-cheeked charmer. But a second look reveals that she is potentially an exotic beauty. Could our dark-haired, brown-eyed Miss Somebody be interested in an acting career, I wondered? Judy soon jolted me back to reality. There wasn't a chance that this could happen, she told me. Like a number of my past discoveries for FAMILY WEEKLY—all lovely, all unknown "Miss Nobodies" until we found them—Judy isn't eager for footlight fame.

Her main interest at present is music. When Judy is not working to maintain her straight-A average in high school, she can be found singing or playing the flute. At school she plays her favorite instrument in the band and sings soprano in the chorus. At church, Judy is in her second year as a member of the choir, and she also plays flute in the newly formed South Burlington Town Band.

Judy grew up in a musical family. Her parents, Anne and Robert Chadwick, sing in the church choir, and her three sisters —Linda, 11, Nancy, 8, and Joanne, 2—each seem to have a musical bent. Linda plays the flute (she influenced Judy to take it up), and little Joanne likes to bang away on the family organ (as does her brother Robert, 6). All the Chadwick girls take piano lessons. "It has been a tradition in our family," says Judy, "for everyone from third grade up to try his hand at music."

JUDY HAS LIVED in Vermont most of her life—and loves it. She has ample opportunity to enjoy skiing and skating in winter and boating on Lake Champlain in the summer. Indoors, she is a ping-pong buff. And, recently, politics has found a place on her schedule. Judy is one of the charter members of a Young Republican Club that has just been launched in Burlington.

The Chadwicks live in a seven-room ranch house that is picturesquely situated between two apple orchards. Mr. Chadwick works for a large electrical firm which has a plant in Burlington. He bears the awesome title of Manager of Special Weapons in Quality-Control Engineering. "One of his important jobs," explains Judy, "is seeing that Army missiles are turned out in top quality."

Judy does a lot of baby sitting and is a frugal saver. The money she earns has helped realize her yearning to travel. Last summer it financed a trip to North Carolina. But Judy, who is an avid pen pal and writes to friends in Scotland and France, has her sights on the distant Far East. "It has a mysterious quality that intrigues me," she says. Then, with her lovely eyes twinkling, she adds, "But after my travels, I'd like to settle down and raise five or six children."

My impression is that if Judy Chadwick's energetic talent and beauty do not launch an acting career, they will make her a top contender for the role of model wife and mother.

Quips and Quotes

Cutting Remarks

I grab the morning paper first,
Before my wife—a deed rehearsed
For many years. And if you think
I am a boor, or on the brink,
I'll tell you why: My good wife snips
And with her sharpened scissors clips
All sorts of coupons, ads, and such
And doesn't leave me very much.
If I've the paper first and solely,
It's that I like it whole, not holey.

—Richard Armour

Would You Like More Gravy?

Reducing isn't really tough!
It's easy—if you NO enough.

The age-old debate between dog lovers and cat lovers was raging at a party. "Let me tell you about a dog I heard of," said one guest. "A house caught fire, and the mother and father carried the children out safely—then discovered that one child had been left behind. Before either could react, their dog dashed into the flames and soon emerged carrying the missing child."

"Bah!" said a cat lover. "That's the oldest story ever told by you dog people!"

"Wait," came the reply. "I'm not finished. Although everybody was now safe, the dog ran back into the burning house. The family thought the excitement had driven him mad. But soon he came out again, carrying something in his mouth."

The storyteller paused and looked at his enthralled audience. "Now this may sound strange, but do you know what he was carrying? Well, that dog had a damp towel in his mouth, and when they unfolded it—out dropped the fire-insurance policy!" —James Shurluck

"Well, I've learned one thing today—you're a poor teacher."

The homeowner had just finished laying a new sidewalk when he looked out the window and saw the neighborhood children writing their initials in the wet cement. He raced out the house and sent them scurrying with his shouts and threats.

"What's the matter, dear," his wife asked. "Don't you like children?"

"In the abstract, yes," the husband replied, "but not in the concrete." —Jane Sherman

My Wife's Eyesight Is Remarkable

Her glasses really aren't at all
  Important to her vision
In reading or, when driving,
  In averting a collision.
They're no real help in cleaning house
  Or (so she claims) tv-ing.
To tell the truth, the only thing
  She needs them for is seeing.

Quips and Quotes

Cutting Remarks

I grab the morning paper first,
Before my wife—a deed rehearsed
For many years. And if you think
I am a boor, or on the brink,
I'll tell you why: My good wife snips
And with her sharpened scissors clips
All sorts of coupons, ads, and such
And doesn't leave me very much.
If I've the paper first and solely,
It's that I like it whole, not holey.

Would You Like More Gravy?

Reducing isn't really tough!
It's easy—if you NO enough.

The age-old debate between dog lovers and cat lovers was raging at a party. "Let me tell you about a dog I heard of," said one guest. "A house caught fire, and the mother and father carried the children out safely—then discovered that one child had been left behind. Before either could react, their dog dashed into the flames and soon emerged carrying the missing child."

"Bah!" said a cat lover. "That's the oldest story ever told by you dog people!"

"Wait," came the reply. "I'm not finished. Although everybody was now safe, the dog ran back into the burning house. The family thought the excitement had driven him mad. But soon he came out again, carrying something in his mouth."

The storyteller paused and looked at his enthralled audience. "Now this may sound strange, but do you know what he was carrying? Well, that dog had a damp towel in his mouth, and when they unfolded it—out dropped the fire-insurance policy!" —James Shurluck

The homeowner had just finished laying a new sidewalk when he looked out the window and saw the neighborhood children writing their initials in the wet cement. He raced out the house and sent them scurrying with his shouts and threats.

"What's the matter, dear," his wife asked. "Don't you like children?"

"In the abstract, yes," the husband replied, "but not in the concrete." —Jane Sherman

My Wife's Eyesight Is Remarkable

Her glasses really aren't at all
  Important to her vision
In reading or, when driving,
  In averting a collision.
They're no real help in cleaning house
  Or (so she claims) tv-ing.
To tell the truth, the only thing
  She needs them for is seeing.

Help your children in schoolwork NOW—when they need it most—with the benefit of expert guidance!

PARENTS AND TEACHERS agree that the time to build a solid foundation for future education is when the student is young. How well a child learns the fundamentals of the three R's and beginning science in grade school may well make the difference between progress and failure throughout his educative years.

But as you know, classrooms are overcrowded everywhere. There's a shortage of teachers. Your children just can't get the special help they need if they fall behind in regular classroom work. You can't expect the school to give your children the individual attention they need to develop the special qualities and abilities every child possesses. The serious consequences of waiting until it's too late are emphasized by the growing number of young people today who "drop out" of high school before graduation.

That leaves it up to you as parents to help your children in the elementary grades when they need your help most. If you don't help, no one else will.

But many parents have serious doubts. They realize teaching methods have changed since they were in school. They're afraid they've forgotten many of the rules learned in grade school.

HOW TO HELP YOUR CHILD IN READING, WRITING, ARITHMETIC & SCIENCE is a set of home study guides designed to bring you up to date. With these remarkable volumes, written by a successful teacher, you can give your child the guidance he needs to help him build a solid foundation in the basic subjects so vital to his future progress.

The books are arranged by grades. Each grade is divided into two sections. The first section contains a review to refresh your memory about the various school subjects and give you the benefit of the same explanations the modern teacher gives her class.

The second section is a Workbook to be used by your child under your guidance. The contents range from practice decimal problems to such exciting science activities as making a telegraph transmitter or building a weather station.

REVIEWS AND WORKBOOKS enable you to use tested teaching methods to help your child learn and practice the most important subjects from kindergarten through the eighth grade. If your child has trouble with reading, writing, arithmetic or science, you will see exactly where it lies and help him correct it. If, on the other hand, your child is capable of moving ahead faster than his class in a subject, you can help him set his own pace. Both ways, this Set helps you help the teacher help your child fully realize his educational potential.

About the Author—FRIEDA VAN ATTA is a mother of two, with 20 years' experience teaching all eight grades. She graduated from the University of North Dakota and has done graduate work in Chicago and at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Publish a Newspaper!

By Garna Silke

At your next party it would be fun for you and your friends to publish a make-believe newspaper. Take two big sheets and cut one into strips and squares that would be large enough to contain articles and cartoons and advertisements. To start the game, announce, as you hand out pencils and the strips and squares, that the players are to get out the evening paper in 15 minutes. Those who get the squares should do local ads and cartoons; those with the strips are to write on such topics as "Do I Like Homework?"; "Should We Chew Bubble Gum in Public?"; "How's Our Team Doing?" One should be assigned a Gossip Column and another Fashion Notes. When the time is up, the various items are pasted on the uncut sheet and read out loud. You should have many laughs.

Benjamin Franklin

By Ragna Eskil

Benjamin Franklin was born on January 16, 1706. He was not only a great statesman, but he is also known as the Father of Electricity. Did you know that his son Billy was with him during the lightning storm when, using a kite and key, he made the discovery that lightning is electricity? And did you know that he invented the lightning rod that we use today and that he organized the first fire-engine company and started the first circulating library in this country?

He is famous, too, for his common sense and witty sayings, which he published in his "Poor Richard's Almanac." Some of these are: God helps them that help themselves; little strokes fell great oaks; the cat in gloves catches no mice; it is hard for an empty sack to stand upright. Do you know any others?

THE STORY BEHIND Michelangelo's Four Pietàs

By IRVING STONE

Author of "The Agony and the Ecstasy," the best-selling biographical novel about Michelangelo

CABLEGRAMS are flying back and forth between New York and Rome. Their subject: plans for transporting one of the most precious cargoes ever shipped across the Atlantic.

At the urging of Cardinal Spellman, the Vatican has agreed to send its Michelangelo Pietà to New York for exhibition at the 1964 World's Fair. This will be the first time that the statue has left St. Peter's since Michelangelo installed it there himself in 1500.

This Pietà is possibly the most beloved and the best-known art work in Christendom. Yet it is not the only Pietà created by Michelangelo. During his 75 years as a sculptor, he carved three other versions—which are startlingly different from his first and most famous one.

The first Pietà was created for French Cardinal Groslaye, who had been given permission by Pope Alexander VI to "leave something behind him of beauty in Rome." It was Michelangelo's first well-paid commission.

To find the solitude and the quiet for concentrated carving, Michelangelo moved into two rather poor rooms overlooking the Tiber. He purchased a tremendous block of marble and brought in Jewish models from Trastevere in order to sketch his Christ and young Roman matrons to sit as Mary. Then he entered the marble and began blocking out the Pietà.

From the very outset it was a revolutionary concept. He planned two life-sized figures, the Virgin and Jesus, where before the Christ had been a small secondary figure. He placed the life-sized Jesus on His sorrowing mother's lap. And he kept the beautiful face of the Virgin as youthful as the day the Archangel Gabriel appeared to her at the Annunciation.

Disturbed by this, Cardinal Groslaye asked Michelangelo: "How does the Madonna's face remain so young, younger than her Son's?"

"It appeared to me, your Grace, that the Virgin Mary would not age." replied Michelangelo. "She was pure; she would have kept the freshness of youth." The Cardinal accepted Michelangelo's spiritual logic. Since the statue was so unconventional, the sculptor and some of his friends had to sneak it into the Chapel of the Kings of France in the old Basilica of Constantine. But this was not the worst of the indignities. Although it was the Jubilee year of 1500, few of the tourists bothered to come into the gloomy chapel to look at the Pietà.

One day Michelangelo walked into the chapel and found a large Lombardy family standing in front of his carving, quarreling about its authorship. He heard the mother say: "I tell you I recognize the work. It is by that fellow from Osteno who makes all the tombstones."

"No, no," cried her husband. "It is one by our countryman, Cristoforo Solari, called 'the Hunchback.' He has done many of them."

Michelangelo was so outraged that that night he once again sneaked into St. Peter's, but this time with a candle in his cap and a hammer and chisel in his hands. On the band that ran across the Virgin's bosom, he cut the words, Michelangelo Buonarroti of Florence made this. It was the only carving he ever signed. Many people think it is his finest work.

Michelangelo always wanted to sculpture another Pietà. Yet circumstances and his demanding patrons kept him from getting back to the theme for almost 50 years!

In his Duomo Pietà, the theme remained the same, the Virgin Mary supporting the dead Christ in her arms. But half a century of bitterly hard work, frustration, grief, suffering, and disappointment had changed Michelangelo. The aura of almost sublime beauty is no longer to be found in the faces, and the marble is roughhewn.

MICHELANGELO WAS 80. Thinking he was dying and wanting this Pietà for his own tomb, he carved a likeness of himself standing behind Mary and Jesus—and he included the bashed-in nose he had received from a fellow student in sculpture school.

Ironically, Michelangelo somehow broke part of the marble block or perhaps stumbled across a hollow vein. Furious at himself, he gave the unfinished Pietà away. Another sculptor added a disproportionately small and delicate Mary Magdalene which detracts from the statue.

This second Pietà dropped out of sight for nearly 100 years, and then for two centuries it was kept behind the main altar of the Florentine cathedral, where it would not be too conspicuous. Today it occupies the first chapel of the left apse, where it is seen by all. But Michelangelo is buried in Santa Croce, his neighborhood church; he never did get this Pietà to adorn his tomb.

Michelangelo's third Pietà, carved about 1556, is known as the Palestrina Pietà. It is a strange piece, the only major Michelangelo carving that is not cut out of the pure white Carrara marble he so dearly loved. It is made of an antique marble-colored limestone.

The Palestrina Pietà is not beautiful. It is harsh and severe; the body of Christ is enormously massive about the shoulders and chest, and His legs are shrinking and spindly. The Virgin's crudely blocked face is that of an aging peasant under a crushing burden in attempting to hold up her dead son. Nevertheless, it has enormous emotional power.

THE FOURTH PIETÀ, known as the Rondanini, has the most dramatic story. Michelangelo began it when he spoiled the Duomo Pietà, and he was still carving on it at the time of his death at 89. Several years before, when he had almost completed it, he grew discontented with it and changed the statue in amazing fashion.

Originally it appears to have been a single massive Christ. In converting it to a Pietà, Michelangelo changed Jesus's head into Mary's head, then carved Christ's head out of what originally had been His shoulder. The legs of Christ remained untouched and are magnificent, but Michelangelo died before he could complete the face of the Virgin. There is also the phenomenon of Christ's right arm. It had been attached to the original shoulder, but it now stands free in space, cut off at the elbow.

Michelangelo never was able to return in his own mind or in his carving hands to the sweet and gentle sorrow of the St. Peter's Pietà, or to its divine beauty. Life walked harshly over his years; and his chisel moved harshly over the Duomo Pietà, the Palestrina Pietà, and the Rondanini Pietà.

Yet where high polish is missing, where compassion is roughhewn instead of refined, there comes in its place the deep self-agony of the man who has suffered everything life has to offer—and consequently feels a spiritual sympathy and kinship for all mankind.

This second Pietà dropped out of sight for nearly 100 years, and then for two centuries it was kept behind the main altar of the Florentine cathedral, where it would not be too conspicuous. Today it occupies the first chapel of the left apse, where it is seen by all. But Michelangelo is buried in Santa Croce, his neighborhood church; he never did get this Pietà to adorn his tomb.

Michelangelo's third Pietà, carved about 1556, is known as the Palestrina Pietà. It is a strange piece, the only major Michelangelo carving that is not cut out of the pure white Carrara marble he so dearly loved. It is made of an antique marble-colored limestone.

The Palestrina Pietà is not beautiful. It is harsh and severe; the body of Christ is enormously massive about the shoulders and chest, and His legs are shrinking and spindly. The Virgin's crudely blocked face is that of an aging peasant under a crushing burden in attempting to hold up her dead son. Nevertheless, it has enormous emotional power.

THE FOURTH PIETÀ, known as the Rondanini, has the most dramatic story. Michelangelo began it when he spoiled the Duomo Pietà, and he was still carving on it at the time of his death at 89. Several years before, when he had almost completed it, he grew discontented with it and changed the statue in amazing fashion.

Originally it appears to have been a single massive Christ. In converting it to a Pietà, Michelangelo changed Jesus's head into Mary's head, then carved Christ's head out of what originally had been His shoulder. The legs of Christ remained untouched and are magnificent, but Michelangelo died before he could complete the face of the Virgin. There is also the phenomenon of Christ's right arm. It had been attached to the original shoulder, but it now stands free in space, cut off at the elbow.

Michelangelo never was able to return in his own mind or in his carving hands to the sweet and gentle sorrow of the St. Peter's Pietà, or to its divine beauty. Life walked harshly over his years; and his chisel moved harshly over the Duomo Pietà, the Palestrina Pietà, and the Rondanini Pietà.

Yet where high polish is missing, where compassion is roughhewn instead of refined, there comes in its place the deep self-agony of the man who has suffered everything life has to offer—and consequently feels a spiritual sympathy and kinship for all mankind.

Collecting!

collector who lived its triumph and its heartbreak

We had no idea of its real worth, and I was so fascinated by having such a rarity that I couldn't do much but study it for days with Stan. Then a news story broke from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. A collector there, Gerald Clark, also had bought an inverted sheet. He had only 19 left, however, when he discovered the error. Even so, he had an estimated $200,000 worth of stamps. When the newspapers learned I had a sheet of 50 in mint condition—well, I was off on the tail of a tiger.

I was answering telephone calls from Honolulu and replying to letters from West Germany. People with worthy causes asked for "just one stamp—you have so many" or wanted me to buy their "rare stamps." But most of the thousands who contacted me did so just to wish me well.

I LIVED in a collector's dream—and nightmare. Sure, I had the find of a lifetime, but I couldn't keep it. The Sherman family simply couldn't afford to keep stamps like the Dags. I had to assure my five boys of a college education, and Roz had skimped on herself and the household too long. And there was that insurance business, too—no, this time I'd have to sell.

A newspaper reporter called then and told me the Post Office had just ordered millions of misprinted Dags to prevent "speculation."

"You must have that wrong," I said. "Misprints are a part of philately, and no government has ever commemorated a mistake . . ."

But he cut off my lecture on the history of stamp collecting because it no longer held true. I tried to get an injunction to stop the Post Office from devaluating my stamps. It was a race against time. While the legal mills ground slowly in New Jersey, the presses in Washington worked overtime. Finally I got my injunction and halted the misprinting—but only after some 350,000 inverted Dags had been rushed to the postal windows.

I had lost—lost thousands of dollars, 15 pounds, and a hobby. "Look," Stan told me, "you've met some great people. You've had plenty of excitement—and you still have your stamps. They're authenticated original misprints and still worth something, yet not so much that you have to sell them right away."

"You go on collecting," I told Stan. "Me, I'm through."

Three days ago I was driving past the local post office. Well, I thought, I do need that new block of U. S. Education stamps. After that I'd put the albums in the basement. Two days ago I went back to buy $5 worth of U. S. commemoratives.

"I'm back collecting," I told Roz. "I don't know why, but I am."

"Good," she said. "Now we're back to normal."

I was up until 2 this morning with the new stamps. They are fascinating. They made me realize that there is one thing nobody can take away from a stamp collector or anybody with a hobby—the sheer love of it.

I Still Like Stamp

Here's the story behind the biggest stamp find of recent times by the

By LEONARD SHERMAN
as told to Jack Ryan

MAYBE YOU remember me. A couple of months ago, I bought some Dag Hammarskjold commemorative stamps and found a printing error that made them worth an estimated $500,000.

Overnight I became the world's most famous stamp collector. Then the United States Post Office did something never done before in the history of philately: it deliberately flooded the market with misprinted stamps. My rare stamps were still worth more than 4 cents apiece—but not much more.

"What a hobby!" I told my wife Roslyn. "I quit! I've skipped lunches to buy stamps, and you and the kids have gone without things—just for my hobby. And when the 97-million-to-1 chance comes along and I find a rare stamp, they change the rules in the middle of the game!"

So I quit collecting stamps. I'd gotten into it five years ago when my two oldest boys joined the Scouts. Roz and I decided we weren't going to ask other people to help raise our children—we have five boys—so I became assistant scoutmaster and Roz a den mother. As Cub Scouts, Larry and Bobby had to start some sort of a collection.

"I like stamps," Larry said. "I get to know geography and history and famous people—and I like the colors." I shrugged—what difference would it make?

I bought them a cheap album, and every time I had some extra pocket money I'd pick up some stamps for it. Gradually I began to feel the romance of stamp collecting. I'm a guy of ordinary education who has never been far from New Jersey and, by headline standards, have never done much. But with stamps, the whole world opened up to me. I started collections of U. S. commemoratives, U. N. issues, and Israeli and other foreign stamps.

"You're wasting too much time and money on stamps, Len," my wife would say. I couldn't argue about the time—I'd visit post offices once or twice a day and spend evenings poring over my buys. But I had a good argument about "wasting" money:

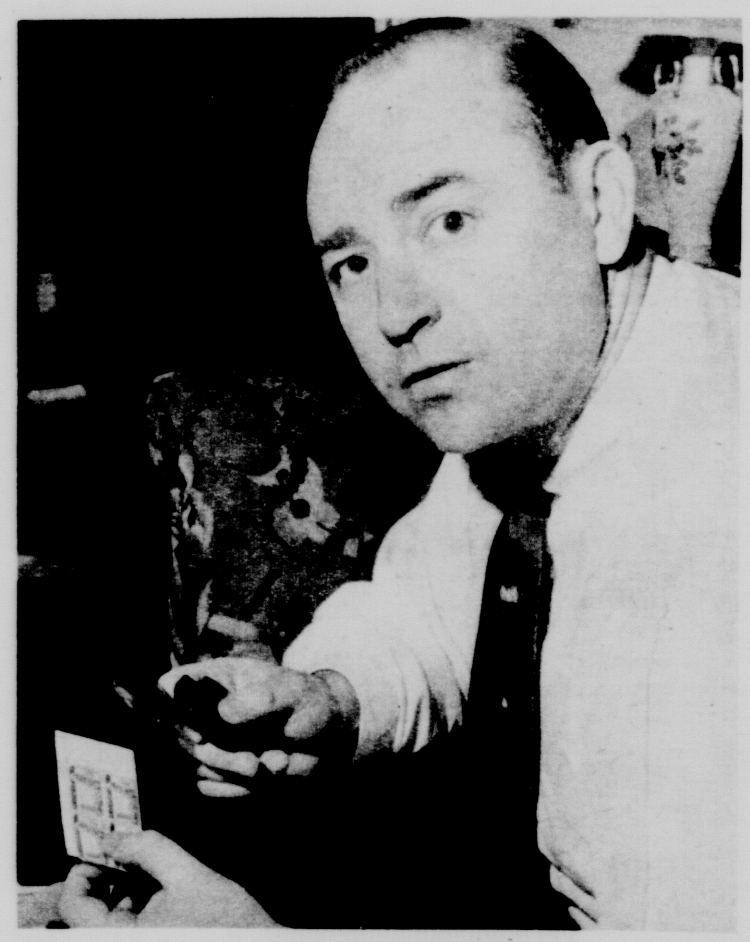
"Stamps are your insurance policy, honey. I can't get regular insurance because of my bad heart. But these stamps increase in value every year. They're like a trust fund for you."

"Why not sell some now?" she asked.

I shuddered. A dealer sells. But a collector collects—nothing more. When you hear that a fine stamp collection is on sale, you can bet the owner is either bankrupt or dead. My collection would provide security for my family—but only after I couldn't provide it myself.

IN TIME, I found rarities and made good buys. Among others, I have plate blocks of 8-cent stamps for which I paid 32 cents; they are now worth $1.25. I have a plate block of 3-centers which cost me 12 cents and now sell for 75 cents. Figure that out on a percentage basis and you'll see that philately is fun—and a good investment.

But for me it was just fun. I still remember the day John Glenn made America's first orbital flight. I was watching television when they announced the Post Office had put on sale a special astronaut issue. I jumped out of my chair—a first-day issue to coincide exactly with an historic event! I called my friend Stan Sussman, a collector himself, and we camped at the post office until 11 p.m. making up first-day-of-issue envelopes. We figure our particular cancelled 4-centers are already worth $1.25 apiece. But the really big kick was in being in on that great moment personally.



Sherman holds Dag stamps that almost netted him a fortune.

Something like that comes rarely, so months later when I was studying my sheets of Hammarskjolds I wasn't expecting another bolt of lightning. But there it was. A line of white ran through the yellow and tan of the stamp; the 4¢ lettering should have been white but was yellow; the yellow had been printed upside-down. An inverted printing—the first in the U. S. since 1918!

"Roz! Roz!" I yelled and began babbling like someone who has had a dream come true.

"How much is it worth?" Roz asked, practically.

I had no idea, so I called Stan. "The only way to learn that is at an auction," he said. "Supply and demand determine the price. But it should be worth a good price."

NOW...AS FOR 60 YEARS...THE REXALL BRAND IS

DON'T TELL ME YOUR PROBLEMS. I'm pretty busy with a batch of my own.

In the first place, it has been 20 degrees below zero here for so long that all of us who escaped pneumonia have fallen prey to creeping paralysis. It has snowed every day since last July 4. Nobody shovels any more. They can't reach that high. Nobody even leaves the house. They can't walk that high, either.

After six weeks of this, my parents decided to leave for Florida. They threw dull care away, and most of it fell on me. They left home this morning, but the plane on which their reservations were carefully confirmed doesn't seem to fly any more. I presume the fuselage is frozen. They are booked from Chicago to nowhere.

Anyway, I wish I were there. They left a houseful of dirty dishes, unmade beds, and false weather reports. The lady who kindly offered to come and clean up all this mess failed to make it from her house to ours. She reports her transmission is stuck. That is exactly how I feel. Stuck.

ILLUSTRATION BY JOHN ALLEN

There is also the small matter of the furnace, which has quit working because there is a lack of fuel to make it operate. The man who drives the fuel truck says he can't get here from there because his truck has a shattered knucklenut or something. It is going to be fairly difficult to keep from feeling shattered myself tonight with another forecast of 20 below.

That may indicate nothing, of course. The weather bureau is staffed with whimsical fellows who predicted our last 10 inches of blizzard as "occasional snow flurries." My only consolation is that they are closely related to the Florida weather-bureau folk who predict "scattered showers" for a week of floods.

The cat was supposed to be sent to the kennels, but the road to the kennels is filled with blowing and drifting snow. At last count, I had two nickels in my pocketbook, and I have just poured, from a shaking hand, half a cup of coffee down a dress I am wearing for the first time since the cleaner returned it. I mopped most of the coffee off my bosom, but it has left a large area which looks something like an archery target.

Possibly that's just as well. I may shoot myself.

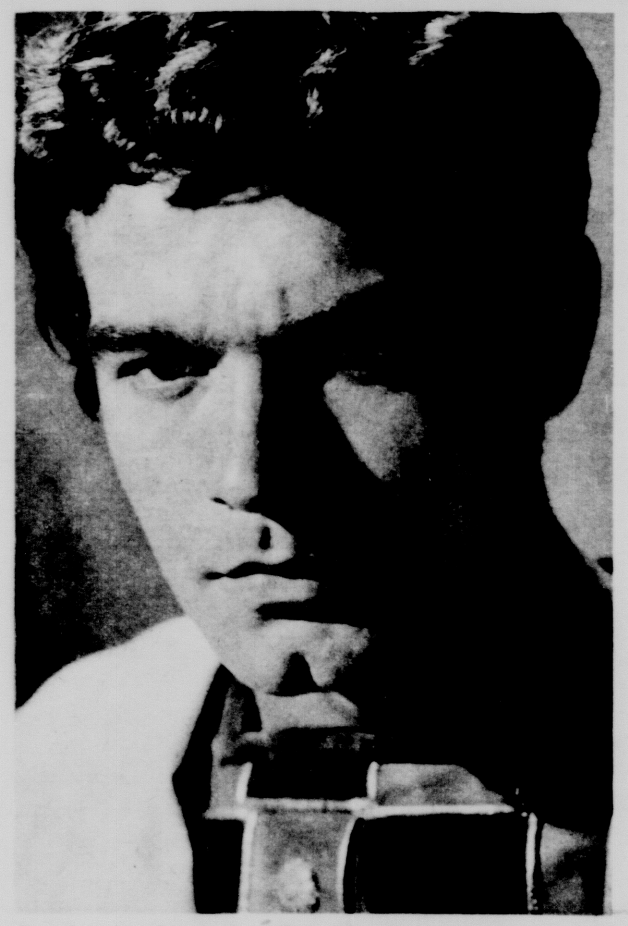
Stephen Boyd:

IRISHMAN IN A TOGA

The handsome villain of "Ben-Hur" is slated for a second Roman epic—but he's proving he can handle other kinds of roles, too

By PEER J. OPPENHEIMER



Boyd won fame in "Ben-Hur," but he's equally good as a song-and-dance man in new "Jumbo."

STEPHEN BOYD thundered into the movie spotlight as the villainous chariot driver Messala in "Ben-Hur."

But, to the distress of himself and his newly won fans, he thundered right out again in a series of unspectaculars that gave him little chance to prove his acting ability.

There was new hope for stardom when the handsome Irishman landed another Roman role, that of Marc Antony in "Cleopatra." But the production of that picture dragged out endlessly, and when the film was finally made, Richard Burton—as everyone knows by now—played the starring role opposite Liz Taylor.

Now, however, Steve's career looks promising again. He is about to don a toga to portray the lead in a multi-million-dollar production of "The Fall of the Roman Empire" opposite Sophia Loren. After that he will return to Hollywood to make "The San Franciscans."

The latter will be his second film for Joe Pasternak. The first is the newly released "Jumbo," a circus musical in which Steve shows talent as a song-and-dance man.

Actually, his musical accomplishments came as no surprise to those who remembered that he is a skilled guitar player who once sang for his meals!

"When I was broke, I used to walk along the queues outside the theaters in London singing folk songs to my own accompaniment and then pass around my cap to collect coins. We call this 'busking' at home. I did all right till the buskers' union caught up with me and chased me away from my favorite spot—thus cutting short my musical career!"

Steve's trying years in London began when he arrived there at 20, fresh from his native Belfast in Northern Ireland. Life had been difficult at home for the youngest of nine children of a poor truck driver—but it turned out to be even more difficult in the big, impersonal British capital.

Steve wanted to find theatrical work, but it wasn't to be had, so he took whatever odd jobs he could get. At one time his income was so low that he became ill from malnutrition. Yet it was one of his odd jobs that finally got him a break as an actor.

He was working as an usher at the theater where the British Film Annual Awards were presented. When he helped Sir Michael Redgrave on stage, the well-known British star smiled and said, "I'm not sure that you aren't one of the best actors on the stage tonight . . ."

"I am an actor," Steve replied promptly.

"So what are you doing as an usher?" Redgrave asked.

Steve told him he was out of work. For the first time in his life, Redgrave backed a hunch by recommending someone for a job whom he had never seen act. The result was several weeks of work with a theatrical stock company, which soon was followed by bit parts in movies and tv plays.

The turning point of Steve's career came in 1958 when he won the part of Messala in "Ben-Hur"—a role that almost cost his life when he insisted on doing 90 percent of the chariot racing himself rather than use a stunt man. "I did my own dragging, and at one point I had the chariot right on top of me. We were going about 30 miles an hour at the time. A good part of the skin came off my back."

BUT AFTER "BEN-HUR," the parts that followed did not live up to expectations. "So when Joe Pasternak offered me the lead in 'Jumbo' opposite Doris Day, I jumped at the opportunity—particularly since it was a musical and offered me a change of pace," Steve said.

Steve is not bitter about his struggle in Hollywood. His life has conditioned him to hard work and patience.

He likes to tell of his first visit home after his success in "Ben-Hur." When he arrived at the Belfast airport, his father approached him, held out his hand, and said simply, "Nice to see you." Steve leaned over to kiss his mother. "From then on," he recalled, "everything was back to normal, just as if I'd never left home."

"To an outsider this may seem formal," Stephen admitted. "But it's a characteristic of the Irish. We don't believe in a show of emotion, but affection is there and open to you when you want it and need it. I prefer this kind of attitude to that which I feel is so typical of Hollywood. Putting up a front to impress others can never have any meaning to me. Not the way I was raised!"

The 34-year-old bachelor puts into practice the philosophy he inherited from his parents. In spite of his success, he lives in a modest home, drives a rented compact car, associates primarily with non-movie people, and shows a disinterest in worldly goods that is particularly surprising considering the poverty he knew as a youth.

Lamb Stew Picasso

- 2 lbs. lamb stew meat, cut in 2-in. pieces
- ¼ cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- ¼ cup olive oil
- 1 cup beef broth
- 2 medium-sized green peppers, chopped
- ½ teaspoon marjoram
- 3 cloves garlic, crushed in a garlic press or minced
- 1 lb. potatoes, pared and sliced
- 2 medium-sized onions, sliced
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 2 medium-sized tomatoes, cut in wedges
- 1 cup pimiento-stuffed olives

1. Coat lamb pieces with a mixture of the next three ingredients.

2. Heat olive oil in a large skillet; add lamb and brown evenly on all sides. Add beef broth slowly, then stir in the green pepper, marjoram, and garlic. Cover and cook over low heat 30 min.

3. Add potatoes, onions, and celery; cook, covered, about 10 min., or until potatoes are tender. Mix in the tomatoes and olives; heat thoroughly.

4. If a thicker stew is desired, blend in a mixture of seasoned flour and water, bring to boiling, and cook 1 to 2 min. longer. About 6 servings

Brilliant Strata Salad

A vivid crimson layer provides the dramatic effect.

- 1 10-oz. pkg. frozen raspberries, thawed and drained (reserve sirup)
- 1 8¾-oz. can crushed pineapple, drained (reserve sirup)
- 1 3-oz. pkg. raspberry-flavored gelatin
- ½ cup cold water
- 1 tablespoon (1 env.) unflavored gelatin
- 2 cups small-curd, cream-style cottage cheese
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup cream

1. Lightly oil an 8x8x2-in. pan with salad or cooking oil (not olive oil); set aside to drain on absorbent paper.

2. Combine raspberry and pineapple sirups. Add enough water to make 1¾ cups liquid. Heat 1 cup of the liquid until very hot. Pour over raspberry-flavored gelatin in a bowl and stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Stir in the remaining ¾ cup liquid.

3. Chill until mixture is slightly thicker than the consistency of thick, unbeaten egg white. If chilled in refrigerator, stir occasionally; if chilled over ice and water, stir frequently.

4. Soften unflavored gelatin in the cold water; dissolve over low heat.

5. Mix the cottage cheese, salt, cream, pineapple, and dissolved gelatin together. Spread half of the cheese mixture evenly in the bottom of the pan. Chill until just set, but not firm.

6. When raspberry gelatin is of desired consistency, fold in the raspberries. When first layer in pan is partially set, spoon raspberry mixture evenly over top. (Both layers should be of the same consistency when combined to avoid separation when served.) Top evenly with the remaining cheese mixture. Chill until firm.

7. Unmold onto a chilled serving plate or cut into squares and serve on individual plates. Garnish with crisp salad greens. About 9 servings

Graham Cracker Cake

- Creamy Vanilla Filling (see recipe)
- ½ cup sifted cake flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 24 graham crackers, finely crushed (2 cups)
- ¾ cup chopped pecans
- 1 cup butter or margarine
- 1½ teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 cup sugar
- 3 egg yolks, well beaten
- 1 cup milk
- 3 egg whites
- ½ cup sugar
- Confectioners' sugar

1. Prepare Creamy Vanilla Filling and chill thoroughly.

2. Lightly grease bottoms only of two 9-in. round layer-cake pans; set aside.

3. Blend first three dry ingredients together. Mix in crushed crackers and nuts; set aside.

4. Cream the butter and extract together until butter is softened. Add the 1 cup sugar gradually, creaming until fluffy after each addition.

5. Add egg yolks in thirds, beating thoroughly after each addition.

6. Beating only until smooth after each addition, alternately add dry ingredients in fourths and milk in thirds to the creamed mixture.

7. Beat egg whites until frothy; add ⅓ cup sugar gradually, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until rounded peaks are formed. Spread egg whites over the batter and gently fold together. Turn batter into pans.

8. Bake at 350°F 30 to 35 min., or until cake tester inserted in center of cake comes out clean. Cool on racks 10 min.; remove from pans and cool completely.

9. Spread the chilled filling over one layer of cooled cake. Cover with second layer. Place a lace paper doily over the cake; sift evenly with confectioners' sugar and carefully lift off doily.

One 9-in. round layer cake

Creamy Vanilla Filling

- ½ cup sugar
- 2½ tablespoons flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1½ cups cream
- 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- ¼ teaspoon almond extract

1. Mix first three ingredients together in a double-boiler top. Stir constantly while adding the cream gradually. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly, and cook 3 min. longer.

2. Cover and cook over simmering water for 5 to 7 min., stirring several times.

3. Vigorously stir about 3 tablespoons of the hot mixture into the egg yolks; immediately blend into cream mixture. Cook over simmering water 3 to 5 min., stirring constantly.

4. Remove from heat and blend in the remaining ingredients. Cover and cool slightly. Chill. About 1½ cups filling

Tomato Aspic Ring

- ½ cup cold water
- 2 tablespoons (2 env.) unflavored gelatin
- 2 1-lb. cans stewed tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons cider vinegar
- 1 tablespoon prepared horse-radish
- 1 tablespoon grated onion
- ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 3 hard-cooked eggs, cut in quarters

1. Lightly oil a 5½-cup ring mold with salad or cooking oil (not olive oil) and set aside to drain.

2. Soften gelatin in water; dissolve completely over hot water.

3. Meanwhile, turn contents of cans of tomatoes into a saucepan and break up large pieces with a spoon.

4. Stir in next six ingredients and heat to boiling. Stir in the dissolved gelatin. Cool; chill until mixture begins to gel (gets slightly thicker). If chilled in refrigerator, stir occasionally; if chilled over ice and water, stir frequently.

5. Arrange egg quarters, cut side down, around the bottom of mold; spoon gelatin mixture into mold.

6. Chill until firm, about 3 hrs.

7. Unmold onto a chilled serving plate; garnish with crisp salad greens, scored cucumber slices, and carrot straws, then drizzle vegetables with French dressing. 6 to 8 servings
